Executive Summary

The Johnston Housing Authority continues to work towards its mission of helping families and individuals with obtaining safe, decent, and affordable housing. We will concentrate our efforts in the upcoming year on implementing homeownership programs for both Public Housing and the Housing Choice Voucher Programs. The Johnston Housing Authority's views on homeownership support those of HUD. We consider homeownership a means to increase the wealth of families and provide more family stability. It allows families to become vested in their community. All of which are positive outcomes for both the individual families and for the community as a whole.

The Johnston Housing Authority has made excellent strides in the past few years by improving the efficiency and effectiveness of our operation. We purchased new computer hardware and software systems that will help us operate more effectively and efficiently and better serve our clients. We also are constantly reviewing our existing policies and procedures in an effort to provide the best service possible to the residents who participate in our programs.

During 2008 we will continue to maintain and renovate our properties as necessary. Our Capital Fund money has been reduced at a time when some of our properties are in need of major repairs and renovations. Due to this decrease in funding, we must continue to explore creative ways to meet the needs of our residents and properties.

In addition to the Energy Aggregation Project that JHA was part of, we continually we continually are exploring new ways to conserve energy for our agency. Our energy goals include, but are not limited to replacing old leaky windows, greater attic insulation, water saver facets and shower heads, and using energy efficient lighting. We at the JHA are very concerned about the environment. Beginning in 2008 we plan to go green. We are currently researching programs that include; recycling, buying energy efficient appliances, workshops with tenants to set thermostats correctly, turn lights off, and ride sharing. We plan to find creative and practical solutions to protect the environment for the next generation.

The Johnston Housing Authority will assist extremely low, very low, and low income families throughout the Town of Johnston to obtain decent and affordable housing by maintaining the waiting lists for its tenant-based assistance and public housing programs. We will continue to issue vouchers and fill vacancies in public housing units in an efficient and effective manner in order to maximize the use of all federal resources.

The JHA plans to market the programs that we provide through a web-page, posters, flyers, and newsletters to better the image of public housing and increase awareness and make our services more accessible.

Johnston Housing Authority PHA Agency Plan for PHA FY2008

Violence against Women Act Amendments of 2005

The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) Amendments of 2005, requires the PHA to describe any goals, objectives, policies or programs that will enable the PHA to serve the needs of child and adult victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking. Title VI, Sec. 603).

The Johnston Housing Authority supports the goals of the VAWA Amendments and will comply with its requirements.

The Johnston Housing Authority will continue to administer its housing programs in ways that support and protect residents (including Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher program participants) and applicants who may be victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking.

The Johnston Housing Authority will not take any adverse action against a resident/participant or applicant solely on the basis of her or his being a victim of such criminal activity, including threats of such activity. "Adverse action" in this context includes denial or termination of housing assistance.

The Johnston Housing Authority will not subject a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking to a more demanding standard for lease compliance than other residents.

The Johnston Housing Authority will continue to develop policies and procedures as needed to implement the requirements of VAWA, and will collaborate with other agencies to prevent and respond to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking, as those criminal activities may affect applicants for and participants in the PHA's housing programs.

The Johnston Housing Authority will provide notices explaining the VAWA protections to applicants for housing assistance (both Section 8 Housing Choice Vouchers and Public Housing), to public housing residents and Section 8 voucher participants, and to property owners participating in the voucher program.

Adopted by the JHA Board of Commissioners on August 23, 2007

Johnston Housing Authority
VAWA notification and certification form

NOTICE TO FEDERAL PUBLIC HOUSING & HOUSING CHOICE VOUCHER PROGRAM LANDLORDS, OWNERS, MANAGERS, RESIDENTS and APPLICANTS REGARDING VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT

The Congress of the United States passed the Violence against Women (VAWA) and Department of Justice Reauthorization Act of 2005, and President Bush signed the law in January 2006. This law affects the resident selection, lease provisions that deal with termination and eviction, the termination of assistance or eviction provisions in the HAP contract, the Tenancy Addendum, and the housing authority's relationship with the resident. Therefore, the legal relationships between the JHA, Owners, Applicants and Residents, are changed as set out below. The JHA does not give legal advice to owners, applicants, or residents (program participants should consult an attorney with questions).

Selection of participants and tenants: The fact that an applicant for program assistance or a lease applicant is or has been the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking is not an appropriate basis for denial of program assistance, or denial of admission to the program if they are otherwise qualified.

Lease terms; An incident or incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking may not be construed as a serious or repeated violation of the lease by the victim or threatened victim of that violence and shall not be good cause for terminating the assistance, tenancy or occupancy rights of the victim of such violence.

Termination of Assistance/Eviction: Criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking engaged in by a member of the tenant's household or any guest or other person under the tenant's control shall not be the cause for termination of tenancy occupancy rights if the tenant or an immediate member of the tenant's family is the victim or threatened victim of that domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking.

The JHA may terminate assistance and/or the landlord/owner may bifurcate the lease to terminate assistance to remove a lawful occupant or tenant who engages in criminal acts of violence to family members or others without terminating the assistance or evicting of victimized lawful occupants.

The JHA and /or a landlord//owner may honor court orders regarding rights of access or control of the property. Nothing limits the JHA or a landlord or owner from terminating assistance or evicting for other good cause unrelated to the incident or incidents of domestic violence, provided that the victim is not subject to a "more demanding standard" than nonvictims. Nothing prohibits the termination of assistance or eviction if the JHA or owner or landlord can demonstrate an actual and imminent threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to the property if that tenant's assistance is not terminated or if that tenant is not evicted. Any other federal state or local laws that provide greater protections to victims of domestic violence dating violence, or stalking are not superseded by these provisions.

The JHA and/or an owner/landlord may require certification of the individual or his or her status as a victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking in order to qualify for the protections implemented in the statute. Such certifications must be maintained confidentially. The landlord/owner is not required to demand a certification from the resident, however, If the Housing Authority terminates assistance, a resident who claims that the termination is brought because of criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence or stalking, must provide a written certification to the JHA that they are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, and that the incident or incidents which are the subject of the termination of assistance are bona fide incidents of actual or threatened abuse.

This written certification must be provided within 14 business days after the JHA requests the certification in writing. For JHA purposes, the date of the request shall be the date of the termination of assistance letter. If the landlord/owner requires a certification, they shall inform the resident of the date the response must be returned, which shall not be less than 14 business days from the day the certification is requested by the landlord/owner. The landlord/owner shall state in its correspondence with the tenant when the time for providing the certification begins to run.

The certification form shall be retained in confidence, shall not be entered into a shared data base, and shall not be provided to a related entity unless the tenant consents in writing, the information is required for use in eviction proceedings, or its use is otherwise required by law.

Copies of form HUD-50066 "Certification of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence or Stalking" are available at the JHA Office at 8 Forand Circle, Johnston, Rhode Island 02919
