3. The Consolidated Plan of the jurisdiction supports the PHA Plan with the following actions and commitments: (describe below)

The State of Kansas Consolidated Plan endorses the continuing objectives of national housing policy in the National Affordable Housing Act of 1990, including: ensure that all residents have access to decent shelter; increase the supply of affordable housing; make neighborhoods safe and livable; expand opportunities for home ownership; provide a reliable supply of mortgage finance; and reduce generational poverty in assisted housing.

The Housing Development strategy includes focusing efforts towards providing housing opportunities to Kansans through the development of resources, partnerships and technical assistance. Among the principles of comprehensive development, the Consolidated Plan includes the creation of housing alternatives for the elderly and person with disabilities which will provide a better quality of life for these residents and will establish the potential for cost savings for the State.

The Housing Development Plan contains the following priorities that relate to resident access to rental housing.

- * Small, Related Households – Very Low and Low Income
- * Large, Related Households – Very Low and Low Income
- * Elderly Households – Very Low and Low Income
- * All Other Households – Very Low and Low Income

Strategy objectives include replacement and rehabilitation of deteriorated rental housing stock; make rental housing affordable in higher cost markets. The Consolidated Plan acknowledges that some senior citizen housing has a high vacancy rate. Nevertheless, about 18,000 elderly households have housing problems. About 49% of elderly households pay more than 30 % of their income on housing. Most elderly households are on fixed incomes. About 23,000 persons over age 65 are mobility impaired; about 31,000 persons over age 65 have self-care limitations. Attention must be given to elderly households with special needs.

In summary, the Housing Authority of the City of Norton, Kansas, Agency Plan is consistent with the Consolidated Plan for the State of Kansas.
