Go Section 8 is also another means of attracting owners and managers, since it offers them a free listing service, and the data on the site provides us information to use in our rent reasonableness determinations.

The Arlington County Section 8 Housing Program will continue to assist victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. These services will be provided either directly form the Arlington County Human Services or in cooperation with other service providers, to such victims.

The Arlington County Section 8 Housing Program will continue to assist evacuees from hurricane-devastated areas. The Program has volunteered to administer Disaster Voucher Program (DVP) assistance; one DVP client has leased up so far and another has submitted an RFTA for April 5. Arlington County Section 8 has also shared its expertise with the County Department of Community Planning, Housing, & Development, which is funding Tenant-Based Rental Assistance (TBRA) vouchers for nine families of evacuees.

The Arlington County Section 8 Housing Program will continue to work to ensure accessible housing to persons with all varieties of disabilities through such efforts as Supportive Housing project-based vouchers, which are set aside for families in which one adult, or the only member, has a physical, sensory, cognitive, and/or mental disability, and works with a case manager to be successful in housing. The Program also administers vouchers for the Milestones program (targeted to homeless persons with serious mental illness and/or dually diagnosed individuals). As part of our reach-out efforts in specialized housing programs we have a number of vouchers in our HOPWA housing program.

The Narratives also mention two programs administered by Section 8: Milestones, which serves homeless persons with serious mental illness and/or dual diagnoses; and the supportive housing project-based vouchers mentioned earlier in this Plan. The Consolidated Plan commits to supporting the project-based units with other Arlington County Government funding in the event of any delay starting the supportive housing vouchers.

D. Other Information Required by HUD

Use this section to provide any additional information requested by HUD.

SEMAP scoring: “Strive to comply with scoring requirements set forth by HUD. Meet or exceed required scoring levels.”

Results: The Arlington County Section 8 Housing Program had been a High Performer for each of the previous three years. Our score for the year ending 6/30/2006 was 135 out of 145 points.

“Apply for additional rental vouchers: (100 over next five years)”

Results: The Section 8 Program applied for additional vouchers when possible, including an application for 50 Mainstream slots in 2003 and an application for Rent for Success vouchers in 2001.

“Ensure that all units meet Housing Quality Standards and families pay fair and reasonable rents.”

Results: Compliance with HQS requirements and rent reasonableness determinations are excellent and part of the reason this program had been rated a High Performer.

“Provide voucher mobility counseling.”

Results: New intakes are provided information on portability at the briefings; they are also provided lists of affordable units outside of Arlington County as well as inside our jurisdiction.

“Conduct outreach efforts to potential voucher landlords.”

Results: Numerous outreach activities have been staged, both at the Section 8 offices and at outside events for landlords and other support servicers.

“Increase voucher payment standards (according to market needs)”

Results: The Section 8 Program has set nearly all Payment Standards higher than the Fair Market Rent (FMR) levels over the past five years. The Program has applied for, and been granted, exception rent areas several times in the past five years to increase Payment Standards above 110% of FMR in order to allow clients to rent in more expensive neighborhoods of Arlington County. These neighborhoods often have better access to public transportation—especially the subway system; higher-ranked schools; and better access to employment opportunities. We continue to review payment standards and the creation of exception rent areas as feasible.

“Undertake affirmative measures to ensure access to assisted housing regardless of race, color, religion national origin, sex, familial status, and disability.”

And:

“Promote fair housing and the opportunity for all Section 8 families of all ethnic backgrounds to experience freedom of housing choice.”

Results: The Section 8 Program publishes public notices in languages other than English and in newspapers aimed at various ethnicities. Announcements are also sent directly to dozens of nonprofits serving area residents, including organizations dealing primarily with African American, Latino, Vietnamese, Somali, and Ethiopian populations. Documents are available in languages other than English, and staff makes frequent use of the Language Line translation service. The Section 8 staff itself includes members who speak Spanish, Urdu, and Farsi; those fluent in Spanish who use their bilingual abilities on the job now receive premium pay per County policy.
