Violence Against Women Act Amendments of 2005

The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) Amendments of 2005, requires the EDA to describe any goals, objectives, policies or programs that will enable the EDA to serve the needs of child and adult victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking. §ec. 603).

- The EDA supports the goals of the VAWA Amendments and will comply with its requirements
- The EDA will continue to administer its housing programs in ways that support that protect residents (including Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program participants) and applicants who may be victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking.
- The EDA will not take any adverse action against a resident/participant or applicant solely on the basis of her or his being a victim of such criminal activity, including threats of such activity. “Adverse action” in this context includes denial or termination of housing assistance.
- The EDA will not subject a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking to a more demanding standard for lease compliance than other residents.
- The EDA will develop policies and procedures as needed to implement the requirements of VAWA.
