[24 CFR Part 903.12 (b), 903.7 (r)]

A. PHA Progress in Meeting the Mission and Goals Described in the 5-Year Plan

(Provide a statement of the PHA's progress against the goals and objectives established in the previous 5-Year Plan for the period FY 2000 - 2005.

The Housing Authority has spent the last five years working to expand the supply of assisted housing. Some efforts have been more successful than others. All applications for additional Section 8 Vouchers have been not been approved. However, five HOPWA vouchers have been funded through Salt Lake City. Shelter Plus Care vouchers were approved by the Salt Lake County Continuum of Care but were not funded by HUD last year. After re-applying this year 21 vouchers were approved. Collaborating with West Valley City and many other partners Willow Park Apartments (a tax credit property) and the Gearld L. Wright Senior Villas (a 202 property) were built in West Valley City. They are an additional 167 affordable units that were built during the last several years.

The goal to improve the quality of assisted housing was met with the housing authority improving both their PHAS and SEMAP scores by becoming a consistent High Performer. Capital Funds and CDBG funds have been used to remodel or rehabilitate almost all of the public housing units during the last two years. The goal to increase housing choices was meet by counseling tenants on voucher mobility and educating new landlords about the program.

Provide an improved living environment by implement measures to deconcentrate poverty by bringing higher income public households into lower income developments is one goal that really cannot be quantified because the public housing units are single family homes scattered throughout residential sub-divisions. Scatter sites meets this goal.

The goal of promoting self-sufficiency and asset development of assisted households is meet through the Family Self-Sufficiency program and escrow accounts. The public housing case manager attends quarterly meeting of the FSS Coordinating Council, which consists of the FSS Coordinators for the area housing authorities. They meet with supportive services that will benefit housing clients. The West Valley City Housing Authority also strives to ensure equal housing opportunities for all Americans by advertising accessible units, working with clients who have special needs, post Equal Housing Opportunities advertisements among other things.
