VAWA policy

1. The CHA may not seek to evict, terminate the tenancy of, or terminate the Section 8 subsidy of a victim of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking [as defined below but hereafter collectively referred to as “domestic violence”] because of the actions of the abuser. In appropriate circumstances where the CHA may otherwise have grounds to evict the household, or terminate the household’s Section 8 subsidy, the CHA may seek to remove or evict the abuser, through court process or with the consent of the victim (regardless of who is designated as head of household on the lease).
2. The CHA shall not terminate participation in the Section 8 program because the family leaves a contract unit due to domestic violence, whether or not the family provided any termination notice to the CHA or owner and whether or not the lease was otherwise terminated.
3. For Section 8 and public housing tenancies, where property damage is caused by an abuser, the CHA shall not seek to terminate the Section 8 subsidy or evict from public housing the victim of domestic violence. Additionally, in such circumstances, the CHA may not charge the victim for the property damage, but instead may seek recovery from the abuser.
4. Where nonpayment of rent or other charges due the CHA is caused by the abuser, and where the victim of domestic violence removes said abuser from the lease, the CHA shall offer the remaining household members a reasonable repayment plan (without charging late fees or costs) and shall not evict the remaining household members for such nonpayment so long as they substantially comply with said plan.
5. The CHA may offer public housing and Section 8 tenants an immediate transfer where moving would allow the family to escape or remain free from actual or threatened domestic violence. Said transfer offer may include providing the next available housing choice voucher, providing a public housing unit, and/or developing reciprocity arrangements with another PHA to facilitate the person’s relocation.
6. The CHA may not deny admission to public housing or Section 8 programs because the applicant or member of the applicant’s family are or were victims of domestic violence. Where the CHA receives adverse information about an applicant/household member and is aware that domestic violence might be involved, the CHA shall determine whether there is a substantial connection between the adverse information and the fact that the applicant/household member is a victim of domestic violence. If the CHA determines that there is such a connection, then the CHA shall disregard the adverse information (provided that the abuser will not be part of the applicant’s household).

A substantial connection includes, but is not limited to, where a victim loses financial support (e.g. her job or abuser’s wages) due to domestic violence and is evicted

(or receives a negative landlord reference) for late or nonpayment of rent; where a victim is evicted or receives a negative landlord reference due to property damage and/or noise or other interference with neighbors caused by the abuser; and where a victim receives a negative landlord reference for breaking a lease prior to its expiration due to domestic violence.

7. All information obtained by the CHA relative to the incidents of abuse CHA shall be retained by the CHA in confidence, shall not be entered into any CHA shared database, and shall not be provided to any person or entity except to the extent that disclosure is authorized in writing by the victim (or victim's caretaker), required for use in an eviction, or otherwise provided by applicable law.

8 A copy of this policy CHA shall be distributed to all existing public housing tenants and Section 8 tenants within a reasonable time after its adoption and, thereafter, shall be distributed to applicants at the final briefing prior to admission to the Section 8 or public housing programs. It shall also be posted at the CHA's offices and made available to anyone upon request.

9. For the purpose of this policy, the following definitions apply:

1. Domestic Violence: The term "domestic violence" includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse of the victim, by a person with whom the victim CHA shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabiting with or has cohabited with the victim as a spouse, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of a victim under the state's domestic or family violence laws, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the state's domestic or family violence laws.

2. Dating Violence: The term "dating violence" means violence committed by a person

(A) who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and

(B) where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:

- (i) the length of the relationship;
- (ii) the type of relationship;
- (iii) the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

3. Stalking: The term “stalking” means

(A) (i) to follow, pursue, or repeatedly commit acts with the intent to kill, injure, harass, or intimidate another person; and (ii) to place under surveillance with the intent to kill, injure, harass, or intimidate another person; and

(B) in the course of, or as a result of, such following, pursuit, surveillance, or repeatedly committed acts, to place a person in reasonable fear of the death of, or serious bodily injury to, or cause substantial emotional harm to –

(i) that person;

(ii) a member of the immediate family of that person; or

(iii) the spouse or intimate partner of that person
