ii. Executive Summary of the Annual PHA Plan

[24 CFR Part 903.7 9 (r)]

Provide a brief overview of the information in the Annual Plan, including highlights of major initiatives and discretionary policies the PHA has included in the Annual Plan.

The Passaic County Public Housing Agency's Five -Year and Annual Plan addresses all components required by HUD. Any components that have not been made part of this plan are so referenced in the Table of Contents along with the location of the applicable materials and the date of its submission to HUD, if required.

The current submission of the Five and Annual Plans, represents the second phase of this process. During the prior years as required, the Agency has submitted the Five-Year Plan, as well as, the Annual Plans, starting with calendar year 2000. Included in the Annual Plan submitted every year starting with calendar year 2000, was information demonstrating the Agency's efforts to comply and address the stated specific goals outlined in the Plan.

The Passaic County Public Housing Agency continues to operate its programs in an efficient, cost effective manner. The Agency also continues to explore options authorized under QHWRA, e.g. expand the supply of available rental units, as well as, encourage the development of additional units which could become available to participants of the program. These are methods to be utilized to expand the supply of affordable housing for very low and low-income families. In addition, these efforts will encourage mobility of families within and outside our service area.

During the upcoming months the Agency will seriously consider and explore the development of a Home ownership Program. At present, through the Family Self-Sufficiency Program, the Agency has encouraged and enabled a number of families to use funds received under their escrow accounts to purchase homes.

The Passaic County Public Housing Agency’s Five-Year and Annual Plans have been available for review by the public since their approval by the Board, which occurred on October 12, 2004. The transcript for the “public hearing” held on October 8, 2004, at 5:30 p.m., a list of all individuals in attendance, as well as, a record of all proceedings, comment and recommendation received from program participants and the general public, has been made part of these Plans. The Annual Plan which contains updated and revised goals and objectives, established by staff and advisory housing groups working with the Housing Agency, are available for public review at the Housing Agency’s administrative office. These plans are also available for public review at the Clerk to the Board of Chosen Freeholders’ Office. All comments received have been considered and addressed by the Housing Agency. The Board of Commissioners approved the Five-Year and Annual Plan (2005) for submission to HUD on October 12, 2004.

PASSAIC COUNTY PUBLIC HOUSING AGENCY
PUBLIC HEARING ON THE FIVE-YEAR AND ANNUAL PLANS
COUNTY OF PASSAIC ADMINISTRATION BUILDING
OCTOBER 8, 2004

Mr. Roman: Today is October 8, 2004. This is a Public Hearing on the Passaic County Public Housing Agency's Five-Year and Annual Plans. The purpose of the hearing is to allow the public an opportunity to comment on the plan itself. The copies of the plans with all attachments have been made available to the general public for review since Monday, October 4th, and copies with attachments have been distributed to all members of the Housing Agency's Resident Advisory Board, members of the Board of Commissioners, County Counsel's Office, William Pascrell III, County Counsel, Jose Santiago, Assistant County Counsel, also the County Administrator, Anthony De Nova, Clerk to the Board of Chosen Freeholders, Marie Havasy, as well as, Northeast Legal Aid Services, John Bart, and Joseph Veehoff.

The plan contains a number of changes. A summary of the changes of the plans have been prepared and made part of the package. They are contained at the beginning of the package and will list the specific section as well as the items changed/modified.

The first change, of course, is the title of the document, which covers the year of the plan, the year of the plan being the year 2005 through 2009, that's for the Five-Year Plan. The Annual Plan covers the year 2005. The Mission Statement has been modified as well to contain language to the effect that a commitment will be made by the agency and its staff to continue to provide the same level of services it has been providing as in the past, and again, the other changes to the goals and objectives listed throughout the plan outlined in the summary.

At this point, I would like to open the floor for any suggestions, comments, ideas, and so forth. Also, for the record, let me state that present at this hearing we find myself, Angel Roman, I'm the Director of the Agency, two staff persons, Barbara Martyn and Jessica Piedra, as well as a member of the Resident Advisory Board, Awilda Ferber.

The meeting was scheduled for 5:30. We have started at 5:30 sharp, and at this point no one else is present. What we will do is, unless Awilda has any comments that she would like to put into the record, hold off for another 20 minutes just to allow individuals an opportunity to come forward and submit or present any comments, suggestions, ideas that they may want to have be made part of the plan. Awilda, do you have any comments or would you like to address the plan?

Ms. Ferber: I think I'm just gonna write them down and give them to you.

Mr. Roman: Can you come forward and speak into the mike, please? These proceedings, again, for the record, these proceedings are being recorded and a transcript of the proceedings will be made part of the agency plan. It's on. This is Ms. Awilda Ferber.

Ms. Ferber: My name is Awilda Ferber. I had a few things that I faxed. I think (inaudible) read them over and hand them over to Mr. Roman. Well, unless I didn't give you a chance to check the whole program, but as I guess I can't have... Well, I guess as a participant of the Section 8, just add my ideas for me and everybody add something, jot them down...

Mr. Roman: Okay.

Ms. Ferber: ...and hand them to you.

Mr. Roman: That is fine. By all means submit your comments in writing, and again, like I said, that will be made part of the record. But if you can just summarize, if you can. If you can't, I understand that. Just summarize or just give us some power points or pointers in terms of some of the areas that you feel should be addressed or that you did address.

Ms. Ferber: Like we had talked about at the first meeting, and you said that we didn't have any questions or anything that was stupid, and it was open, so I took the chance. What I was really thinking was, thinking of myself and some others, was like...

Mr. Roman: Just for the record, let me clarify that. What I said was that the only stupid question is that question which is not asked.

Ms. Ferber: I don't know if it's stupid. I don't know if it's part of the plan. It's what I thought. And I was thinking maybe how could we... What I'm trying to say is like how can we have any part of – any chance of becoming a home owner, if there was some kind of way that by renting, whatever we're doing now, depending on how long we're renting, if we had a chance to buy that home and not exactly in, you know, but in the nice neighborhood,...

Ms. Ferber: ...they can add up the children? Another thing was, I was thinking, and I'm thinking of my struggles that I had, is there anyway that with so many agencies and so many things that – resources that we do have available, how can we get together and have some kind of training to better ourselves, (inaudible). That was another thing.

I know there is a lot of financial aid, loans, this and that, but it's not that easy, and I thought about that. There is another one that I can't really think of it right now.

Mr. Roman: Okay. Just for the record, the individual's name, as was stated, is Awilda. Can you spell that for the record, Awilda,...

Ms. Ferber: Sure.

Mr. Roman: ...and just give me your address?

Ms. Ferber: It's A-w-i-l-d-a, Awilda, Ferber, F-e-r-b-e-r. My home address is 282 Lafayette Ave, Hawthorne, New Jersey.

Mr. Roman: Okay, thank you. I just wanted to get that on the record. I should have done that before you started speaking. Just to try and address some of the comments that you made with regards to the Home Ownership Program, that is an idea that I am currently looking at. And if and when a Home Ownership Program is developed and implemented by the agency, it would be similar to or I would try to stay as close as possible to the guidelines that HUD has put out, and that is a plan whereby instead of helping or using the subsidy that is currently being paid to property owners, to home owners, that we could take that payment and have it sent to the bank to help you make your mortgage payments. So that is one... Like I said, if and when a Home Ownership Program is implemented, that will be the approach that I will want to take, number one. Number two is that with regards to technical training, under the agency's Self-Sufficiency Program, which I don't know if you're a member of or not, but we have a Family Self-Sufficiency Program, and under that program individuals who agree to participate in that program have to agree to undertake a series of activities that will provide them with the skills necessary to enable them to better their situations financially, employment-wise and so forth. And again, the objective is to enable them to become self-sufficient, to get the education or training that they may need to get that good paying job, which will in the long run, enable them to be able to pay for the full rent or purchase a home and be able to make the mortgage payments.

The third point, financial assistance, I assume you were talking about financial assistance in terms of attending either a technical training course or higher education, that is something that can also be achieved through that Family Self-Sufficiency Program because the monies put into the escrow account can be used for those purposes. But if you're not part of that Family Self-Sufficiency Program, unfortunately, through our agency or through the Federal Government's Housing Choice Voucher Program, there's nothing out there that I'm aware of that will assist individual/families with that type of assistance to individuals or families. Okay?

Ms. Ferber: Another thing I would like, but there was... And I was thinking, again of myself, and I had a chance, I worked for the county, and I was thinking that, I don't know, someday, somehow, that perhaps the residents... I won't say... Well, I don't really know how to say it, but like if we could have like a – more like a permanent job, more than, you know, three months or six months. That has been my problem, you know, because of the downsizing and blah, blah, blah. If we do that, like work, (inaudible), you know, where we can work, you know, with the county. I mean we are... You know, we have some skills, I do, and you know, that is all around us. If we can work and, you know, give us a chance, what hands-on training, whatever that means. You know what? You know what I mean (inaudible).

Mr. Roman: The county does have a Human Resources Department, and you would have to check with them to see what, if any openings, job openings are available. You would have to apply through them. Unfortunately, the county is also limited in terms of the numbers of dollars it has available and in terms of how big its workforce can be. But by all means, you can check with them. Hopefully, the economy will turnaround and there will be more jobs out there, whether it be through the private or public sector. So these are serious issues and I wish I had an answer for you and I wish I had that magic wand that, you know, I could use to grant you your wishes, but, you know, our task right now is to at least be able to help you keep a roof over your head.

So I am hoping to be able to continue to get sufficient funding to enable us to continue funding the same number of families that we have been subsidizing over the past several years without having to be forced to drop some of those families, which is what the Federal Administration is asking us to do. In our case we were supposed to, as I mentioned at the Resident Advisory Council Meeting the other night, we were supposed to drop 75 families from on our program, and I have problems doing that. And that's one of the reasons why I have tried to keep all the families on for as long as possible. There are those that don't deserve to be part of the program, you know the individuals we're dealing with, but again, our main function is to try and keep a roof over your head.

Ms. Ferber: But right now I'm in a sense – I'm kind of scared (inaudible) because my landlady, she's getting old. I mean she's 80 something years old.

Mr. Roman: Aren't we all getting old?

Ms. Ferber: And... No, but I mean, you know, she is very old next to me.

Ms. Ferber: And I'm afraid that anytime now she's gonna go and (inaudible), because she's elderly. She can't, you know.

Mr. Roman: Right.

Ms. Ferber: And I'm worried if somebody else takes over, you know, I'm gonna have to...

Mr. Roman: Move.

Ms. Ferber: ...or they're gonna, you know, raise up the rent, and I live in a pretty nice neighborhood.

Mr. Roman: Right.

Ms. Ferber: And my landlady is a very gentle, you know, woman that is not so much into the money because she never raises the rent.

Mr. Roman: Right.

Ms. Ferber: She has helped me quite a bit, and what about that? (Inaudible) because my youngest son has trouble and he is getting his Associates this summer and with, thank God, a lot of help because he is an excellent student and they pay for his, you know, his college, which he got at the Passaic Community College, and... But here, even with the lousy Associates Degree, he couldn't even get a job paying him $9 an hour.

Mr. Roman: Right. Yeah.

Ms. Ferber: You know it's... So that is difficult, and I mean he tried here at the county. He put in an application over at the other place. He put an application with the schools.

But you don't give him a chance. I mean it's like well, you have to have experience. But excuse me. He just graduated. How is he gonna have experience...

Mr. Roman: Right.

Ms. Ferber: ...if somebody doesn't give it to him?

Mr. Roman: Right. Well.

Ms. Ferber: Now we're trying Montclair. Montclair is a little more expensive, a lot expensive. So this semester is gonna cost us 5,000 something dollars that I don't have.

Mr. Roman: Okay.

Ms. Ferber: And they're not so freely with the money. I mean he might get maybe one-third, you know, paid of his tuition.

Ms. Ferber: I'm only working three additional hours. I can't even get an 8 hour job. See what I mean?

Mr. Roman: Well, like I said before, the state of the economy leaves a lot to be desired, and hopefully, you know, things will turnaround. But that's out of my control. Again, my main focus is the housing portion.

Ms. Ferber: Right.

Mr. Roman: And I hear you. I hear you. I sympathize/empathize with what you're saying. I empathize with what you're saying. But let's, hope that if we can manage to keep a roof over your head, the other things will fall into place down the road. Okay?

Ms. Ferber: Thank you.

Mr. Roman: Thank you for your time and your comments. I appreciate it. At this point, if there are no other comments, and I see no other individuals, it's unfortunate that the rest of the members of the Resident Advisory Board as well as members of the Legal Aid Society didn't take the time to be here, because I would have liked to have listened to what they had to say with regards to the plan; but being that I see no other individuals present, I am going to close the public session. And again, everything stated here will be recorded. A copy of the transcript will be made part of the agency plan, and I want to thank you, Awilda, for taking the time to come down and hopefully we can work with you. Yes.

Ms. Piedra: The other Members of the Resident Advisory Board, will be submitting their comments as well?

Mr. Roman: Yes. As was stated in the meeting that we had on Tuesday, some of the other members who were present and those that were not able to attend but I did meet with them, whether it was on a one-to-one or by other means, have agreed to submit their comments in writing, and those comments will be made part of the record as well. So with that, this hearing is coming to a close, and again, thank you, Awilda, for coming.

Ms. Ferber: Good night. (End of transcript).
