PLYMOUTH HOUSING COMMISSION

AGENCY PLAN MEETING RESIDENT ADVISORY BOARD JUNE 23, 2009

Board members were asked to sign in and attendance was recorded (see attached). The meeting was called to order at 5:45 pm.

All participants were given an outline of the Agency Plan with a Comments & Suggestions sheet. Sharon Thomas reviewed the outline as presented. Participants were encouraged to write down their comments or suggestions and return them to the office.

During the review, the following issues were discussed:

- Cindy Rapson, Executive Director, gave an overview of the programs that Plymouth Housing administers and discussed the goals and achievements of those programs.
- Cindy Rapson discussed the improvements and energy saving programs we will be implementing with the stimulus money we are receiving.
- The Capital Fund budget 5 year plan was discussed, noting improvements that will be made. Dorothea Ross asked if it would be possible to purchase new tables and chairs for the community room. We told the board that was in our 5 year plan.
- Annette Stutrud discussed issues relating to our public housing building – Tonquish Creek Manor. The general agreement among the residents in attendance was that they were very happy with our building and staff. They individually listed items they would like to see in their own apartments, i.e. semi-gloss paint in the kitchens and bathrooms, and they had suggestions for energy saving measures for the building. Each resident also said they were very grateful that the Plymouth Housing Commission kept safety and security as top priority at Tonquish Creek Manor.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:00 pm.
