ii. Executive Summary of the Annual PHA Plan

[24 CFR Part 903.7 9 (r)]

Provide a brief overview of the information in the Annual Plan, including highlights of major initiatives and discretionary policies the PHA has included in the Annual Plan.

The GHA continues to improve our utilization rate, for 2002 the GHA was 101% utilized. We have exceeded our expectations in providing home ownership opportunities for low-income families. By the end of 2002, we moved 25 families from rental to home ownership. This exceeds our projections through to 2004. However successful this program has been, our ability to run this program is dependent on the ups and downs of the West Virginia Housing Development Fund. We continue to provide services to our Section 8 tenants through our FSS program and our home-ownership counseling program. We also are coordinating a Housing Assessment process that meets yearly that evaluates the housing needs and prioritizes those needs. We will implement a Section 8 Home-ownership Voucher program in 2003 and possibly start a Lease-purchase program.

Comments Resident Advisory Board Meeting November 13, 2002

Five tenants, the Tenant Board of Commissioner, the Family Self Sufficiency Coordinator and the Executive Director of GHA attended the meeting.

The one and a half hour meeting generated the following ideas and suggestions:

RAB1: Recreation Center/Park in Fairlea and the west end near Rainelle should be promoted;

GHA: The GHA will work with the interested residents on trying to obtain more parks in the area.

RAB2 : A need exist to match available jobs with people with appropriate education levels;

GHA: The GHA will work with the Job Service and Greenbrier Education entities to assure that people are being trained for available jobs.

RAB3: Problems of providing a dequate after -school programs for “latch key” services need to be addressed;

GHA: The GHA will contact the Family Empowerment Resource Network to see the need for afterschool programs for kids.

RAB4: Security guarantees need to be increased at such housing developments as Ft. Spring, Ridgeview Estates and Union Place (project based Section 8 and USDA Rural Development projects);

GHA: The GHA will discuss the need for additional security with management at Ft. Spring, Ridgeview Estate and Union Place Apartments.

RAB5: One resident complained there were “too many inspections” in a year at a certain apartment complex (quarterly instead of annually);

GHA: The GHA will call the complex to ask about the procedure.

RAB6: Question raised as to the need for more handicapped -accessible apartments in our area;

GHA: We concur with the need for additional handicap -accessible units and are working with developers about this need.

RAB7: Regarding the subject of “criminal background checks”, question of balancing “ leniency” vs. “harshness” discussed in some detail. Generally speaking, the cutting edge of distinction is whether a crime was violent or not, and whether it was more or less than 10 years ago. Mention was made by one participant that a 4th D.U.I. is considered a felony;

GHA; The GHA will take this discussion seriously when we update our administrative plan (which is currently going on).

RAB8: One R.A.B. participant starts working at the Greenbrier Hotel this month after a 10 -year lay -off on disability. She signed up for the FSS program 2 days after the R.A.B. meeting.

GHA: This addition to our FSS program was an added bonus resulting from the RAB meeting. The GHA was impressed with the comments made by the RAB and look forward to working with the RAB again in March, 2003.

Each participant received a small door prize and one participant received a "grand prize" of a turkey.

Attachment-C.

The Greenbrier Housing Authority anticipates the only program change to occur over the next year will be the implementation of a Housing Choice Voucher Homeownership Program.
