The full PHA plan provides a ready source for interested parties to locate basic PHA policies, rules, and requirements concerning the PHA's operations, programs, and services, and informs HUD, families served by the PHA, and members of the public of the PHA's mission and strategies for serving the needs of low-income and very low-income families. This form allows eligible PHAs to make a streamlined annual Plan submission to HUD consistent with HUD's efforts to provide regulatory relief for certain types of PHAs. Public reporting burden for this information collection is estimated to average 11.7 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. HUD may not collect this information and respondents are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN IN PUBLIC HOUSING

Whereas the Housing Authority of the Town of Sterling is a Public Housing Agency and as such must have a Violence Against Women Policy necessitated by the creation of the Violence Against Women Act of 2005, Section 605, addressing the needs of Victims of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault and Stalking.

Whereas this policy must state that the applicant (male or Female) to said housing may not be denied admission if the applicant otherwise qualifies for assistance or admission, and

Whereas if they qualify for public housing assistance under these conditions, they must, at a minimum (1) meet the local PHA's definition of "family"; (2) be income eligible; have at least one family member who is a U.S. Citizen or has eligible immigration status (3) pass criminal background screening; (4) have no outstanding debt to the PHA; and (5) meet all other local screening criteria, and

Whereas if they are a victim of any of the above stated circumstances the Housing Authority may give the applicant preference, if they provide requested certification of said violence within fourteen (14) business days after receiving the Housing Authority's request for said certification, and

Whereas the PHA may not deny, remove or terminate assistance to victims of the above stated circumstances; however, the PHA may deny, remove or terminate assistance to an individual perpetrator of such actions and continue to allow the victim or other household members to remain in the dwelling unit or receive housing assistance. This does not limit the authority of the PHA to terminate assistance for other criminal activity or good cause; so

Therefore, let it be known that the Housing Authority of the Town of Sterling is dedicated to reducing and protecting those victims of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault and Stalking by;

- (1) Ensuring that such victims have meaningful access to the criminal justice systems without jeopardizing such housing.
- (2) Protecting said victims with the help of the local Police Department and collaborating with the Department of Human Services, Victims Rights Advocacies and Battered and Homeless Women Shelters to ensure the victims have long-term housing if needed and
