Housing Needs. Based on information provided by the applicable Consolidated Plan, information provided by HUD, and other generally available data, make a reasonable effort to identify the housing needs of the low-income, very low-income, and extremely low-income families who reside in the jurisdiction served by the PHA, including elderly families, families with disabilities, and households of various races and ethnic groups, and other families who are on the public housing and Section 8 tenant-based assistance waiting lists. The identification of housing needs must address issues of affordability, supply, quality, accessibility, size of units, and location.

The need for affordable housing is especially great in NYC. 85% of the families on our waitlist are less than or equal to 30% AMI. The chart below illustrates the housing needs of families in our jurisdiction. The overall column reflects the number of renter families in our jurisdiction that have housing needs in each category. For each of the remaining characteristics, the impact of the factor on housing needs for each family type indicated is ranked from 1 to 5, with 1 being "no impact" and "5" being "severe impact". The chart below correctly identifies the need in our jurisdiction to have quality, affordable housing.

JUNE 26, 2008 RESIDENT ADVISORY BOARD MEETING
COMMENTS ON THE 2009 AGENCY PLAN AND HPD'S RESPONSES

Attendance:

New York City Housing Preservation and Development: Alexandra Warren
Ja' Net Del Valle

Resident Advisory Board (RAB) members: Catheline Bradley, Crecencia Latimer, Deidre Short, Juana Torres, Geraldine Waters, Gerard Adams, and Dailea Miller.

RAB member comment: It's difficult to move right now with an HPD Voucher. The real estate agencies say it takes longer because landlords don't want to deal with Section 8 payments and HQS inspections.

HPD has improved its Section 8 payment process over the year, to further encourage the acceptance of Section 8 in NYC's tight housing market. In addition, HPD has recently completed revised procedures to help expedite HQS inspections, including allowing landlords to self-certify the corrections of non-emergency failure items that have been deemed the landlord's responsibility fix during an annual inspection. This new policy will free up inspectors time so that they can conduct more initial and vacant apartment inspection and tenants will not have to worry about staying home for a follow-up inspection.

RAB member comment: I like that change. I don't like staying at home for inspections

HPD response: We hope this new policy will be well received by everyone.

RAB member comment: As an FSS member, I don't feel well informed. I am about to graduate, but I don't know who is going to help me follow up. I don't even know how much I have in my account.

HPD response: For FSS related questions, you should contact the program coordinator Nicole Levin. She will be able to tell you information about your contract term, escrow balance and put you in contact with your case manager.

RAB member comment: I'm interested in the homeownership program, how does it work and who can I talk to?

HPD response. You should contact Nicole Levin who oversees that program here and who can also answer questions about FSS (Nicole Levin's phone number was given out to RAB members at the end of the meeting).
