A. PHA Progress in Meeting the Mission and Goals Described in the 5-Year Plan

(Provide a statement of the PHA's progress against the goals and objectives established in the previous 5-Year Plan for the period FY 2000 - 2004.

A "Pet Policy" was implemented and is now in effect for both housing complexes under its jurisdiction. (Chapman Estates and Fairground Estates.)

The "Community Service Policy" is in place and was effective January 1, 2001.

Our mission remains the same: To promote decent, affordable housing, economic opportunities and a suitable living environment free from discrimination.

Our goals to reduce vacancies in Public Housing and to improve our PHAS score, is to improve the turnaround time for readying units to rent, and decrease the time in which it takes to lease-up vacant units, through improved customer satisfaction.

The PHA continues to improve the goal of Public Housing Security. Global Security Solutions contract expired on October 14, 2004, and the housing authority is currently in negotiations with city officials to hire a police officer to patrol the ground for both the elderly and family complexes.

The PHA encourages all residents to participate in self-sufficiency programs offered by the Division of Family Services, by encouraging participation through continuing education or employment.

We will continue with our objectives to apply our limited resources in an efficient, productive manner to be sure that we are contributing to the quality of our community. We will continue to maintain program fiscal integrity through oversight and intervention by employing results-oriented personnel. We will continue to seek out problem-solving partnerships, with residents, community and local government, and to recognize our residents as our ultimate customers.
