C. Criteria for Substantial Deviation and Significant Amendments

1. Amendment and Deviation Definitions

24 CFR Part 903.7(r)

PHAs are required to define and adopt their own standards of substantial deviation from the 5-year Plan and Significant Amendment to the Annual Plan. The definition of significant amendment is important because it defines when the PHA will subject a change to the policies or activities described in the Annual Plan to full public hearing and HUD review before implementation.

A. Substantial Deviation from the 5-year Plan:

Any discretionary changes in the plan or policies of the housing authority that fundamentally change mission, goals, objectives or plans of the agency and which require formal approval of the Board of Commissioners.

B. Significant Amendment or Modification to the Annual Plan:

Emergencies, state, federal or any legally mandated requirements.

- c. How many Assessments were conducted for the PHA’s covered developments? 1
- d. Identify PHA developments that may be appropriate for conversion based on the Required Initial Assessments:
- e. If the PHA has not completed the Required Initial Assessments, describe the status of these assessments.

STATUS:

I, Paula Josefy, Executive Director of the Grandfield Housing Authority certify that we have

- (a) Reviewed the development’s operation as public housing;
- (b) Considered the implication of converting the public housing to tenant based assistance; and
- (c) Concluded that conversion of the development may be:
- (1) Appropriate because removal of the development would meet the necessary conditions for voluntary conversion:
 - (a) Conversion would not be more expensive than continuing operation as public housing;
 - (b) Principally benefit the residents of the public housing development to be converted and the community; and

(c) Not adversely affect the availability of affordable housing in the community.

(2) Inappropriate because removal of the development would not meet the necessary conditions for voluntary conversion because:

(a) Conversion would be more expensive than continuing operation as public housing;

(b) Conversion would not principally benefit the residents of the public housing development and community; and

(c) Conversion would adversely affect the availability of affordable housing in the community.
