9.0	Housing Needs. The City of Brush has determined that a large majority of the population would be considered in the low to very low-income range. The Authority's waiting list for low-income family units is quite extensive. There is also a 2 year waiting list for persons waiting to receive the coice vouchers. The local population also consists of a large number of elderly or pre-elderly. The City is noted for its for its several assistant living centers, and the centers seem to remain full at all times. The housing available for low-income families is low for this area. Elerly housing seems to be able to accommodate the demand.
