- 4. When the family has an increase in expenses because of changed circumstances, for medical costs, childcare, transportation, education, or similar items;
- 5. When a death has occurred in the family.

A. No hardship. If the Housing Authority determines there is no qualifying hardship, the minimum rent will be reinstated, including requiring back payment of minimum rent for the time of suspension.

B. Temporary hardship. If the Housing Authority reasonably determines that there is a qualifying hardship but that it is of a temporary nature, the minimum rent will not be imposed for a period of 90 days from the date of the family' request. At the end of the 90-day period, the minimum rent will be imposed retroactively to the time of suspension. The Housing Authority will offer a repayment agreement in accordance with the Section 19 of this Policy for any rent not paid during the period of suspension. During the suspension period the Housing Authority will not evict the family for nonpayment of the amount of tenant rent owed for the suspension period.

C. Long-term hardship. If the Housing Authority determines there is a long-term hardship, the family will be exempt from the minimum rent requirement until the hardship no longer exists.

A. PHA Progress in Meeting the Mission and Goals Described in the 5-Year Plan

(Provide a statement of the PHA's progress against the goals and objectives established in the previous 5-Year Plan for the period FY 2000 - 2004.

The Sleepy Eye Housing Authority has attained the status of High Performer for the years 2000-2003 and Standard Performer for the 2004 Fiscal Year. The HRA strives to continue the High Performer Status.

The Sleepy Eye Housing Authority has remained above 97% occupied for the years 2000-2003. In 2004 the Sleepy Eye HRA experienced a high turnover in tenants due to death or nursing home placement.

Over the past five years the Sleepy Eye HRA has brought many services to the tenants of Ross Park Apartments. This has enabled the elderly and disabled tenants to age in place.

The HRA collaborated with State, County and local service providers to create Assisted Living Services, Senior Dining Services, the Faith in Action Program of Brown County, wellness and activity programs, and in 2003 built a 1624' addition to Ross Park for the expanded Adult Day Service Program. Grant funding for these projects was provided through the Minnesota Department of Health and Human Services Aging Initiatives, the Bush Foundation, Volunteers of America, and the HUD Capital Improvement Program.

In 2003 the Sleepy Eye HRA partnered with the City of Sleepy Eye and Economic Development Authority to develop a Master Development Plan to redesign Sleepy Eye's vacating downtown businesses, and points of interest in Sleepy Eye. A firm was also hired to complete a Housing Study for the City of Sleepy Eye.

In 2004 the City, EDA and HRA have begun addressing the housing findings and recommendations derived from the housing study.

The Sleepy Eye HRA continues to provide high quality, affordable housing with supportive services in a safe, welcoming environment..
