The identification of housing needs must address issues of affordability, supply, quality, accessibility, size of units, and location. There is a great unmet need for housing in Sonoma County which is detailed in the two Consolidated Plans covering the jurisdiction of the PHA. These needs are identified by income, family type and specific housing problems. The PHA and the Consolidated Planners of the jurisdiction work as partners to identify and address the housing needs of the low-income residents of Sonoma County. 1. The Sonoma County Consolidated Plan 2005 establishes three core goals, one of which is to increase the housing stock that is affordable, accessible and available to residents of Sonoma County with household incomes below 80% of median area income. One of the six specific objectives under this goal is to provide tenant-based rental subsidies to make market rate housing units affordable. Each year, 45% of the County's HOME funds are allocated to the Sonoma County Housing Authority's Tenant-Based Rental Assistance Program. Activities to be undertaken by the PHA in the coming year are consistent with the initiatives contained in the Sonoma County Consolidated Plan which include providing decent, affordable housing for low-income persons and expanding economic opportunities for low-income persons. The Sonoma County Consolidated Plan identifies a need for housing for 5,757 renter households that are extremely low-income (between 0% and 30% of median family income (MFI) and 5,399 renter households that are low-income (between 30% and 50% of MFI). 2. The Consolidated Plan for the City of Petaluma states that the following activities to be undertaken by the PHA in the coming year are consistent with the initiatives contained in the Consolidated Plan. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i. Providing housing opportunities for person of all economic levels</li> <li>ii. Cooperate with agencies providing shelter for the homeless and those in crisis</li> </ul> The City of Petaluma Consolidated Planners stress the importance of the PHA's rental subsidies which provide affordable housing to low-income residents of Petaluma. 3. The Sonoma County Housing Authority Housing Choice Voucher waiting list remains open and there are currently 9,277 applicants on the active list. 3,375 of these live or work in the jurisdiction of the PHA. 80% of the applicants are extremely low income and 20% are very low income. 47% are families with children, 13% are elderly families, and 37% are families with disabilities.

Resident Advisory Board/Community Development Committee Comments:

At their February 10, 2009 meeting, the Community Development Committee (Committee) reviewed the Sonoma County Housing Authority's (SCHA) Draft PHA Plan for FY 2009-2010.

During the Committee's discussion of the Draft PHA Plan, a question was asked about the SCHA's Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) waiting list and its preferences, including those for veterans. A comment was by a Committee member about the Sonoma Valley Veterans organization. The Committee member stated he would have that group contact the SCHA.

A question was asked by a Committee member about the number of people on the waiting list and how long it was anticipated that it would take for them to be assisted.

A question was asked by a Committee member about whether the HCV program was operating at capacity.

A question was asked by a Committee member about reasons for termination of HCV participants.

After discussion, the Committee voted to approve recommend approval of the Draft Annual PHA Plan for FY 2009 -2010 to the Board of Commissioners.

The SCHA has analyzed the comments and questions from the Committee. The SCHA has decided to continue with the same waiting list preferences at this time, will continue to keep its waiting list open, and will continue its current termination process.
