This information collection is authorized by Section 511 of the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act, which added a new section 5A to the U.S. Housing Act of 1937 that introduced 5-year and annual PHA Plans. The full PHA plan provides a ready source for interested parties to locate basic PHA policies, rules, and requirements concerning the PHA's operations, programs, and services, and informs HUD, families served by the PHA, and members of the public of the PHA's mission and strategies for serving the needs of low-income and very low-income families. This form allows eligible PHAs to make a streamlined annual Plan submission to HUD consistent with HUD's efforts to provide regulatory relief for certain types of PHAs. Public reporting burden for this information collection is estimated to average 11.7 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. HUD may not collect this information and respondents are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

Privacy Act Notice. The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, Federal Housing Administration, is authorized to solicit the information requested in this form by virtue of Title 12, U.S. Code, Section 1701 et seq., and regulations promulgated thereunder at Title 12, Code of Federal Regulations. TO: All Public Housing Residents
FROM: Hutchinson HRA/Park Towers Management
SUBJECT: Notice Regarding the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA)

A new federal law protects public housing residents who are victims of “domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.” The law also applies to people who apply for public housing. Congress added these protections to a law called the “Violence Against Women Act”, or just “VAWA”.

The law says that the Public Housing Agency (PHA) or a private property owner cannot deny housing assistance or evict a tenant or an immediate member of the tenant’s family just because she or he is a victim or threatened victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. A person who commits those criminal acts can be denied housing assistance or evicted (and arrested).

The law does not affect the right or the responsibility of the PHA or a private property owner to otherwise enforce a lease and, if necessary, to terminate assistance or to evict a tenant for other lease violations that are not based on the act or acts of violence in question, as long as the same standards are used for all other tenants.

Public housing residents who want to learn more how the VAWA may affect them should contact your Housing Manager. You should also contact PHA staff if you are a victim of threats or actual domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. PHA staff can help you learn how to protect yourself and your family.
