C. Criteria for Substantial Deviation and Significant Amendments

Amendment and Deviation Definitions

24 CFR Part 903.7(r)

PHAs are required to define and adopt their own standards of substantial deviation from the 5-year Plan and Significant Amendment to the Annual Plan. The definition of significant amendment is important because it defines when the PHA will subject a change to the policies or activities described in the Annual Plan to full public hearing and HUD review before implementation.

A. Substantial Deviation from the 5-year Plan:

If this Agency plans to deviate from the Five-year Plan, public notice will be made and any comments received will be considered in implementing those changes. The changes will then be approved by the Board. HUD will also be notified of any changes.

B. Significant Amendment or Modification to the Annual Plan:

If this Agency plans to make any significant changes to the Annual Plan, public notice will be made and any comments received will be considered in implementing those changes. The changes will then be approved by the Board. HUD will also be notified of any changes.
