a. X Yes No: Does the PHA give extensions on standard 60-day period to search for a unit?

If yes, state circumstances below: Vouchers for family participation are issued to eligible families for a term of 60 days. One 30-day extension will be issued if the family can satisfactorily document extenuating circumstances, which caused them not to find suitable unit within the 60-day time frame. If the family has been vigorously searching and simply cannot locate an acceptable unit, they must provide the Bradford Housing Authority (BHA) with a list of each landlord contacted and the address of the rental unit as well as the dates of contact. In cases where a landlord needs additional time to reasonable accommodate the needs of the applicant, an additional 30-day extension will be considered. All requests for extensions must be in writing delivered to the BHA offices at 2 Bushnell Street, Bradford, PA, no later than five days prior to expiration of the voucher or extension date, whichever applies.

If a member of the family is a disabled person, and the family needs an extension because of the disability, the BHA will consider a written request for an extension of sixty (60) days as a reasonable accommodation.
