Creighton Housing Authority

VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN POLICY (VAWA)

Adopted by Board Resolution #1-2008

February 19th, 2008

The purpose of the Violence Against Women Policy is to provide guidelines and procedures to all applicants and tenants of the Creighton Housing Authority (CHA) regarding the protection provided by the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2005 (VAWA). This policy will be the guidelines followed by the Creighton Housing Authority in determining if an applicant/tenant is eligible for protection under the VAWA.

Reporting incidents of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking to law enforcement, victim's rights advocates, and the CHA may help preserve your housing rights. The CHA may not deny, remove, or terminate assistance to a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking based solely on such an incident or threat. The CHA may deny, remove, or terminate assistance to an individual perpetrator of such actions and continue to allow the victim or other household members to remain in the dwelling unit. This does not limit the authority of the CHA to terminate your assistance for other criminal activity or good cause. Such eviction or removal of occupancy rights shall be effected in accordance with the procedures prescribed by Federal, State, and local law.

Nothing in this Section:

limits the Authority from honoring court orders addressing rights of access or control of the property, including civil protection orders issued to protect the victim and issued to address the distribution or possession of property among the household members in cases where a family breaks up;

limits the Authority from evicting a tenant for any violation not premised on the act or acts of violence in question against the tenant or a member of the tenant's household, provided that the Authority does not subject an individual who is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking to a more demanding standard than other tenants in determining whether to evict; limits the Authority to terminate the tenancy of any tenant if the Authority can demonstrate an actual and imminent threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to the property if that tenant is not evicted;

Supercedes any provision of any Federal, State, or local law that provides greater protection than this section for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking.

All information the Authority may request to confirm domestic violence, dating violence or stalking victim status, pursuant to Federal law, shall be retained in confidence by the Authority, and shall neither be entered into any shared database nor provided to any related entity, except to the extent that disclosure is:

- Requested or consented to by the individual in writing;
- Required for use in an eviction proceeding; or
- Otherwise required by applicable law

In order for the tenant/applicant to be afforded the protection under the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2005 (VAWA) they must certify to the actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking incident(s) within 14 days of the request. This must be done by completing, signing, and submitting HUD-50066.

On HUD-50066, the tenant/applicant must certify that they are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, that the incident(s) is bona fide and provide the name of the perpetrator. The tenant/applicant must provide the Creighton Housing Authority with a Federal, State or local police record, or court record, or documentation signed and attested to by an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, or a medical professional that the victim has sought assistance from.

For the purposes of this Policy, the following definitions apply:

"domestic violence" includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitation with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under domestic or family violence laws, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws;

"dating violence" is defined as violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of the relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship;

"stalking" is defined as following, pursuing, or repeatedly committing acts with the intent to kill, injure, harass, or intimidate another person; or placing under surveillance with the intent to kill, injure, harass, or intimidate another person; and, in the course of, or as a result of, such following, pursuit, surveillance, or repeatedly committed acts, placing a person in reasonable fear of the death of, or serious bodily injury to, or causing substantial emotional harm to that person; a member of the immediate family of that person; or the spouse or intimate partner of that person.

"Immediate family member", with respect to a person, is identified as a spouse, parent, brother or sister, or child of that person, or an individual to whom that person stands in loco parentis; or any other person living in the household of that person and related to that person by blood or marriage.
