(1) Income Based Rent Policies

Describe the PHA's income based rent setting policy/ies for public housing using, including discretionary (that is, not required by statute or regulation) income disregards and exclusions, in the appropriate spaces below.

a. Use of discretionary policies: (select one of the following two)

- The PHA will not employ any discretionary rent-setting policies for income-based rent in public housing. Income-based rents are set at the higher of 30% of adjusted monthly income, 10% of unadjusted monthly income, the welfare rent, or minimum rent (less HUD mandatory deductions and exclusions). (If selected, skip to sub-component (2))
- The PHA employs discretionary policies for determining income-based rent (If selected, continue to question b.)

b. Minimum Rent

1. What amount best reflects the PHA's minimum rent? (select one)

- $0
 $1-$25
 $26-$50

2.  Yes  No: Has the PHA adopted any discretionary minimum rent hardship exemption policies?

3. If yes to question 2, list these policies below:

SHA Procedures for Notification to Families of Hardship Exemptions

SHA will notify all participant families subject to a minimum rent of their right to request a minimum rent hardship exemption under the law.

SHA will notify all families at the annual recertification appointment of their right to request a minimum rent hardship exemption.

SHA will notify all families at time of lease-up of their right to request a minimum rent hardship exemption.

The interviewer will document in the family's file that the family has been notified of their right to request a minimum rent hardship exemption.

SHA notification will advise the family that hardship exemption determinations are subject to SHA grievance procedures.

SHA will review all tenant requests for exemption from the minimum rent due to financial hardships.

All requests for minimum rent exemption are required to be in writing.

SHA notification will be provided to residents in writing and verbally during the re-examination process.

Requests for minimum rent exemption must state the family circumstances that qualify the family for an exemption.

Exemptions to Minimum Rent

SHA will immediately grant the minimum rent exemption to all families who request it, pending verification.

The Minimum Rent will not be suspended until SHA determines whether the hardship is:

Covered by statute

Temporary or long term

If SHA determines that the minimum rent is not covered by statute, it will impose a minimum rent including payment for minimum rent from the time of suspension.

SHA will use its standard verification procedures to verify circumstances that have resulted in financial hardship, such as loss of employment, death in the family, etc.

HUD Criteria for Hardship Exemption

In order for a family to qualify for a hardship exemption the family's circumstances must fall into one of the following criteria:

The family has lost eligibility or is awaiting an eligibility determination for Federal, State, or local assistance;

The family would be evicted as a result of the imposition of the minimum rent requirement;

The income of the family has decreased because of changed circumstances, including:

Loss of employment

Death in the family

Other circumstances as determined by SHA or HUD

SHA Policy Regarding Hardship Exemption

For purposes of providing the hardship exemption to minimum rent in a fair and consistent manner, SHA has established policy regarding the above-mentioned HUD criteria.

"Loss of employment" is:

defined as being laid off or terminated through fault or no fault of the employee. Loss of employment does not, for the purposes of exemption to minimum rent, include voluntarily quitting employment.

"Death in the family." Family, for the purposes of exemption to minimum rent, includes head of house or spouse, any adult on the public housing lease or any family member on the public housing Lease.

Temporary Hardship

If SHA determines that the hardship is temporary (less than 90 days), a minimum rent will be imposed, including back payment from time of suspension, but the family will not be evicted for nonpayment of rent during the 90-day period commencing on the date of the family's request for exemption.

Repayment Agreements for Temporary Hardship

SHA will offer a repayment agreement to the family for any such rent not paid during the temporary hardship period.

If the family owes SHA money for rent arrears incurred during the minimum rent period, SHA will calculate the total amount owed and divide it by 12 to arrive at a reasonable payment increment that will be added to the family's regular monthly rent payment. The family will be required to pay the increased amount until the arrears are paid in full.

SHA's policies regarding repayment agreements are further discussed in the chapter entitled "Family Debts to the PHA."
