This information collection is authorized by Section 511 of the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act, which added a new section 5A to the U.S. Housing Act of 1937 that introduced 5-year and annual PHA Plans. The full PHA plan provides a ready source for interested parties to locate basic PHA policies, rules, and requirements concerning the PHA's operations, programs, and services, and informs HUD, families served by the PHA, and members of the public of the PHA's mission and strategies for serving the needs of low-income and very low-income families. This form allows eligible PHAs to make a streamlined annual Plan submission to HUD consistent with HUD's efforts to provide regulatory relief for certain types of PHAs. Public reporting burden for this information collection is estimated to average 11.7 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. HUD may not collect this information and respondents are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

Component # 9

HOUSING & REDEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY OF WARREN VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT (VAWA) POLICY

I. Purpose and Applicability

The purpose of this policy (herein called “Policy”) is to implement the applicable provisions of the Violence Against Women and Department of Justice Reauthorization Act of 2005 (Pub. L. 109-162) and more generally to set forth HRA’s policies and procedures regarding domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking, as hereinafter defined.

The HRA notes and supports the statements of Congressional purpose set forth in VAWA including those listed below (paraphrased from the statute).

The purpose of this subtitle (Title VI, Housing Opportunities and Safety for Battered Women and Children) is to

- Reduce domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking; and protect victims of such criminal acts;
- Prevent homelessness caused by domestic violence;
- Create long-term housing solutions for victims of domestic violence;
- Build collaborations among victim service providers, homeless service providers, housing providers and housing agencies to address the housing needs of victims of domestic violence; and
- Enable public and assisted housing agencies, private landlords, private management companies and other housing providers and agencies to respond appropriately to domestic violence, while maintaining a safe environment for all housing residents.

II. Definitions

As used in this Policy:

A. Domestic Violence – The term ‘domestic violence’ includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabiting with or has cohabited with the victim as a spouse, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving grant monies, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction.”

B. Dating Violence – means violence committed by a person—

(A) who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and

(B) where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:

(i) The length of the relationship.

(ii) The type of relationship.

(iii) The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

C. Stalking – means –

(A) (i) to follow, pursue, or repeatedly commit acts with the intent to kill, injure, harass, or intimidate another person; and (ii) to place under surveillance with the intent to kill, injure, harass or intimidate another person; and

(B) in the course of, or as a result of, such following, pursuit, surveillance or repeatedly committed acts, to place a person in reasonable fear of the death of, or serious bodily injury to, or to cause substantial emotional harm to –

(i) that person;

(ii) a member of the immediate family of that person; or

(iii) the spouse or intimate partner of that person;

D. Immediate Family Member - means, with respect to a person –

(A) a spouse, parent, brother, sister, or child of that person, or an individual to whom that person stands in loco parentis; or

(B) any other person living in the household of that person and related to that person by blood or marriage.

E. Perpetrator – means person who commits an act of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking against a victim.

III. Protection of Victims

A. For the purpose of this policy, the term “domestic violence” encompasses acts or threats of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking, as those terms are defined in VAWA.

- B. VAWA protects qualified applicants or tenants and family members of applicants or tenants who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking violence from being denied, evicted or terminated from housing assistance based solely on criminal acts of domestic violence against them. Criminal acts of domestic violence shall not be considered “serious or repeated lease violations” by victims or “criminal activity” by the victim that is grounds for termination of the lease or of housing assistance.
- C. VAWA protections are available to both applicants for and recipients of housing assistance through the Public Housing program.
- D. VAWA protects both women and men who are victims of domestic violence.
- E. The protection provided by VAWA and this policy are to be observed and enforced by all HRA staff, individuals and agencies contracting with the HRA.
- F. VAWA does not limit the authority of the HRA, when notified, to honor court orders addressing rights of access to or control of the property, including civil protection orders issued to protect the victim and issued to address the distribution or possession of property among the household members in cases where a family breaks up.

IV. Admissions and Screening

A. Non-Denial of Assistance. HRA will not deny admission to public housing or to any person because that person is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, provided that such person is otherwise qualified for such admission.

B. Admissions Preference. Applicants for housing assistance from HRA will receive a preference in admissions by virtue of their status as victims of domestic violence [dating violence, stalking].

V. Termination of Tenancy or Assistance

A. VAWA Protections. Under VAWA, public housing residents have the following specific protections, which will be observed by HRA:

1. An incident or incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking will not be considered to be a “serious or repeated” violation of the lease by the victim or threatened victim of that violence and will not be good cause for terminating the tenancy or occupancy rights of or assistance to the victim of that violence.
2. In addition to the foregoing, tenancy or assistance will not be terminated by HRA as a result of criminal activity, if that criminal activity is directly related to domestic violence, dating violence or stalking engaged in by a member of the assisted household, a guest or another person under the tenant’s control, and the tenant or an immediate family member is the victim or threatened victim of this criminal activity. However, the protection against termination of tenancy or assistance described in this paragraph is subject to the following limitations:

- (a) Nothing contained in this paragraph shall limit any otherwise available authority of HRA or a Section 8 owner or manager to terminate tenancy, evict, or to terminate assistance, as the case may be, for any violation of a lease or program requirement not premised on the act or acts of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking in question against the tenant or a member of the tenant's household. However, in taking any such action, neither HRA nor a Section 8 manager or owner may apply a more demanding standard to the victim of domestic violence dating violence or stalking than that applied to other tenants.
- (b) Nothing contained in this paragraph shall be construed to limit the authority of HRA or a Section 8 owner or manager to evict or terminate from assistance any tenant or lawful applicant if the owner, manager or HRA, as the case may be, can demonstrate an actual and imminent threat to other tenants or to those employed at or providing service to the property, if the tenant is not evicted or terminated from assistance.

B. Removal of Perpetrator. Further, notwithstanding anything in paragraph VI.A.2. or Federal, State or local law to the contrary, HRA or a Section 8 owner or manager, as the case may be, may bifurcate a lease, or remove a household member from a lease, without regard to whether a household member is a signatory to a lease, in order to evict, remove, terminate occupancy rights, or terminate assistance to any individual who is a tenant or lawful occupant and who engages in acts of physical violence against family members or others. Such action against the perpetrator of such physical violence may be taken without evicting, removing, terminating assistance to, or otherwise penalizing the victim of such violence who is also the tenant or a lawful occupant. Such eviction, removal, termination of occupancy rights, or termination of assistance shall be effected in accordance with the procedures prescribed by law applicable to terminations of tenancy and evictions by HRA. Leases used for all public housing operated by HRA and, at the option of Section 8 owners or managers, leases for dwelling units occupied by families assisted with Section 8 rental assistance administered by HRA, shall contain provisions setting forth the substance of this paragraph.

VI. Certification

- A. HRA May Request Certification. If an applicant or public housing resident claims protection under VAWA against denial of an application, termination of tenancy or assistance, or other adverse action, the HRA may require the person who claims the VAWA protections to deliver a signed certification or other documentation concerning the incident or incidents. If the person does not deliver this certification within the time allowed, he or she will lose the legal protection under VAWA.
- B. Acceptable Forms of Certification. There are three ways to comply with a certification Request by the HRA.
 - i. Complete a certification form approved by HUD (Form HUD-50066 or approved form);

- ii. Provide a police report or court record;
 - iii. Provide a document signed by an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, or a medical professional, from whom the victim has sought assistance in addressing the domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.
- C. Self-Certification; Request for Additional Information. The HRA may accept self-certification by the person claiming to be a victim within the protection of VAWA. If the HRA has reason to believe the information provided in the certification is inaccurate certified or attested or incomplete in material respects, the HRA may request additional information, also certified or attested.
- D. Perjury. The certification must state that the victim and any other person signing it or documentation are doing so under penalty of perjury (28 U.S.C. 1746).
- E. Time limit. The applicant or public housing resident must deliver the certification in one of these three ways within 14 business days after receiving the housing authority's request for certification.

VII. Confidentiality

Information provided by an applicant, resident or participant about an incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking involving that person or a member of the household will be held by the HRA in confidence and not shared without the consent of the person who provided the information, except that this information may be disclosed in an eviction proceeding or otherwise as necessary to meet the requirements of law.

VIII. Notices:

The HRA will provide notices explaining the VAWA protections to applicants for housing assistance and to public housing residents.

IX. Leases; Bifurcation of Leases:

As required by VAWA, the public housing lease shall provide that the HRA may bifurcate a lease to remove a household member who engages in criminal acts of physical violence against family members or others.

The HRA will revise the public housing lease to include provisions required by VAWA. for the interim period before the new lease can be signed by all tenants, the HRA will provide a lease addendum applicable to all leases.

X. Rights of HRA to Evict or Terminate Assistance

A. Eviction for reasons other than domestic violence. VAWA specifically preserves the rights of the HRA to deny or terminate housing assistance to a victim of domestic violence for reasons other than the criminal activity related to the domestic violence, provided that no higher standard is applied.

B. Failure to Submit Certification After Request By HRA. If the person claiming to be a victim within the protection of VAWA fails to deliver the certification or other documentation within 14 business days after receiving the HRA's request, that person loses the legal protections under VAWA.

C. Imminent and Actual Threat. VAWA specifically preserves the rights of the HRA to evict or terminate from assistance any tenant or household member if the HRA can demonstrate an actual and imminent threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to the property if that tenant is not evicted or terminated from assistance.

XI. POLICY DISTRIBUTION AND TRAINING

This Policy will be included in the Admission and Occupancy Policies for the HRA. HRA staff will be informed of the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) Policy.
