B. Strategy for Addressing Needs

Provide a brief description of the PHA's strategy for addressing the housing needs of families on the PHA's public housing and Section 8 waiting lists IN THE UPCOMING YEAR, and the Agency's reasons for choosing this strategy.

Because of the loss of a major business in Liberal which was to have employed up to 700 people, The economy in Liberal suffered greatly. Many elderly were forced to take in family to help house and support when younger members lost their income. Therefore instead of moving into Housing such as ours and allowing their homes to be "re-cycled", they stayed in over-crowded situations for financial reasons. Also, because Liberal is now approximately 65% Hispanic, their culture encourages them to house elderly family members instead of leaving elderly independent. All in all, the Housing Authority suffered from a vacancy problem for almost four (4) years. This vacancy problem brought us financial problems and it has been extremely difficult to contend with increasing utility costs and insurance rates have quadrupled because of storm damage received two years in a row. The Housing Authority has had to struggle to overcome the day-to-day problems presented. We have decreased our personnel and other expenditures greatly and still have managed to maintain a well conditioned housing facility with good curb appeal. We only have public housing with 100 units (99 available and 1 unit for office). We are currently at 90% and hope to increase occupancy at a steady level over the next 12 months.

years despite the economic downfall that has hit our area. We have used capital funds to take care of much needed replacements of washers/dryers and physical improvements such as foundation repair and parking lot resurfacing. All in all, we are maintaining the property and see daylight at the end of the tunnel. We are currently at 90% occupancy and hope to only improve.
