The full PHA plan provides a ready source for interested parties to locate basic PHA policies, rules, and requirements concerning the PHA's operations, programs, and services, and informs HUD, families served by the PHA, and members of the public of the PHA's mission and strategies for serving the needs of low-income and very low-income families. This form allows eligible PHAs to make a streamlined annual Plan submission to HUD consistent with HUD's efforts to provide regulatory relief for certain types of PHAs. Public reporting burden for this information collection is estimated to average 11.7 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. HUD may not collect this information and respondents are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

CHAPTER 12

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

OVERVIEW [PIH 2006-42; Public Law 109-162]

The Violence Against Women and Justice Department Reauthorization Act of 2005 protects tenants and family members of tenants who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking from being evicted or terminated from housing assistance based on acts of such violence against them. These provisions apply both to Public Housing Authorities administering Public Housing and Section 8 Programs and to owners renting to families under Section 8 Rental Assistance Programs. These provisions also apply to applicants of these programs.

The Topeka Housing Authority (THA) is concerned about and committed to addressing problems relating to domestic violence directed toward women, and it is the policy of THA to comply in all respects with the federal Violence Against Women Act. At the same time, THA recognizes that domestic violence can be directed toward men, and THA is concerned about and committed to addressing problems relating to this form of domestic violence as well.

DEFINITIONS

Domestic Violence: [as defined in Section 40002(a)(6) of VAWA 1994]

Includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabiting with or has cohabited with the victim as a spouse, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving grant monies, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction.

Dating Violence: [as defined in Section 40002(a)(8) of VAWA 1994]

Violence committed by a person:

- Who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and
- Where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:
 - The length of the relationship
 - The type of relationship
 - The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship

Stalking: [as defined in Title VI of VAWA 1994]

- To follow, pursue, or repeatedly commit acts with the intent to kill, injure, harass, or intimidate another person; or
- To place under surveillance with the intent to kill, injure, harass or intimidate another person; and
- In the course of, or as a result of, such following, pursuit, surveillance or repeatedly committed acts, to place a person in reasonable fear of the death of, or serious bodily injury to, or to cause substantial emotional harm to:
 - That person;
 - A member of the immediate family of that person; or
 - The spouse or intimate partner of that person.

Immediate Family Member:

- A spouse, parent, brother, sister, or child of that person, or an individual to whom that person stands in loco parentis (in place of a parent) or;
- Any other person living in the household of that person and related to that person by blood or marriage.

DENIAL OF ASSISTANCE TO AN APPLICANT

An applicant for the Public Housing Program who has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking shall not be denied assistance if they are otherwise qualified for admission.

TERMINATION OF ASSISTANCE TO RESIDENTS

An incident or incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking will not be construed as a serious or repeated violation of the lease by the victim or threatened victim of that violence, and shall not be good cause for terminating the assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights of the victim of such violence.

THA may terminate assistance to and act to remove a lawful occupant or resident who engages in criminal acts or threatened acts of violence or stalking involving family members or others without terminating assistance or evicting victimized lawful occupants or residents.

Within the limitations of HUD requirements and THA administrative policies, THA will honor court orders regarding the rights of access to and/or control of subsidized units, including Emergency Protection Orders, Domestic Violence Orders, and other orders issued to protect the victim and to address the distribution or possession of property among household members when a family "breaks up."

There is no limitation on the ability of THA to evict for cause unrelated to the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, other than the victim may not be subject to a "more demanding standard" than non-victims.

There is no prohibition on THA evicting if it "can demonstrate an actual and imminent threat to other residents or those employed at or providing service to the property if that resident's (victim's) tenancy is not terminated."

Any protections provided by law which give greater protection to the victim are not superceded by these provisions.

THA will require certification by the victim of victim status on such forms as the THA and/or HUD shall prescribe or approve.

DEFINITIONS

Domestic Violence: [as defined in Section 40002(a)(6) of VAWA 1994]

Includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabiting with or has cohabited with the victim as a spouse, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving grant monies, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction.

Dating Violence: [as defined in Section 40002(a)(8) of VAWA 1994]

Violence committed by a person:

- Who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and
- Where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:
 - The length of the relationship
 - The type of relationship
 - The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship

Stalking: [as defined in Title VI of VAWA 1994]

- To follow, pursue, or repeatedly commit acts with the intent to kill, injure, harass, or intimidate another person; or

- A spouse, parent, brother, sister, or child of that person, or an individual to whom that person stands in loco parentis (in place of a parent) or;
- Any other person living in the household of that person and related to that person by blood or marriage.

DENIAL OF ASSISTANCE TO AN APPLICANT

An applicant for the Section 8 Program, or for any other programs operated under the Section 8 Administrative Plan, who has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking shall not be denied assistance if they are otherwise qualified for admission.

TERMINATION OF ASSISTANCE TO PARTICIPANT

An incident or incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking will not be construed as a serious or repeated violation of the lease by the victim or threatened victim of that violence, and shall not be good cause for terminating the assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights of the victim of such violence.

THA may terminate assistance to and act to remove a lawful occupant or tenant who engages in criminal acts or threatened acts of violence or stalking involving family members or others without terminating assistance to victimized lawful occupants or tenants.

Within the limitations of HUD requirements and THA administrative policies, THA will honor court orders regarding the rights of access to and/or control of subsidized units, including Emergency Protection Orders, Domestic Violence Orders, and other orders issued to protect the victim and to address the distribution or possession of property among household members when a family "breaks up."

There is no limitation on the ability of THA to terminate assistance for cause unrelated to the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, other than the victim may not be subject to a "more demanding standard" than non-victims.

There is no prohibition on THA terminating assistance if it "can demonstrate an actual and imminent threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to the property if that tenant's (victim's) assistance is not terminated."

Any protections provided by law which give greater protection to the victim are not superceded by these provisions.

THA will require certification by the victim of victim status on such forms as the THA and/or HUD shall prescribe or approve.

TOPEKA HOUSING AUTHORITY LEASE ADDENDUM

All Public Housing Authorities must comply with the provisions of the federal Violence Against Women Act (VAWA), and all Public Housing residents must sign a lease addendum that incorporates VAWA language. Definitions for VAWA terms and specific actions that the Topeka Housing Authority will take to comply with this Act are set out in the Topeka Housing Authority's (THA) Admissions and Continued Occupancy Plan (ACOP).

If a member of the resident's household, guest, or other person under the resident's control, engages in criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, such conduct shall not be cause for termination of the lease or occupancy rights of the victim, if the resident or an immediate member of the resident's family is the victim or threatened victim of the domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.

One or more incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking will not be construed as a serious or repeated violation of the lease by the victim or threatened victim of that violence, and shall not be good cause for terminating the assistance, tenancy, or occupancy right of the victim of such violence.

Nothing in this lease addendum prohibits THA from evicting the member of the household who has engaged in actual or threatened actions of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking.

A resident who claims as a defense to an eviction action that the eviction action is due to criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence or stalking, must provide written certification that they are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, and that the incident or incidents which are the subject of the eviction notice are bona fide incidents of actual or threatened abuse. This written certification must be provided within fourteen days after THA requests the certification in writing, which may be the date of the termination of lease letter. It may also be the date of any other written communication from THA stating that the resident is subject to eviction due to the incident which the resident alleges was a bona fide instance of actual or threatened abuse. The certification requirement may be complied with by completing the certification form available from THA. Information provided in the certification form shall be retained in confidence, shall not be entered into a shared data base, and shall not be provided to a related entity unless the resident consents in writing, the information is required for use in eviction proceedings, or its use is otherwise required by law.

THA may bifurcate the lease under, in order to evict, remove, or terminate assistance to any individual who is a tenant or lawful occupant and who engages in criminal acts of physical violence against family members or others, without evicting, removing, terminating assistance to, or otherwise penalizing the victim of such violence who is also a tenant or lawful occupant:

THA may evict a resident for any violation of a lease not premised on the act or acts of violence in question against the resident or a member of the resident's household, provided that the resident who is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking is not subjected to a more demanding standard than other residents in determining whether to evict or terminate. A victim resident who allows a perpetrator to violate a court order relating to the act or acts of violence is subject to eviction. A victim resident who allows a perpetrator who has been barred from THA property to come onto THA property, including but not limited to the victim's apartment and any other area under their control, is subject to eviction.

THA may terminate the tenancy of any resident if there is a demonstrated actual and imminent threat to other residents or those employed at or providing service to the Housing Authority if that resident's tenancy is not terminated.

None of the provisions of this addendum shall be construed to supersede any provision of any Federal, State, or local law that provides greater protection for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Lease Addendum on _____.

VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT (VAWA)
NOTIFICATION TO PUBLIC HOUSING RESIDENTS

THE FEDERAL LAW

The federal Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) says that women and men who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking cannot be evicted from Public Housing because of acts of violence against them. (Note: this law contains some exceptions---see below.)

EXCEPTIONS

Again, with the following exceptions, it is NOT a violation of your lease and you CANNOT be evicted from Public Housing for reasons relating to your being a victim of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking.

However, THA can evict:

Perpetrators of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking;

Victim(s) of domestic violence if there is a threat of harm to other persons;
and/or,

Victims of domestic violence for reasons not related to domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU GET A LEASE VIOLATION

If you get a lease violation that you believe is related to an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, you may want to claim protection under VAWA. If so, call or write the THA staff member who sent you the lease violation.

Depending on the situation, they will ask you to:

Fill out a simple, one-page form (available from THA);

Provide a copy of a police report, restraining order or other police or court records pertaining to the violence; and/or,

Provide other documentation.

CONFIDENTIALITY

THA staff will treat any inquiry about domestic violence, dating violence or stalking confidentially.

VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT (VAWA) NOTIFICATION TO SECTION 8 AND MAINSTREAM PROGRAM PARTICIPANTS AND LANDLORDS

THE FEDERAL LAW

The federal Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) says that women and men who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking cannot be terminated from the Section 8 or Mainstream Programs or evicted by their landlord because of acts of violence against them. (Note: this law contains some exceptions---see below.)

EXCEPTIONS

Again, with the following exceptions, it is NOT a violation of the Section 8 or Mainstream voucher and a participant CANNOT be terminated from the Section 8 or Mainstream Programs for incidents related to being a victim of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking. Section 8 and Mainstream Program participants also cannot be evicted by their landlord for incidents related to domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking.

However, THA can terminate participation and landlords can evict:

- Perpetrators of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking;
- Victim(s) of domestic violence if there is a threat of harm to other persons; and/or,
- Victims of domestic violence for reasons not related to domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.

SECTION 8 OR MAINSTREAM PROGRAM TERMINATION OR EVICTION

If a Section 8 or Mainstream Program participant receives a termination letter from THA or an eviction notice from their landlord that they believe is related to an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, they may want to claim protection under VAWA. If so, the participant would need to contact their landlord and THA.

The landlord and/or THA may ask a Program participant to:

- Fill out a simple, one-page form (available from THA);
- Provide a copy of a police report, restraining order or other police or court records pertaining to the violence; and/or,
- Provide other documentation.

PORTABILITY/MOVING TO ANOTHER LOCATION

Within THA guidelines, participants are able to move to another location after their first year of assistance with a Section 8 or Mainstream voucher, provided they are not in violation of their lease.

In addition, VAWA allows a family to move:

- To protect the victim(s) of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking; and,
- They believe they are in imminent danger if they remain in the unit.

CONFIDENTIALITY

THA staff will treat any inquiry about domestic violence, dating violence or stalking confidentially.
