B. Strategy for Addressing Needs

Provide a brief description of the PHA's strategy for addressing the housing needs of families on the PHA's public housing and Section 8 waiting lists IN THE UPCOMING YEAR, and the Agency's reasons for choosing this strategy.

(1) Strategies

Need: Shortage of affordable housing for all eligible populations

Strategy 1. Maximize the number of affordable units available to the PHA within its current resources by:

Select all that apply

- Employ effective maintenance and management policies to minimize the number of public housing units off-line
- Reduce turnover time for vacated public housing units
- Reduce time to renovate public housing units
- Seek replacement of public housing units lost to the inventory through mixed finance development
- Seek replacement of public housing units lost to the inventory through section 8 replacement housing resources
- Maintain or increase section 8 lease-up rates by establishing payment standards that will enable families to rent throughout the jurisdiction
- Undertake measures to ensure access to affordable housing among families assisted by the PHA, regardless of unit size required
- Maintain or increase section 8 lease-up rates by marketing the program to owners, particularly those outside of areas of minority and poverty concentration
- Maintain or increase section 8 lease-up rates by effectively screening Section 8 applicants to increase owner acceptance of program
- Participate in the Consolidated Plan development process to ensure coordination with broader community strategies
- Other (list below)

Move program participants who are able, to homeownership.

Strategy 2: Increase the number of affordable housing units by:

Select all that apply

- Apply for additional section 8 units should they become available
- Leverage affordable housing resources in the community through the creation of mixed - finance housing

- Pursue housing resources other than public housing or Section 8 tenant-based assistance.
- Other: (list below)
Leverage funds for down payment assistance and gap financing for first time homebuyers.

Need: Specific Family Types: Families at or below 30% of median

Strategy 1: Target available assistance to families at or below 30 % of AMI

Select all that apply

- Exceed HUD federal targeting requirements for families at or below 30% of AMI in public housing
- Exceed HUD federal targeting requirements for families at or below 30% of AMI in tenant-based section 8 assistance
- Employ admissions preferences aimed at families with economic hardships
- Adopt rent policies to support and encourage work
- Other: (list below)

Need: Specific Family Types: Families at or below 50% of median

Strategy 1: Target available assistance to families at or below 50% of AMI

Select all that apply

- Employ admissions preferences aimed at families who are working
- Adopt rent policies to support and encourage work
- Other: (list below)

Need: Specific Family Types: The Elderly

Strategy 1: Target available assistance to the elderly:

Select all that apply

- Seek designation of public housing for the elderly
- Apply for special-purpose vouchers targeted to the elderly, should they become available
- Other: (list below)

Need: Specific Family Types: Families with Disabilities

Strategy 1: Target available assistance to Families with Disabilities:

- Market the section 8 program to owners outside of areas of poverty /minority concentrations
- Other: (list below)
Provide Fair Housing workshops for area landlords.

Other Housing Needs & Strategies: (list needs and strategies below)

(2) Reasons for Selecting Strategies

Of the factors listed below, select all that influenced the PHA's selection of the strategies it will pursue:

- Funding constraints
- Staffing constraints
- Limited availability of sites for assisted housing
- Extent to which particular housing needs are met by other organizations in the community
- Evidence of housing needs as demonstrated in the Consolidated Plan and other information available to the PHA
- Influence of the housing market on PHA programs
- Community priorities regarding housing assistance
- Results of consultation with local or state government
- Results of consultation with residents and the Resident Advisory Board
- Results of consultation with advocacy groups
- Other: (list below)

HUD funding constraints have encouraged us to take steps to cut costs. To achieve this goal we have given working families preference for public housing, and have removed the preference for those at 30% or below the medium income level for the Section 8 program. We expect these actions will provide a client base with a wider range of incomes than we currently have. We have enough extremely very low income applicants on the waiting lists to maintain the required income targeting.

Tenants present were Irene May, Laura Lillegard, Margaret Deutsch, Dorothy Jensen, Earl Henderson, Scott Rieffer, Abdulkadir Hindi, Zubeyda Abdirahman, and Sheila Kwasniewski. Also present was Lul Ahmed, social worker from Blue Earth County Human Services.

After introductions, Patti outlined the reason for the meeting, the many activities the housing authority undertakes, and the differences between the proposed plan and last years plan. The changes in the waiting list preferences were explained.

The proposed capitol fund expenditures including the re-siding of Orness Plaza, the new roof and windows, remodeling apartments, landscaping, and moving the thermostats from the baseboard heating units to the wall where they are easier to reach, was explained.

At this point the residents suggested that we sell advertising space on the side of the building that faces the ballpark, paint the exterior of the building (blue was this person's favorite color), install a fitness center in Orness Plaza, and construct a windmill on the site to generate electricity.

Residents of the family units said they would like improvements to units where families have lived there a long time. Roxanne explained the expectation that HUD has on how often carpet, painting and appliances should last.

Staff explained that the suggestions of the residents would be considered.
