Volusia County Public Housing Agency

The County of Volusia implements a Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program that serves extremely-low, low- and moderately low-income families. Volusia County has 322 Housing Choice Vouchers available. Volusia County's strategy in serving this population is to provide the maximum number of rental units to eligible participants.

While the families are in the Section 8 program, they are encouraged to take part in the Family Self-Sufficiency (FSS) Program, which is focused on improving their economic situation to become more self-sufficient. The FSS program is supported through Volusia County's Consolidated Plan through an on-going commitment to provide CDBG funding for FSS program participants. CDBG funding provides Section 8 clients with provision of tuition, books, uniforms, and equipment necessary for them to achieve educational certifications or degrees to enhance their economic viability. CDBG funds are also used to provide child-care for clients in school.

The County of Volusia has implemented a Homeownership option to successful participants of the Family Self-Sufficiency Program. To improve the living environment of the targeted population, the Section 8 staff counsels prospective program participants about available units outside of poverty stricken and minority concentration areas. The State Housing Initiatives Partnership Program and HOME Investment Partnership Program, as well as, American Dream Downpayment funds are available for homeownership subsidies to the Section 8 client.

Violence Against Women Act

The County of Volusia, Housing Choice Voucher Program (Section 8) has created Violence Against Women policy in response the Violence Against Women and the Department of Justice Reauthorization Act of 2005. As a result of this action, current landlords and participants have been advised of this policy. The Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program educates potential landlords and participants during briefings.

The Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program is in the process of working with law enforcement agencies as well as the local social service agencies for women and children to provide assistance for the following areas:

- Law Enforcement: Investigation & Court activity,
- Social Services Agencies: Assistance with Counseling, Health Care, Child Care assistance, and other activities that would be required.

As the program grows it will be revised and enlarged as required.
