The full PHA plan provides a ready source for interested parties to locate basic PHA policies, rules, and requirements concerning the PHA's operations, programs, and services, and informs HUD, families served by the PHA, and members of the public of the PHA's mission and strategies for serving the needs of low-income and very low-income families. This form allows eligible PHAs to make a streamlined annual Plan submission to HUD consistent with HUD's efforts to provide regulatory relief for certain types of PHAs. Public reporting burden for this information collection is estimated to average 11.7 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. HUD may not collect this information and respondents are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

The Housing Authority of the City of Chatsworth provides or offers the following activities, services, or programs, either directly or in partnership with other service providers, to child or adult victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Through cooperation with the local domestic violence agency and City of Chatsworth Police Department, any cases of violence as described are referred for assistance. The local domestic violence agency is Northwest Georgia Family Crisis Center.

The Housing Authority of the City of Chatsworth provides or offers the following activities, services, or programs that help child and adult victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, to obtain or maintain housing.

The Family Crisis Center's program staff is aware of our housing program and makes client referrals to our office. Apparently eligible clients are placed on our waiting list.

For persons already living in a Housing Authority unit who become victims as described, these are referred to police and the Family Crisis Center's program for assistance.
