This information collection is authorized by Section 511 of the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act, which added a new section 5A to the U.S. Housing Act of 1937 that introduced 5-year and annual PHA Plans. The full PHA plan provides a ready source for interested parties to locate basic PHA policies, rules, and requirements concerning the PHA's operations, programs, and services, and informs HUD, families served by the PHA, and members of the public of the PHA's mission and strategies for serving the needs of low-income and very low-income families. This form allows eligible PHAs to make a streamlined annual Plan submission to HUD consistent with HUD's efforts to provide regulatory relief for certain types of PHAs. Public reporting burden for this information collection is estimated to average 11.7 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. HUD may not collect this information and respondents are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

VAWA STATEMENT

20.0 THE VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT

The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) of 2005 is an amended version of the 1994 VAWA which provides new protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking. These protections include provisions protecting victims who live in public housing or who are receiving housing assistance under the federal housing voucher program.

These protections provided by VAWA and the Avoyelles Parish Police Jury are:

1. The Avoyelles Parish Police Jury will not deny assistance to any victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking if you are otherwise qualified to receive such assistance.
2. The Avoyelles Parish Police Jury will not terminate assistance to those who are currently receiving federal housing assistance solely on the basis of their status as a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking.

In summary, VAWA prevents housing agencies and owners from considering actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking as a cause for terminating the tenancy, occupancy, or program assistance of the victim. Such violence or stalking may not be considered

1. as a serious or repeated violation of the lease by the victim,
2. as other good cause for terminating the tenancy or occupancy rights of the victim, or
3. as criminal activity justifying the termination of the tenancy, occupancy rights, or program assistance of the victim.

If the perpetrator is a member of the victim's household, the Avoyelles Parish Police Jury has the authority to require the individual to leave the household as a condition of providing continued assistance to the remaining members of the family.

Limitations of VAWA:

The Avoyelles Parish Police Jury and owners retain the authority to terminate the tenancy, occupancy, or program assistance of a victim under either of the following conditions:

1. The termination is for a lease violation premised on something other than an act of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking against the victim and the Avoyelles Parish Police Jury or owner is holding the victim to a standard no more "demanding" than the standard to which other tenants are held.

2. The Avoyelles Parish Police Jury or owner can demonstrate an "actual and imminent threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to the property" if the tenancy, occupancy, or program assistance of victim is not terminated.

CERTIFICATION OF VICTIM STATUS:

VAWA gives the Avoyelles Parish Police Jury and owners the discretion to provide benefits to an individual based solely on the individual's statement or other corroborating evidence. However, the Act also permits the Avoyelles Parish Police Jury and the owner to request that victims attest to their status by signing a HUD-approved certification form. The form must meet the following standards:

1. It must require the individual signing it to certify that she or he is the victim of "bon a fide" incidents of actual or threaten domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, as defined and described in VAWA.
2. It must include the name of the perpetrator.
3. It must be provided within 14 business days.

VAWA provides the victim the alternative of providing the Avoyelles Parish Police Jury or the owner one of the following types of documentation:

1. A local police or court report
2. Documentation signed by a victim service provider, an attorney, or a medical professional from whom the victim has sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence or stalking. The signer must attest under penalty of perjury (a) that the abuse the victim has suffered is a bona fide incidence of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking and (b) that the victim has signed or approved the documentation. Failure on the part of the victim to provide certification within the allotted time voids the protections provided by VAWA.

Yes  No: Will the PHA's program have eligibility criteria for participation in its Section 8 Homeownership Option program in addition to HUD criteria?

If yes, list criteria: Any Section 8 program participant or applicant who has been issued a Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher may utilize the subsidy to purchase rather than rent a home, subject to the following requirements:

- 1) A family must meet the general requirements for admission to or continued participation in the APPJ Section 8 tenant-based program.
- 2) Current Section 8 program participants must be in full compliance with their lease and program requirements and must terminate their current lease arrangement in compliance with the lease.
- 3) A head of household or spouse that has previously defaulted on a mortgage obtained through the homeownership option is barred from participation.
- 4) Program participants and applicants must be "first-time homeowners," where a family member must not have owned title to a principal residence in the last three years. Residents of limited equity cooperatives are eligible for the homeownership option.
- 5) Participants in the Section 8 homeownership option must enroll in the Affordable Housing Resources' or other APPJ designee's pre- and post purchase homeownership counseling program and be deemed to be "mortgage ready" before a homeownership voucher will be issued. At a minimum, the counseling will cover the following:

  - Budgeting and money management;
  - Credit counseling;
  - How to negotiate the purchase price;
  - How to obtain homeownership financing;
  - How to find a home; and
  - Advantages of purchasing and how to locate a home in an area that does not have a high concentration of low-income families.
- 6) The head of household or spouse must be employed full-time and have been continuously so employed during the year before commencement of homeownership assistance. Families in which the head of household or spouse are disabled or elderly are exempted from this requirement. Families with a disabled household member may request an exemption as a reasonable accommodation.
- 7) The family's income must be equal to or exceed two times the payment standard for the family's unit size. Public assistance income may not be used for meeting this requirement, except for households in which the head or spouse is elderly or disabled and households that include a disabled person other than head or spouse. (Public Assistance includes federal housing assistance or the housing component of a welfare grant; TANF assistance; SSI that is subject to an income eligibility test; food stamps; general assistance or other assistance provided under a Federal, state or local program that provides assistance available to meet family living or housing expenses.)

- 8) The program will give priority to participants in APPJ's Family Self-Sufficiency Program or other welfare-to-work programs. Other qualified Section 8 participants may be considered as the capacity of the program permits.

c. What actions will the PHA undertake to implement the program this year (list)?

PHA currently has established a working relationship with local Rural Development Office and is sending out notices to all active tenants on it's Section 8 Program. Once interested tenants are identified a meeting will be scheduled to explain in detail what is expected of the tenants and how the program works.

3. Capacity of the PHA to Administer a Section 8 Homeownership Program:

- other (describe below:)
