ii. Executive Summary

[24 CFR Part 903.7 9 (r)]

At PHA option, provide a brief overview of the information in the Annual Plan

This 2004 Annual Plan updates the objectives and policies of the Plymouth Housing and Redevelopment Authority (HRA). The Plymouth HRA serves approximately 370 very-low income families through its administration of the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher program.

In addition to providing rental assistance to qualified households, the Plymouth HRA also offers a voluntary family self-sufficiency program to Section 8 participants.

The Section 8 Voucher program has continued to work with landlord recruitment and retention and during 2003, 90 percent of families issued vouchers found housing in the City of Plymouth.

The local policies and efforts have made the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher program a success in the City of Plymouth. The Plymouth HRA will continue to use admission policies that target the very needy by providing equal opportunity assistance in low-poverty and economically viable areas and by proactive communication of program changes and valuable services.

1. Summary of Policy or Program Changes for the Upcoming Year

In this section, briefly describe changes in policies or programs discussed in last year's PHA Plan that are not covered in other sections of this Update.

We will have a few policy changes to the Annual Plan. A change in the language for removing someone from the waiting list from "may" remove them to "will" remove them from the waiting list. For example; when they don't return their waiting list application by a specific due date or their mail being returned to us as undeliverable. Also, we would require a program participant to provide their own interpreter if they are in need of one. We only provide interpreters to waiting list applicants and only if they are requested. Another change would be to program participants that are claiming zero income. We would put a maximum of two months that they could claim a zero income status. The participant will have to supply information pertaining to how they are paying their bills and living expenses. Right now there is no maximum time frame. If there were to be exceptions to this rule or unusual circumstances as to why the participant would need more than two months at zero income status it would have to be approved by the Section 8 Manager. The last change would be to the interim re-examinations. There is no clarification if a tenant has no income for a week or two at a job due to illness, vacation, etc. No interim change of rent will be done for something of this nature. An interim is done when there is more of a pattern of an income change for more than 4 weeks at a time.
