Streamlined Annual Version

U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development
Office of Public and Indian
Housing

OMB No. 2577-0226
(exp. 08/31/2009)

This information collection is authorized by Section 511 of the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act, which added a new section 5A to the U.S. Housing Act of 1937 that introduced 5-year and annual PHA Plans. The full PHA plan provides a ready source for interested parties to locate basic PHA policies, rules, and requirements concerning the PHA's operations, programs, and services, and informs HUD, families served by the PHA, and members of the public of the PHA's mission and strategies for serving the needs of low-income and very low-income families. This form allows eligible PHAs to make a streamlined annual Plan submission to HUD consistent with HUD's efforts to provide regulatory relief for certain types of PHAs. Public reporting burden for this information collection is estimated to average 11.7 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. HUD may not collect this information and respondents are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

Privacy Act Notice. The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, Federal Housing Administration, is authorized to solicit the information requested in this form by virtue of Title 12, U.S. Code, Section 1701 et seq., and regulations promulgated thereunder at Title 12, Code of Federal Regulations. Information in PHA plans is publicly available.

7. Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) Statement

- 1. Activities, services or programs provided or offered by an agency, either directly or in partnership with other service providers, to child or adult victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

The Faribault HRA doesn't offer services, programs or activities, but referrals are made to local shelters and domestic violence victim advocacy groups if domestic violence is suspected.

- 2. Any activities, services, or programs provided or offered that helps child or adult victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to obtain or maintain housing.

The Faribault HRA has implemented the requirements of the VAWA into its' Administrative Policy, which allows victims of domestic violence to be admitted to, or remain in public housing if they meet the requirements of the law.

- 3. Any activities, services, or programs provided or offered to prevent domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking, or to enhance victim safety in assisted families.

The Faribault HRA doesn't offer services, programs or activities, but referrals are made to local shelters and domestic violence victim advocacy groups if domestic violence is suspected.

After the passage of the VAWA in 2006, the Faribault HRA notified all participants and landlords of the new law and its' impacts and requirements, both in writing and at a resident meeting. This information has also been distributed in a newsletter the HRA periodically sends out.
