A sample extension request form and a form for recording their search efforts will be included in the family's briefing packet. If the family documents their efforts and additional time can reasonably be expected to result in success, the Housing Authority will grant the length of request sought by the family or 60 days, whichever is less.

[24 CFR Part 903.12 (b), 903.7 (r)]

A. PHA Progress in Meeting the Mission and Goals Described in the 5-Year Plan

(Provide a statement of the PHA's progress against the goals and objectives established in the previous 5-Year Plan for the period FY 2000 - 2004)

2001 – 2004 Goals

Goal 1

Manage the Housing and Redevelopment Commission of Pierre in a manner that results in full compliance with applicable statutes and regulations.

This goal has been met and sustained, including significantly higher than national averages in the Resident Satisfaction Assessment Survey.

HRCP has met and sustained HUD mandated Section 8 lease-up rates of 98% or higher for the past two years

HRCP expanded its customer hours from twenty to forty hours per week, has the office door open whenever employees are present, and re-configured the office to a more open, friendly environment for customers. Toys and coloring books were added to a waiting area to entertain children, and correspondence is addressed to a person, not "Dear Tenant". Commissioners have received no customer complaint calls at their homes for the past five years; and requests for Informal Hearings have decreased from a high of fifteen in one year to one in the last fifteen months.

Goal 2

Expand the range and quality of housing choices available to participants in the Housing and Redevelopment Commission of Pierre's tenant-based assistance and public housing programs

HRCP has sustained a utilization rate of 98% for the past two years. Unit turnaround time has been under the twenty day limit imposed by HUD to achieve maximum number of points under PHAS. Timely inspections of units are 100%.

This goal was met in that HRCP attracted twenty-one new vendors under Section 8; however, in the same period of time, eleven dropped out. Most of the vendors dropping out of the Section 8 program were one property vendors; and when their tenant left, they opted to discontinue participation. In a few instances, vendors changed as a result of the sale or family transfer of property.

HRCP is so diligent in its inspection process that the five day maximum working days for inspecting a new unit is no longer required as a goal. SEMAP, PHAS, annual audits, and an on-site review by HUD-Denver in 2002 listed no exceptions to a five day turnaround time for inspection of new units.

This goal was met and exceeded by June 30, 2001, and has been sustained to the extent that it is no longer a goal. HRCP has improved its efficiency to the point that processing time for individuals selected from the waiting list seldom takes more than fifteen days. Individualized Briefings rather than group Briefings are now the norm, which speeds the process along significantly. Families holding vouchers, however, particularly families of large households, sometimes have difficulty in finding suitable section 8 housing within forty-five days.

This goal was not met, because HRCP was playing catch up to becoming fully leased according to HUD directives the last two years. There are currently no additional vouchers available and offered by HUD. The HRCP Board of Commissioners has expressed an openness to reviewing its options to pursue additional Section 8 vouchers should they become available and HRCP maintains its current lease-up rates.

Goal 3

Educate the public about housing options available through the Housing and Redevelopment Commission of Pierre.

This goal has been met. HRCP has kept the community informed about its services, including a formal presentation before the Mayor's Task Force on Housing in 2004. It has kept abreast of advertising its intended actions through its announcement of Public Hearings, and has distributed specific policy information to appropriate agencies, including faith-based and private not-for-profit.

This goal has been met; and it is intended it will be sustained. HRCP instituted an on-site elderly nutrition program in 2002. It has a contract with BankWest of Pierre for bank employees to be on-site once a month to assist tenants with their banking services. HRCP arranged with a local advocacy agency to provide monthly educational programs on-site, using guest experts from many field of endeavor as presenters. HRCP maintains a working relationship with adult social and rehabilitation services, as well as private and public special services provides for tenants, to help resident maintain their independency and health.

Goal 4

Improve access of public housing residents to services that support economic opportunity and quality of life.

HRCP will continue to explore and develop partnerships in order to enhance services to our residents. This goal has been met in that there has been excellent communication and cooperation by all parties in the verification process, and in working with public agencies in matters of specific interests in behalf of the tenant. Unfortunately, there are no established written agreements identifying the process of that cooperation.

HRCP maintains a very "customer-friendly" attitude in all of its activities. Additionally, the 2003 composite score for the Resident Satisfaction Assessment Survey was almost 95%. There is also a resident who is a member of the Board of Commissioners. These may be factors that limit tenants' need to organize.

B. Criteria for Substantial Deviations and Significant Amendments

(1) Amendment and Deviation Definitions

24 CFR Part 903.7(r)

PHAs are required to define and adopt their own standards of substantial deviation from the 5-year Plan and Significant Amendment to the Annual Plan. The definition of significant amendment is important because it defines when the PHA will subject a change to the policies or activities described in the Annual Plan to full public hearing and HUD review before implementation.

A. Substantial Deviation from the 5-year Plan:

HRCP will consider a substantial deviation in the 5-year Plan to exist if HRCP eliminates an existing program or adds a new program.

B. Significant Amendment or Modification to the Annual Plan:

HRCP will consider a change in the following areas to be a significant amendment, unless such changed are mandated by federal law:

Goals

Admissions and Waiting List Preferences

Rent Determination

Section 8 Payment Standard

C. Other Information

[24 CFR Part 903.13, 903.15]

(1) Resident Advisory Board Recommendations

a. Yes No: Did the PHA receive any comments on the PHA Plan from the Resident Advisory Board/s?

If yes, provide the comments below:

- Elevator - Midtown Apartments. Feasibility of a new elevator for Midtown Apartments;
- Concrete work – scattered sites. Following along with a fifteen thousand dollar commitment by HRCP in its "regular" budget next fiscal year for repair of severe sidewalk and driveway cracking in the North Spruce sites, there was a request to add to that estimated cost;

- Carpeting – Midtown Apartments. A recommendation was made that HRCP do an inspection of all apartments to assess units with carpets in disrepair, to begin a long term replacement of all unit carpeting, beginning with four or five installations for next fiscal year; (Stengle had secured cost estimates from Country Carpet and Flooring for this project prior to the meeting);
- Fencing – North Spruce scattered sites. In response to unauthorized trespass through back yards of the three North Spruce properties (by children), leading to loss of play items, rocks being rolled down the hill, and committing other acts of general mischief, it was requested that a security fence be strung throughout the length of the properties, to stop future unauthorized access to the yards.

b. In what manner did the PHA address those comments? (select all that apply)

- Considered comments, but determined that no changes to the PHA Plan were necessary.
- The PHA changed portions of the PHA Plan in response to comments List changes below:
 - In response to the comments received from the Resident Advisory Board, the proposed budget for FFY05 was modified to include concrete work, carpeting, and fencing.
 - A contact was made with the elevator manufacturer who stated that the current elevator is of exception quality and in excellent condition and performance would not be improved through replacement – no further action taken on that recommendation.
