Housing

OMB No. 2577-0226
(exp. 08/31/2009)

---

This information collection is authorized by Section 511 of the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act, which added a new section 5A to the U.S. Housing Act of 1937 that introduced 5-year and annual PHA Plans. The full PHA plan provides a ready source for interested parties to locate basic PHA policies, rules, and requirements concerning the PHA's operations, programs, and services, and informs HUD, families served by the PHA, and members of the public of the PHA's mission and strategies for serving the needs of low-income and very low-income families. This form allows eligible PHAs to make a streamlined annual Plan submission to HUD consistent with HUD's efforts to provide regulatory relief for certain types of PHAs. Public reporting burden for this information collection is estimated to average 11.7 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. HUD may not collect this information and respondents are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

Privacy Act Notice. The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, Federal Housing Administration, is authorized to solicit the information requested in this form by virtue of Title 12, U.S. Code, Section 1701 et seq., and regulations promulgated thereunder at Title 12, Code of Federal Regulations. Information in PHA plans is publicly available.

VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN IN FEDERALLY FUNDED RENTAL ASSISTED HOUSING

Learn about your rights as a victim of Domestic Violence.

The violence against Women Act (VAWA) of 2005 is an amended version of the 1994 VAWA which provides new protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking. These protections include provisions protecting victims who live in Public Housing or who are receiving housing assistance under the Housing Choice Voucher program. The information on this page is intended to inform you of your rights and responsibility under VAWA.

Domestic Violence includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic violence or family violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving grant monies, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from the person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction.

Dating Violence means violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the consideration of the following factors: (1) length of the relationship; (2) type of relationship; (3) frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

Stalking means engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would (1) cause a reasonable person to fear for this or her safety or the safety of others; or, (2) suffer substantial emotional distress.

Immediate Family Member means, with respect to a person, a spouse, parent, brother, sister, or child of that person, or an individual to whom that person stands in loco parentis; or any other person living in the household of that person and related to that person by blood or marriage.

What protections are provided by VAWA?

There are two areas of protection for those persons seeking or receiving assistance under the Public Housing or Housing Choice Voucher program:

1. Denial of Assistance – The law provides that you cannot be denied assistance because you are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, if you are otherwise qualified to receive such assistance.
2. Termination of Tenancy or Assistance – The law protects those who are currently receiving federal housing assistance or housing solely on the basis of their status as a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking.

In summary, VAWA prevents housing agencies and owners from considering actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking as a cause for terminating the tenancy, occupancy, or program assistance of the victim. Such violence or stalking may not be considered

1. as a serious or repeated violation of the lease by the victim;
2. as other good cause for terminating the tenancy or occupancy rights of the victim, or;
3. as criminal activity justifying the termination of the tenancy, occupancy rights, or program assistance of the victim.

What about the perpetrator?

If the perpetrator is a member of the victim's household, the agency administering the voucher or the public housing program has the authority to require the individual to leave the household as a condition of providing continued assistance to the remaining members of the family. Additionally, if state law allows, the housing agency has the authority to bifurcate a lease, or divide it into two parts to deal with family members who engage in criminal acts of physical violence against family members or others. Bifurcation would allow the housing agency or owner to take eviction or termination actions against a perpetrator of physical violence without penalizing the victim.

What are the limitations of VAWA?

Housing agencies and owners retain the authority to terminate the tenancy, occupancy, or program assistance of a victim under either of the following conditions:

1. The termination is for a lease violation premised on something other than an act of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking against the victim, and the housing agency or owner is holding the victim to a standard no

- more “demanding” than the standard to which other tenants are held.
2. The housing agency or owner can demonstrate an “actual and imminent threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to the property” if the tenancy, occupancy or program assistance of the victim is not terminated.

Certification of Victim Status

VAWA gives housing agencies and owners the discretion to provide benefits to an individual based solely on the individual’s statement or other corroborating evidence. However, the Act also permits housing agencies and owners to require the victims attest to their status by signing a HUD approved certification form. The form must meet the following standards:

1. It must require the individual signing it to certify that she or he is the victim of “bona fide” incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking as defined and described in VAWA.
2. It must include the name of the perpetrator.
3. It must be provided within 14 business days of a written request unless the housing agency or owner requesting the form extends the deadline.

VAWA provides the victim the alternative of providing the housing agency or owner one of the following types of documentation:

1. A local police or court record.
2. Documentation signed by a victim service provider, an attorney, or a medical professional from who the victim has sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking. The signer must attest under penalty of perjury (a) that the abuse the victim has suffered is a bona fide incidence of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking and (b) that the victim has signed or approved the documentation.

Failure on the part of the victim to provide certification within the allotted time voids the protections provided by VAWA.

Confidentiality

Any information or documentation provided to a housing agency or owner by a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking must be kept in confidence. No information of documentation may be (1) entered into any shared databases or (2) disclosed to “any related entity” except under the following conditions:

1. The victim requests or consents to the disclosure in writing.
2. The disclosure is required for use in an eviction proceeding.
3. The disclosure is otherwise required by application law.
