Admissions Policy for Deconcentration

J. DECONCENTRATION OF POVERTY AND INCOME-MIXING

The HAHC's admission policy is designed to provide for deconcentration of poverty and income-mixing by bringing higher income tenants into lower income projects and lower income tenants into higher income projects.

Gross annual income is used for income limits at admission and for income-mixing purposes.

Skipping of a family on the waiting list specifically to reach another family with a lower or higher income is not to be considered an adverse action to the family. Such skipping will be uniformly applied until the target threshold is met.

The HAHC will gather data and analyze, at least annually, the tenant characteristics of its public housing stock, including information regarding tenant incomes, to assist in the HAHC's deconcentration efforts.

The HAHC will use the gathered tenant incomes information in its assessment of its public housing developments to determine the appropriate designation to be assigned to the project for the purpose of assisting the HAHC in its deconcentration goals.

If the HAHC's annual review of tenant incomes indicates that there has been a significant change in the tenant income characteristics of a particular project, the HAHC will evaluate the changes to determine whether, based on the HAHC methodology of choice, the project needs to be redesignated as a higher or lower income project or whether the HAHC has met the deconcentration goals and the project needs no particular designation.

Deconcentration and Income-Mixing Goals

Admission policies related to the deconcentration efforts of the HAHC do not impose specific quotas. Therefore, the HAHC will not set specific quotas, but will strive to achieve deconcentration and income-mixing in its developments.

Attachment B

Community Service Requirements

The Housing Authority of Henry County has adopted a Community Service Policy which was placed in effect on October 1, 2000. The major points of this policy are as follows:

- Receiving Social Security or disability assistance

Fulfillment of this requirement is the responsibility of the individual. Residents are supplied with a list of options which they may pursue to satisfy this requirement. Residents are provided with a tabulation sheet to record hours and signature sheets to be filled out by the participating agency.

It is the responsibility of the individual to notify the HAHC of change in status to qualify for an exemption.

The HAHC Resident Initiatives Coordinator is the staff person responsible for recordkeeping and initiation for new residents regarding this requirement.

Status is reviewed annually on the anniversary date of move-in. Those persons not fulfilling this requirement may be subject to eviction or non-renewal of lease.

As with all HAHC policies, residents have the right to file a grievance against the agency to determine if appropriate action has been taken in the case of an eviction.

Carbon Monoxide Alarm Detector Act
Implementation Date ~ January 1, 2007

The Housing Authority of Henry County was in compliance with the Carbon Monoxide Alarm Detector Act by January 1, 2007.

The Housing Authority's Plan to implement was completed as follows:

The Housing Authority purchased Carbon Monoxide Alarm Detectors for all 454 Housing Authority Public Housing units. Maintenance has properly installed and tested the detectors in all units.

Maintenance has continued to check the detectors to ensure they are working properly and have replaced any they have found to be defective. Maintenance will check detectors during our annual housing inspection and prior to any new move-ins.

During residency, maintaining the detector will be up to the residents to check to ensure they are working. They are to report to the housing authority by work order if they find the detector not operating or testing incorrectly.

Maintaining the Carbon Monoxide Detector is discussed and demonstrated at all new tenant orientation meetings. We also have instructions for maintaining and testing of the detectors posted in our Tenant Handbooks which are updated annually or as needed. There they will find our office phone number to call if they find the detector to be inoperable.

There are also instructions regarding what to do if the alarm goes off which includes instructions to get out of the apartment or open the windows and doors and to call the fire department. We have listed the appropriate phone number to the fire department for each community for which they reside in.
