together as a single household in the dwelling unit. By definition, a family must contain a competent adult of at least 19 years of age or 18 years of age and married (not common law) to enter into a contract and capable of functioning as the head of the household. If an individual is 18 and qualifies under the definition of family by being married, the head of household and the spouse must be party to the lease.

In determining family unit size for a particular family, the Section 8 Division may grant an exception to the above subsidy standard if the Section 8 Division determines that the exception is justified by the age, sex, health, handicap, or relationship of family members or other personal circumstances. The family unit size for any family consisting of a single person must be either a zero or one-bedroom unit, unless a live in aide resides with the family. Any live in aide must be approved by the Section 8 Division, in advance, and reside in the unit to care for a family member who is disabled or is at least 50 years of age. A live in aide must be counted in determining the family unit size.

XII. Section 8 Applicant Selection Process.

12.1 Housing Voucher Selection and Participation Process

In the participation selection process the PHA will be in compliance with the Fair Housing Act, as amended. The Fair Housing Act (equal opportunity) makes it illegal to discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status and national origin. The PHA Section 8 Division shall not deny any family the opportunity of applying for Housing Voucher.

The PHA Section 8 Division will not take any of the following actions because an applicant has applied for, received, or refused other federal, state or local housing assistance:

1. Refuse to list the applicant on the housing choice voucher program waiting list;
2. Deny any admission preference for which the applicant is qualified;
3. Change the applicant place on the waiting list based on preference, date and time of application, or other factors affecting selection under the PHA Section 8 Division selection policy; or
4. Remove the applicant from the waiting list without any reason.

12.2 Types of Selection

The Section 8 Division may admit an applicant for participation in the program either:

- a. As a waiting list admission. Also, a Section 8 participant is responsible for finding an existing housing unit suitable to the holder's needs and desires; or
- b. As a special admission.

The "special admission" applies if HUD awards the PHA Section 8 Division program funding that is targeted for families living in specified units:

- a. The PHA Section 8 Division must use the assistance for the families living in these units.
- b. The PHA Section 8 Division may admit a family that is not on the waiting list, or without considering the family's waiting list position. The PHA Section 8 Division must maintain records showing that the family was admitted with HUD-targeted assistance.
- c. For housing covered by the Low-income Housing Preservation and Resident Home ownership Act of 1990.
- d. A family residing in a project covered by a project-based Section 8 Program contract at or near the end of the Section 8 Program contract term; and
- e. A non-purchasing family residing in a HOPE project.

12.3 Organization of the Waiting List

The Maricopa PHA will be using a single waiting list for admission to its housing choice voucher program. The PHA has established local preferences. This system is part of the Administrative Plan and is included as Appendix I at the end of the document. The applicant that qualifies for a preference may be issued a housing choice voucher before an applicant that applied earlier but has no preference. The PHA may never select families for admission in an order different from the order on the waiting list for the purpose of selecting higher income families for admission.

The PHA Section 8 Division waiting list must contain the following information for each applicant listed:

- a. Applicant name;
- b. Local preferences;
- c. Family unit size (number of bedrooms for which family qualifies under PHA's occupancy standards);
- d. Date and time of application;
- e. Racial or ethnic designation of head of household;
- f. Family annual gross income;

12.3.1 Selection from the Waiting List

When a housing voucher is available, the PHA Section 8 Division will select the family from the waiting list in accordance with the above selection processes. The top order of admission from the waiting list may not be based on family size, or on the family unit size for which the family qualifies for under the PHA Section 8 Division occupancy guidelines. If the Section 8 Division does not have sufficient funds to subsidize the family unit size of the family at the top the waiting list, the Section 8 Division may not skip the top family to admit an applicant with a smaller family unit size. Instead, the family at the top of the waiting list will be admitted when sufficient funds are available.

Provided, however, the provisions of the de-concentration rule, continued within this policy, shall supersede the selection of applicants based on date and time and local preference points, if applicable, and allow the Section 8 Division to skip families on the waiting list to accomplish this goal.

Admission to the program will not be based on a local preference of residency. The PHA has adopted this as one of his local preferences.

12.3.2 Procedure for Removing and Applicants Name from the Waiting list

The applicant will be notified by the PHA Section 8 Division, in writing, that they have ten (10) calendar days, from the date of the written correspondence, to respond to the PHA request. The correspondence will also indicate that their name will be removed from the waiting list if they fail to respond within the time frame specified. The PHA Section 8 Division systems of removing applicant's names from the waiting list will not violate the right of a disable person(s). If an applicant's failure to respond to a request from the PHA Section 8 Division information or updates was caused by the applicant's disability, the PHA will provide reasonable accommodations and give the applicant an opportunity to respond. An example of a reasonable accommodation would be to allow an applicant to be reinstated on the waiting list based on the original date and time of their application. If the applicant indicates that they did not respond due to a disability, and the disability is not apparent, the PHA Section 8 Division may request the applicant to have a doctor submit written statement indicating that the applicant did not respond due to their disability.

12.3.3 Purging the Waiting List

To ensure that the PHA Section 8 Division waiting list reflects the most current applicant information the waiting list will be updated and purged annually. The PHA will be sending a notice by first class mail requesting the applicants if they continued interesting to be on waiting list for housing choice voucher. The notice will include deadline to respond and a clearly statement that if the applicant does not respond by the deadline, the PHA will be assume that there no interest to continue on waiting list.

For each notice returned by Postal Service marked “addressee unknown”, the PHA will close the application, attach the returned notice and envelope and file and maintain for three years. For each application for which there has been no response and no returned notice, the PHA Section 8 Division will be sending a second notice by first class mail providing a final deadline. When the final deadline passes, the application will be close if no response has been and maintain a copy of the second letter by a period of three years. If the PHA has sufficient financial resources, this second notice may be send by certified mail.

12.4 Verification of Preference (if applicable)

At the time of application, initial determinations of an applicant’s entitlement to a Preference may be made on the basis of an applicant’s certification of their qualification for that preference. Before selection is made, this qualification must be verified.

XIII. Orientation of families and issuance of housing voucher

13.1 Briefing

The purpose of the briefing is to go over the housing voucher holder's packet to fully inform the participant about the program so that he/she will be able to discuss it with potential landlords.

13.2 Briefing Attendance Requirement

All families (head of household) are required to attend the briefing when they are initially issued a housing voucher. No housing voucher will be awarded unless the household representative has attended a briefing. Failure to attend a scheduled briefing (without notice to the PHA Section 8 Division) will result in the family's application being placed in the inactive file and the family may be required to reapply for assistance. Applicants who provide prior notice of an inability to attend a briefing will be scheduled for the next briefing. Failure of an applicant, without good cause, to participate in a scheduled briefing shall result in withdrawal of his/her application. The applicant will be notified of such withdrawal and determination of ineligibility and of his/her right to an informal review as outlined in the Administrative Plan.

13.3 Format of the Briefing

When a family initially receives its housing voucher, a full oral explanation of shall be provided to assist the family in finding a suitable unit. With the briefing, the family will be advised of its responsibilities and the responsibilities of the owner. The briefing session may be done either in group or individual sessions depending on the circumstances. Also, families will be given adequate opportunity to raise questions and to discuss the following information:

1. A description of how the program works,
2. Family and owner responsibility; and
3. Where the family may lease a unit, including renting a dwelling unit inside or outside the Section 8 Division jurisdiction.

For a family that qualifies to lease a unit outside the PHA Section 8 Division jurisdiction under portability procedures, the briefing must include an explanation of how portability works. The PHA Section 8 Division may not discourage the family from choosing to live anywhere in the PHA jurisdiction, or outside the PHA jurisdiction under portability procedures.

4. If the family is currently living in a high poverty census tract in the PHA jurisdiction, the briefing must also explain the advantages of moving to an area that does not have a high concentration of poor families.

13.3.1 Section 8 Participant's Packet

When issuing a housing voucher, the PHA Section 8 Division shall give the family a Section 8 Participant's Packet, which includes:

1. The term of the voucher is 60 days. A voucher is valid for a period of 60 days from the date of issuance. Prior to expiration, the family may contact the PHA Section 8 Division to inquire about assistance the PHA Section 8 Division can

Once the family has submitted a Request for Lease Approval the clock is stopped and/or suspended on the term of the voucher. When the clock is stopped, the time remaining days will be reinstated to the initial 60-day period of the voucher, if necessary. If the unit is not approved for any reason, the remaining days will be reinstated to the initial term of the voucher. If the initial term is not adequate for finding a unit to lease, the family may request an extension of the initial term as described below.

2. Requesting for extensions of the term. A family may request an extension of the voucher time period. All requests for extensions should be received prior to the expiration date of the voucher. Extensions are permissible at the discretion of the PHA Section 8 Division primarily for the following reasons:
 - a. Extenuating circumstances such as hospitalization or a family emergency for an extended period of time, which has affected the family's ability to find a unit within the initial 60-day time period. The Section 8 Division representative will verify the extenuating circumstances prior to granting an extension.
 - b. The family has evidence that they have made a consistent effort to locate a unit and request support services from the PHA Section 8

Division, throughout the initial 60-day period with regard to their inability to locate a unit.

- c. The family has turned in a Request for Lease Approval prior to the expiration of the 60-day time period, but the unit has not passed HQS.

The PHA Section 8 Division representative may grant one or more extensions not to exceed a total of 60 days. The initial term plus any extensions may not exceed 120 calendar days for the beginning of the initial term. The Section 8 Division representative must approved an extension of up to 120 days for persons who are disabled.

3. How the PHA Section 8 Division determines the housing assistance payment for a family and for the vouchers program, information on the payment standard and the Section 8 Division utility allowance schedule.
4. How the PHA Section 8 Division determines the maximum rent for an assisted unit.

6. Where the family may lease a unit. For a family that qualifies to lease a unit outside the PHA Section 8 Division jurisdiction under portability procedures, the information packet must include an explanation of how portability works.

The family may receive tenant-based assistance to lease a unit located anywhere in the jurisdiction of the initial PHA Section 8 Division.

16.2 Portability: Assistance Outside the Initial Section 8 Division Jurisdiction

Families living in the jurisdiction of the initial PHA Section 8 Division may receive -tenant-based assistance to lease a unit outside the initial PHA Section 8 Division jurisdiction:

- A. In the same State as the initial PHA Section 8 Division;
- B. In the same metropolitan statistical area (MSA) as the initial PHA Section 8 -Division, but in a different State;
- C. In an MSA that is next to the same MSA as the initial PHA Section 8 Division, but in a different State; or,

- D. In the jurisdiction of any PHA Section 8 Division anywhere in the United States that is administering a tenant-based program.

Nonresident applicants (applicants that do not live in the legal jurisdiction of the initial Maricao PHA Section 8 Division) that apply for tenant-based assistance do not have any right to lease a unit outside the initial Section 8 Division jurisdiction during the twelve (12) month period from the time the family is admitted to the program. However, the family may lease a unit outside the initial PHA Section 8 Division jurisdiction under portability procedures if both the initial Section 8 Division and receiving Section 8 Division agree.

3. if the unit is in an MSA that is next to the same MSA as the initial Section 8 Division (but in a different State), and no other - Section 8 Division with a tenant-based program has jurisdiction in the area where the unit is located.

If the above conditions exist, the family remains in the program of the initial PHA Section 8 Division. The initial PHA Section 8 Division has the same responsibilities for administration of assistance for the family living outside the PHA Section 8 Division jurisdiction as for other families assisted by the PHA Section 8 Division within the PHA Section 8 Division jurisdiction.

The initial PHA Section 8 Division may choose to use another Section 8 Division, a private management entity or other contractor or agent to help the initial PHA Section 8 Division administer assistance outside the Section 8 Division jurisdiction.

15.4 Portability Administration by Receiving Section 8 Division

When a family moves under portability to an area outside the initial PHA Section 8 Division jurisdiction, another PHA Section 8 Division (the receiving Section 8 Division) must administer assistance for the family if a Section 8 Division with a -tenant-based program. When the portable family requests assistance from the receiving PHA Section 8 Division, the receiving PHA Section 8 Division must promptly inform the initial the initial PHA Section 8 Division for assistance on behalf of the portable family, or will absorb the family into its own program. The receiving PHA Section 8 Division must determine whether to extend the voucher term. The family must submit a request for lease approval to the receiving PHA Section 8 Division. The receiving PHA Section 8 Division must determine the family unit size for the portable family. The family unit size is determined in accordance with the subsidy standards of the receiving PHA Section 8 Division. The receiving PHA Section 8 Division must promptly notify the initial PHA Section 8 Division if the family has leased an eligible unit under the program, or if the family fails to submit a request for lease approval for an eligible unit within the term of the voucher. The PHA Section 8 Division will maintain a copy of every inspection and re-inspection report for three years, with one exception. If the unit inspected requires testing for Lead Based Paint and/or the unit requires treatment of surfaces based on the testing, the PHA Section 8 Division shall keep indefinitely the test result and, if applicable, the Owner certification of the treatment.

The inspection reports will specify the defects or deficiencies, which must be corrected in order to meet HQS standards. The inspection report will also reflect any other defects or deficiencies, that do not cause the unit to fail, in the event of a subsequent claim by the Owner that they were caused during the period of occupancy by the Family.

XIX. Inspections standards.

Before a unit can be approved for occupancy under the Section 8 Program, the unit must meet the performance requirements set forth in 24 CFR 982.401, which are the Housing Quality Standards (HQS's).

- E. Special Inspections- These type of inspections may be done when a Federal Official visits the PHA Section 8 Division to perform a compliance review of the PHA Section 8 Division and/or the Owner may request a special inspection be performed to document the condition of the housing unit.
- F. Move-out Inspections- These inspections are performed after the tenant moves out of the unit and the Owner and/or the Owner's representative will be required to attend the move-out inspection. If the tenant plans to remain in the unit and the Section 8 Program contract is going to be canceled, the inspection can be performed with the tenant in place. Move-out inspections substantiate possible damage claim/violation of family obligations. The Owner may write the PHA Section 8 Division and indicate that there are no damages and move-out inspection is not required. If an Owner requests a move out inspection to substantiate a damage claim/violation of family obligation the inspection must be completed prior to the work being done that will correct the damage. The Owner must request an inspection within five (5) business days of the move-out in order to submit a damage claim, if applicable. If the PHA Section 8 Division cannot schedule the inspection prior to re-rental of the unit, the PHA Section 8 Division may give the Owner permission to submit a damage claim/violation of family obligation with picture of the unit, to substantiate the damage. The PHA Section 8 Division may use this evidence to terminate the continuing assistance to the participant because of a family violation.

The PHA Section 8 Division inspection only certifies that the unit meets HQS federal regulations and the PHA Section 8 Division is not responsible for items not included in the HQS inspection. The PHA

Section 8 Division will use HUD approved inspection forms to perform Section 8 Inspections.

XX. Determination of participant rent and re-examination of income and family circumstances.

20.1 Initially determined rent period.

Rent as initially determined or at annual re-examination will remain in effect for

Maricopa Public Housing Agency
Housing Choice Voucher Program
Administrative Plan

Revised August 2003

Third Revision June 17, 2005
Amended May 18, 2007

the period between regular re-examination of family income and composition unless the following changes in family circumstances occur:

- A. Employment, unemployment, or changes in employment of a permanent nature of the family head, spouse, or other wage earner that is 18 years of age;
- B. Loss or addition of family composition of any family member through birth, death, divorce, removal of other continuing circumstances and the amount, if any, of family members income; or
- C. To correct errors made when determining eligibility or at reexamination.

Section 8 participant agrees to report, in writing, and provide certification following any change annual income within ten (10) calendar days of the occurrence. If an error results in a retroactive rent payment due to the participant not providing correct information concerning annual income, the Section 8 participant may request the PHA Section 8 Division representative to approve a repayment schedule. The Section 8 participant must make the request, in writing, to the PHA Section 8 Division representative. The amount of the repayment will be the highest of $10.00 per month or 10 percent of the monthly-adjusted income. The PHA Section 8 Division representative will provide the Section 8 participant with a written response to their request and if approved the written notification will include the amount of the monthly repayment plus the due date of the first payment.

The final estimate of family income will be made by the PHA Section 8 Division on the basis of verified information regarding income. There is no minimum income requirement, but the staff should use good interviewing skills to determine whether there is income which is not being reported by the family.

Families may not be required to apply for public assistance, but it may be suggested to them. If the family reports zero income, the PHA Section 8 Division will have the family sign a verification form to verify that no income is being provided.

Families will be required to report any changes in their income status within ten (10) calendar days of the occurrence of employment and/or any other type of income is received. Families with zero income may be requested to re-certify more frequently.

20.2 Annual Re-examination

Once each year, or as required by this PHA Section 8 Division, the PHA Section 8 Division must reexamine the income and family composition of all families participating the Section 8 Program in accordance with 24 CFR 5.617. Verifications acceptable to the PHA Section 8 Division shall be obtained and determinations made. In the event of failure or refusal of the family to report the necessary information, the PHA Section 8 Division may terminate the assistance.

Records shall be maintained by the PHA Section 8 Division to insure that every participant's income and family composition has been reexamined within a twelve month period.

Upon completion of reexamination and verification, the participant shall be notified, in writing, no later than thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of the following:

- (1) Any change required because of a change in the composition of the family.
- (2) Any change in rent and the date on which it becomes effective.

A copy of such notification must be retained in the participant's file.

20.3 Interim Redetermination of Rent

Rent as set at admission or annual re-examination will remain in effect for the period between regular rent determinations unless changes in family circumstances occur. The participant is required and agrees to report, in writing, the following specified changes in family income and composition within ten (10) calendar days of occurrence.

- A. Loss or addition to family composition of any kind through birth, death, marriage, divorce, removal or other continuing circumstance and the amount, if any, of such family members income. Any such additions, other than birth, must be approved by the PHA Section 8 Division in advance, and must qualify, the same as an applicant or any prospective new participant.
- B. Employment, unemployment or changes in income for employment of a permanent nature of the family head, spouse, or other wage earner eighteen (18) years of age or older.
- C. The starting of or stopping of, or an increase or decrease of any benefits or payments received by any member of the family or household from Old Age Pension, Aid for Dependent Children, Black Lung, Railroad Retirement, Private Pension Fund, Disability Compensation, Veterans Administration, Child Support, Alimony, Regular Contributions or GMS. Lump sum payments or retroactive payments of benefits from any of the above sources which constitute the sum of monthly payments for a preceding period paid in a lump sum must be reported and rent adjusted retroactively on such income to date of eligibility for any family member residing in the household for that period of time.

- D. Cost of living increases in Social Security or public assistance grants need not be reported until next re-examination and redetermination of rent.
- E. The PHA Section 8 Division shall correct errors of omission made at admission or re-examination period. Retroactive payments will be made to the participant if the error is in his or her favor.
- F. A participant who has had a rent reduction increase after initial occupancy or after annual re-examination must report all changes in income within ten (10) calendar days regardless of the amount or source.

20.4 Notice of Temporary Rent

In occasions, the PHA Section 8 Division is required to compute rent based on information that is supplied by the participant and third party information that has not or will not be provided by the employer. When this situation occurs, the PHA Section 8 Division will compute a temporary rent based on the information available. Once the information is verified the participant will be notified in writing. If an underpayment was made based on the information provided the participant will have fourteen (14) days from the date of the PHA Section 8 Division notification to pay the amount specified. If the participant has made an overpayment, that amount will be credited to his/her account, with the landlord. The head of household and spouse (if applicable) and a PHA Section 8 Division representative signs this Notice of Temporary Rent and it is filed appropriately with a copy provide to the participant.

20.5 The Effective Dates of Interim Redetermination of Rent

Any decrease in rent resulting from any decreases in family income will be made effective the first of the month following the date the decrease in family income was reported and verified in writing.

The participant agrees to pay any increase in rent resulting from an increase in family income the first of the second month following the date in which such increase in family income occurred, and to pay any back rent due because of failure to report such increase in family income.

Any interim change in rent will require re-verification of all family income that has not been verified within ninety (90) calendar days of the previous rent determination.

Participant agrees to pay any increase in rent resulting from the implementation of changes in rent computation or increases due to changes in regulations, policies or procedures requiring implementation by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Temporary employment/unemployment or increases and decreases in wages “for any reason” of less than 30 days will not constitute a rent adjustment.

If it were found that a participant has misrepresented or failed to report facts upon which rent is based so that the participant is paying less than they should be paying, the increase in rent shall be made retroactive to the date the increase would have taken effect. The participant will be required to pay the difference between the rent paid and the amount that should have been paid. In addition, the participant may be subject to civil and criminal penalties. Misrepresentation is a serious program violation, which may result in assistance termination.

20.6 Special Re-examinations

Special re-examinations are pre-scheduled extensions of admission or continued occupancy determinations, and will be considered for the following reasons:

- A. If it is impossible to determine annual family income accurately due to instability of family income and/or family composition, a temporary determination of income and rent is to be made and a special re-examination shall be scheduled for thirty (30), sixty (60) or ninety (90) days, depending on circumstances. The participant shall be notified, in writing, of the date of the special re-examination.
- B. If the family income can be anticipated at the scheduled time, the re-examination shall be completed and appropriate actions taken. If a reasonable anticipation of income cannot be made, another special re-examination shall be prescribed and the same procedure followed as stipulated in the preceding paragraph until a reasonable estimate can be made.

- C. Rents determined at special re-examinations shall be made effective as noted above.

20.7 Minimum Rent Hardship Exemptions

The PHA Section 8 Division shall immediately grant an exemption from application of the minimum monthly rent to any family making a proper request in writing who is unable to pay because of financial hardship, which shall include:

- A. The family has lost eligibility for, or is awaiting an eligibility determination from a federal, state, or local assistance program, including a family that includes a member who is an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence under the immigration and nationalization act who would be entitled to public benefits but for Title IV of the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996.
- B. The family would be evicted as a result of the implementation of the minimum rent (this exemption is only applicable for the initial implementations of a minimum rent or increase to the existing minimum rent).
- C. The income of the family has decreased because of changed circumstance, including loss of employment.

- D. A death has occurred in the family, which affects the family circumstances.
- E. Other circumstances, which may be, decided by the PHA Section 8 Division on a case by case basis.

All of the above must be proven by the participant providing verifiable information in writing to the PHA Section 8 Division prior to the rent becoming delinquent and before the lease is terminated by the PHA Section 8 Division.

If a resident/participant requests a hardship exemption (prior to the rent being delinquent) under this section, and the PHA Section 8 Division reasonably determines the hardship to be of a temporary nature, exemption shall not be granted during a ninety day period beginning upon the making of the request for the exemption. A resident/participant may not be evicted during the ninety-day period for non-payment of rent. In such a case, if the resident/participant thereafter demonstrates that the financial hardship is of a long-term basis, the PHA Section 8 Division shall retroactively exempt the he or she from the applicability of the minimum rent requirement for such ninety-day period. This Paragraph does not prohibit the PHA Section 8 Division from taking eviction action for other violations of the lease.

20.8 Reduction of Welfare Benefits

If the Section 8 participant requests an income reexamination and the rent reduction is predicated on a reduction in tenant income from welfare, the request will be denied, but only after obtaining written verification from the welfare agency that the families benefits have been reduced because of:

- A. Noncompliance with economic self-sufficiency program; or
- B. Work activities requirements; or
- C. Because of fraud.

20.9 Exception to Rent Reductions

Families whose welfare assistance is reduced specifically because of fraud or failure to participate in an economic self sufficiency program or comply with a work activities requirement will not affect their Section 8 tenant-based assistance.

XXI. Adjustment to utility allowances and contract rents, plus monthly Housing Assistance Payments.

21.1 Utility Allowances

At least annually, the PHA Section 8 Division shall determine whether there has been a substantial change in utility rates or other charge of general applicability. The PHA Section 8 Division shall determine whether an adjustment is required in the allowance of utilities and other services by reason of such changes or because of errors in the original determination. If the PHA Section 8 Division determines that an adjustment should be made, the PHA Section 8 Division shall establish a schedule of adjustments taking into account size and type of dwelling units and other pertinent factors and shall furnish HUD with a copy of the adjusted schedule.

21.2 Contract Rents

Contract rent may be adjusted by the PHA Section 8 Division on an annual basis and for special adjustments as list below:

1. Annual Adjustment- Upon request from the owner to the PHA Section 8 Division an annual adjustment may be made if the Contract unit is in decent, safe and sanitary condition and the Owner is otherwise in compliance with the terms of the Lease and the Section 8 Program Contract. Annual adjustments as of any anniversary date shall be determined by using the Section 8 Annual Adjustment Factor most recently published by HUD in the Federal Register. The Contract rent may be adjusted upward or downward. However, in no case, the adjusted rent be less than the Contract rent on the effective date of the contract.

2. A special adjustment- Subject to HUD approval, to reflect increases in the actual and necessary expenses of owning and maintaining the unit which have resulted from substantial general increases in real property taxes, utility rates or similar costs (i.e. assessments, and utilities not covered by regulated rates), but only if and to the extent that the Owner clearly demonstrates that such general increases have caused increases in the Owners operating costs which are not adequately compensated for by the annual adjustments provided for in item number 1 above of this chapter. The Owner shall submit financial statements to the PHA Section 8 Division, which clearly support the increase.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this part, the adjustments as provided for a unit under contract rent shall not result in material differences between the rents charged for assisted and comparable unassisted units.

21.3 Monthly Housing Assistance Payment- HAP's (Section 8 Program)

Payments

Monthly payments will be made to an owner on behalf of a family participating in the Section 8 Program. Payments will be issued in accordance with the Housing Assistance Payment Contract. The checks will be issued on a monthly basis and mailed directly to the participating owner (due on the fifth (5) day of each month for the current month.) A copy of the check will be kept and serve as a record of payment.

XXII. Fair market rent (FMR) payment standard for vouchers and rent reasonableness limitation.

Unless specifically stated, requirements of this chapter are the same for all tenancies in the tenant-based programs.

22.1 Negotiating Rent to Owner

The owner and the family negotiate the rent to owner. At the family's request, the PHA Section 8 Division must help the family negotiate the rent to owner.

22.2 Rent to Owner: Reasonable Rent

The PHA Section 8 Division determination may not approve a lease until the Section 8 Division determines that the initial rent to owner is a reasonable rent.

The PHA Section 8 Division must re-determine the reasonable rent:

- before any increase in the rent to owner;
- if there is a five percent decrease in the published FMR in effect 60 days before the contract anniversary (for the unit size rented by the family) as compared with the FMR in effect one year before the contract anniversary; or

- if directed by HUD.

The Section 8 Division may also re-determine the reasonable rent at any other time. At all times during the assisted tenancy, the rent to owner may not exceed the reasonable rent as most recently determined or re-determined by the Section 8 Division.

22.3 Comparability

The PHA Section 8 Division must determine whether the rent to owner is a reasonable rent in comparison to rent for other comparable unassisted units. The PHA Section 8 Division will be using the format included at the end of this document to verify the reasonability of the rent requested by owner.

By accepting each monthly housing assistance payment from the PHA Section 8 Division, the owner certifies that the rent to owner is not more than rent charged by the owner for comparable unassisted units in the premises. The owner must give the Section 8 Division information requested by the Section 8 Division on rents charged by the owner for other units in the premises or elsewhere.

22.4 Maximum Subsidy: FMR/Exception Rent Limit

Fair market rents (FMRS) are published by HUD. In the tenant-based programs, the FMR/exception rent limit is used to determine the maximum subsidy for a family. For the voucher program, the FMR/exception rent limit is the maximum “payment standard” (maximum subsidy) for a family.

22.4.1 Determining exception rent.

At HUD's sole discretion, after a petition by PHA Section 8 Division HUD may approve an area exception rent for all units, or all units of a given size (number of bedrooms), leased by program families in a part of the fair market rent area that is designated as an exception rent area. An area exception rent may not exceed 120 percent of the FMR. An area exception rent will not be approved unless HUD determines that an exception rent is needed either:

- (i) To help families find housing outside areas of high poverty; or
- (ii) Because voucher holders have trouble finding housing for lease under the program within the term of the voucher.

The total populations of exception rent areas in an FMR area may not include more than 50 percent of the population of the fair market rent area. At any time, HUD may withdraw or modify any approved area exception rent.

22.5 Voucher Tenancy or Over-FMR Tenancy: How to calculate housing assistance payment- HAP's.

For a voucher tenancy a "payment standard" is used to calculate the monthly housing assistance payment for a family. The HAP is arrived at by taking the lower of the payment standard minus the TTP or gross rent for the unit minus the TTP.

22.5.1 Voucher payment standard: Maximum and minimum.

The PHA Section 8 Division must adopt a payment standard schedule that establishes payment standards for the Section 8. For a voucher tenancy, the payment standard for each unit size may not be:

- a. More than the current FMR/exception rent limit; or
- b. Less than 80 percent of the current FMR/exception rent limit, unless HUD approves a lower percent.

22.5.2 Voucher assistance formula

For a voucher tenancy, the housing assistance payment for a family equals the lesser of: (1) The applicable payment standard minus 30 percent of monthly adjusted income; or (2) The monthly gross rent minus the minimum rent.

For the voucher program the minimum rent is the higher of: (1) 10 percent of monthly income (gross income); or (2) a higher minimum rent as required by law.

22.5.3 Voucher payment standard schedule

A voucher payment standard schedule is a list of the payment standard amounts used to calculate the voucher housing assistance payment for each unit size in an FMR area. The payment standard schedule for an FMR area includes payment standard amounts for any HUD-approved exception rent area in the FMR area.

The voucher payment standard schedule establishes a single payment standard for each unit size in an FMR area and, if applicable, in a HUD-approved exception rent area within an FMR area.

Payment standard amounts on the payment standard schedule must be within the maximum and minimum limits stated in chapter 22.5.1 Within these limits, payment standard amounts on the schedule may be adjusted annually, at the discretion of the PHA Section 8 Division, if necessary, to assure continued affordability of units in the PHA Section 8 Division jurisdiction.

To calculate the housing assistance payment for a family, the PHA Section 8 Division must use the applicable payment standard from the PHA Section 8 Division payment standard schedule for the fair market rent area (including the applicable payment standard for any HUD approved exception rent area) where the unit rented by the family is located.

22.6 Payment standard for certain subsidized projects.

For a voucher tenancy in an insured or noninsured Section 236 project, a Section 515 project of the Rural Development Administration, or a Section 221 (d)(3) below market interest rate project, the payment standard may not exceed the basic rental charge including the cost for tenant-paid utilities.

22.7 Over-FMR tenancy: Determining amount of assistance

Under the voucher program, if the gross rent for the unit is lower than the payment standard, the family will pay the full TTP. If the gross rent for the unit is higher than the payment standard, the family will pay the TTP plus the amount by which the gross rent exceeds the payment standard.

22.8 Payment standard for family

This paragraph (d) applies to both a voucher tenancy and an over-FMR tenancy.

The payment standard for a family is the lower of:

- a. The payment standard for the family unit size; or
- b. The payment standard for the unit size rented by the family.

If the unit rented by a family is located in an exception rent area, the Section 8 Division must use the appropriate payment standard for the exception rent area.

During the Section 8 Program contract term for a unit, the amount of the payment standard for a family is the higher of,

- a. The initial payment standard (at the beginning of the lease term) minus any amount by which the initial rent to owner exceeds the current rent to -owner; or
- b. The payment standard as determined at the most recent regular reexamination of family income and composition effective after the beginning of the Section 8 Program contract term.

If there is a change in family size or composition during the Section 8 Program contract term, does not apply at the next regular re-examination following such change, or thereafter during the term.

22.9 Over-FMR Tenancy: PHA Section 8 Division Approval.

At the request of the family, the PHA Section 8 Division may approve an over-FMR tenancy in accordance with this section.

Generally, the PHA Section 8 Division is not required to approve any over- FMR tenancy. However, the PHA Section 8 Division must approve an over-FMR tenancy if needed as a reasonable accommodation so that the program is readily accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities in accordance with 24 CFR requirements.

The PHA Section 8 Division will approve over-FMR tenancy if it is to aid in - furthering of the goals and objectives of fair housing.

22.9.1 Requirements.

The PHA Section 8 Division may not approve an over-FMR tenancy unless the PHA Section 8 Division determines that the initial family share is reasonable. In making this determination, the PHA Section 8 Division must take into account other family expenses, such as child care, unreimbursed medical expenses, and other appropriate family expenses as determined by the PHA Section 8 Division.

22.10 Amount of assistance.

During an over-PMR tenancy, the amount of the housing assistance payment is determined in accordance with Sec. 982.505(c).

22.11 How to calculate housing assistance payment

The initial gross rent for any unit may not exceed the FMR/exception rent limit on the date the PHA Section 8 Division approves the lease. The FMR/exception rent limit for a family is the lower of:

- a. The FMR/exception rent limit for the family unit size; or
- b. The FMR/exception rent limit for the unit size rented by the family.

The initial rent to owner may not exceed a reasonable rent as determined in accordance with Sec. 982.503.

When rent is adjusted, at each annual anniversary date of the Section 8 Program contract, the PHA Section 8 Division must adjust the rent to owner at the request of the owner in accordance with this chapter.

22.11.1 Amount of annual adjustment.

The adjusted rent to owner equals the lesser of:

1. The pre-adjustment rent to owner multiplied by the applicable Section 8 annual adjustment factor, published by HUD in the Federal Register, that is in effect 60 days before the Section 8 Program contract anniversary;
2. The reasonable rent (as most recently determined or re-determined by the PHA Section 8 Division PHA Section 8 Division in accordance with Sec. 982.503); or
3. The amount requested by the owner.

In making the annual adjustment, the pre-adjustment rent to owner does not include any previously approved special adjustments. The rent to owner may be adjusted up or down in accordance with this chapter.

The rent of a unit must not be increased at the annual anniversary date unless:

- a. The owner requests the adjustment by giving notice to the Section 8 Division; and
- b. During the year before the annual anniversary date, the owner has complied with all requirements of the Section 8 Program contract, including compliance with the HQS.

The rent to owner will only be increased for housing assistance payments covering months commencing on the later of:

- a. The contract anniversary date; or
- b. At least sixty days after the PHA Section 8 Division receives the owner's request.

To receive an increase resulting from the annual adjustment for an annual anniversary date, the owner must request the increase at least sixty days before the next annual anniversary date.

22.11.2 Regular Tenancy-Special adjustment of rent to owner

At HUD sole discretion, after a petition by the PHA Section 8 Division, HUD may approve a special adjustment of the rent to owner to reflect increases in the actual and necessary costs of owning and maintaining the' unit because of substantial and general increases in:

1. Real property taxes;
2. Special governmental assessments;

3. Utility rates; or
4. Costs of utilities not covered by regulated rates.

The PHA Section 8 Division may make a special adjustment of the rent to owner only if HUD has approved the adjustment. The owner does not have any right to receive a special adjustment.

The adjusted rent may not exceed the reasonable rent. The owner may not receive a special adjustment if the adjusted rent would exceed the reasonable rent.

The PHA Section 8 Division may withdraw or limit the term of any special adjustment. If a special adjustment is approved to cover temporary or one-time costs, the special adjustment is only a temporary or one-time increase of the rent to owner.

In addition to the rent reasonableness limit under this subpart, the amount of rent to owner also may be subject to rent control limits under State or local law

22.12 Rent to Owner in subsidized project

The rent to owner in an insured or noninsured Section 236 project, a Section 515 project of the Rural Development Administration, a Section 202 project or a Section 221 (d)(3) below market interest rate project is the subsidized rent. During the assisted tenancy, the rent to owner must be adjusted to follow the subsidized rent, and must not be adjusted by applying the published Section 8 annual adjustment factors. For such units, special adjustments may not be granted.

For units assisted under the HOME program, rents are subject to requirements of the HOME program.

In the case of a regular tenancy, the PHA Section 8 Division may require the owner to reduce the initial rent to owner because of other governmental subsidies, including tax credit or tax exemption, grants or other subsidized financing.

22.13 Other Fees and Changes.

The cost of meals or supportive services may not be included in the rent to owner and the value of meals or supportive services may not be included in the calculation of reasonable rent.

The lease may not require the tenant or family members to pay charges for meals or supportive services. Non-payment of such charges is not grounds for termination of tenancy.

The owner may not charge the tenant extra amounts for items customarily included in rent in the locality, or provided at no additional cost to unsubsidized tenants in the premises.

22.14. Distribution of Housing Assistance Payment.

The monthly housing assistance payment is distributed as follows:

- A. The PHA Section 8 Division pays the owner the lesser of the housing assistance payment or the rent to owner.
- B. If the housing assistance payment exceeds the rent to owner, the PHA Section 8 Division may pay the balance of the housing assistance payment either to the family or directly to the utility supplier to pay the utility bill on behalf of the family.

22.15 Family Share-Family responsibility

The family share is calculated by subtracting the amount of the housing assistance payment from the gross rent. The PHA Section 8 Division may not use housing assistance payments or other program funds (including any administrative fee reserve) to pay any part of the family share. Payment of the family share is the responsibility of the family.

22.16 Family Income and Composition-Regular and interim examinations

The PHA Section 8 Division must obtain and document in the tenant file third party verification of the following factors, or must document in the tenant file why third party verification was not available.

At any time, the PHA Section 8 Division may conduct an interim reexamination of family income and composition. At any time, the family may request an interim determination of family income or composition because of any changes since the last determination. The PHA Section 8 Division must make the interim determination within a reasonable time after the family request.

Interim examinations must be conducted in accordance with policies in this PHA Section 8 Division administrative plan.

22.17 Family reporting of change.

The PHA Section 8 Division must adopt policies prescribing when and under what conditions the family must report a change in family income or composition.

22.18 Effective date of re-examination.

The PHA Section 8 Division must adopt policies prescribing how to determine the effective date of a change in the housing assistance payment resulting from an interim re-determination. At the effective date of a regular or interim reexamination, the PHA Section 8 Division must make appropriate adjustments in the housing assistance payment and family unit size.

22.19 Family member income

Family income must include income of all family members, including family members not related by blood or marriage. If any new family member is added, family income must include any income of the additional family member. The PHA Section 8 Division must conduct a reexamination to determine such additional income, and must make appropriate adjustment in the housing assistance payment and family unit size.

XXIII Utility Allowance Schedule.

The PHA Section 8 Division must maintain a utility allowance schedule for all tenant-paid utilities (except telephone), for cost of tenant-supplied refrigerators and ranges, and for other tenant-paid housing services (e.g., trash collection, disposal of waste and refuse).

The PHA Section 8 Division must give HUD a copy of the utility allowance schedule. At HUD's request, the PHA Section 8 Division also must provide any information or procedures used in preparation of the schedule.

23.1 How allowances are determined.

The utility allowance schedule must be determined based on the typical cost of utilities and services paid by energy-conservative households that occupy housing of similar size and type in the same community. In developing the schedule, the PHA Section 8 Division must use normal patterns of consumption for the community as whole and current utility rates.

The PHA Section 8 Division utility allowance schedule, and the utility allowance for an individual family, will include the utilities and services that are necessary in the community or locality to provide housing that complies with the housing quality standards. However, the PHA Section 8 Division may not provide any allowance for non-essential utility costs, such as costs of cable or satellite television.

In the utility allowance schedule, the PHA Section 8 Division must classify utilities and other housing services according to the following general categories: air conditioning; cooking; water heating; water; sewer; trash collection (disposal of waste); other electric; and other specified housing services. The PHA Section 8 Division must provide a utility allowance for tenant-paid air-conditioning costs if the majority of housing units in the market provide centrally air-conditioned units or there is appropriate wiring for tenant-installed air conditioners.

The cost of each utility and housing service category must be stated separately. For each of these categories, the utility allowance schedule must take into consideration unit size (by number of bedrooms), and unit types (e.g., apartment, town house or single-family that are typical in the community).

The utility allowance schedule must be prepared and submitted in accordance with HUD requirements on the form prescribed by HUD.

23.2 Revisions of utility allowance schedule.

The PHA Section 8 Division must review its schedule of utility allowances each year, and must revise its allowance for a utility category if there has been a change of ten (10) percent or more in the utility rate since the last time the utility allowance schedule was revised. The PHA Section 8 Division must maintain information supporting its annual review of utility allowances and any revisions made in its utility allowance schedule.

23.3 Use of utility allowance schedule.

The PHA Section 8 Division must use the appropriate utility allowance for the size of dwelling unit actually leased by the family rather than the family unit size as determined under the PHA Section 8 Division subsidy standards.

At reexamination, the PHA Section 8 Division must use the PHA Section 8

Division current utility allowance schedule.

23.4 Higher utility allowance as reasonable accommodation for a person with disabilities.

On request from a family that includes a person with disabilities, the PHA Section 8 Division must approve a utility allowance which is higher than the applicable amount on the utility allowance schedule if a higher utility allowance is needed as a reasonable accommodation to make the program accessible to and usable by the family member with a disability.

SECTION XXIV. Affordability adjustments and rent provisions for vouchers.24.1 Annual Increases of Payment Standards.

The PHA Section 8 Division, in its discretion, may adopt annual increases of payment standards amounts on the payment standard schedule so that families can continue to afford to lease units with assistance under the Housing Voucher Program. In determining when an adjustment to the payment is necessary the PHA Section 8 Division will consider:

- A. Rent burden (number of families paying more than 30% of income for rent.
- B. Success rate in leasing and
- C. Percentage of FMR.

The PHA Section 8 Division will also consider the financial utilization of funding provided for vouchers. If the PHA Section 8 Division determines that vouchers are not being leased to properly utilize funding, the payment standard may need to be adjusted to increase utilization of available funding.

24.2 Rent Negotiation.

Under the Housing Voucher Program, the rent to the owner is a matter of negotiation between the owner and the family. The rent must be within the guidelines of rent reasonableness. The PHA Section 8 Division administrative plan provides for the skipping of families on the waiting list to accomplish this goal.
