The full PHA plan provides a ready source for interested parties to locate basic PHA policies, rules, and requirements concerning the PHA's operations, programs, and services, and informs HUD, families served by the PHA, and members of the public of the PHA's mission and strategies for serving the needs of low-income and very low-income families. This form allows eligible PHAs to make a streamlined annual Plan submission to HUD consistent with HUD's efforts to provide regulatory relief for certain types of PHAs. Public reporting burden for this information collection is estimated to average 11.7 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. HUD may not collect this information and respondents are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

 - Other: (list below)

3. The Consolidated Plan of the jurisdiction supports the PHA Plan with the following actions and commitments: (describe below)

The Adams County Office of Community Development and the Housing Authority work in partnership to identify the needs of the residents of Adams County. Through collaborative alliances with service providers in the County a Housing Needs analysis was developed which identifies the residents’ needs, gaps in service, cost of housing and availability of affordable units in the jurisdiction. The Housing Authority then utilizes this data and is able to establish short term, intermediate and long term goals to meet the recognized targets and monitors the progress of achieving these goals with bench marks and measurable outcomes.

The Consolidated Plan identifies federal, state and local funding resources the PHA may access to sustain the services required to achieve the objectives stated in the PHA Agency Plans. It commits to investing in housing opportunities that ensure residents have decent, safe and sanitary housing and housing choices which directly supports the PHA Agency Plans.

Part 4 of the Five Year Strategic Plan Section of the Consolidated Plan gives a description of resources listing the Housing Authority as a provider of said resources supporting the Community Outreach portion of the PHA Agency Plans. The Consolidated Plan is available on line via the County Website, HUD Website, accessible to service providers in the jurisdiction and in hard copy at the Office of Community Development and the Housing Authority. The public as well as agencies may access the information as an avenue for connection with needed services.

Adams County Housing Authority has provided and will continue to provide, information to and work cooperatively with the Adams County Office of Community Development (OCD) and HUD's Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity Office, to affirmatively further fair housing by identifying the impediments to Fair Housing and providing services to overcome these impediments. ACHA actively participated with OCD and Sherry Alberston-Clarke, a consultant retained who conducted a comprehensive analysis of impediments to Fair Housing Choice in Adams County, and prepared an Action Plan in connection with the County’s programs funded by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. In addition, the Analysis of Impediments to Fair Housing Choice will be utilized as a basis for future educational outreach and public relations activities, all of which are consistent with the Consolidated Plan.
