4. Operation and Management

Flagler County Housing Authority employs an in-house maintenance staff which is responsible for maintaining the Authority’s housing inventory. Each resident is given a phone number to call when they need something in their apartment repaired. It is the maintenance staff goal to repair all work orders in a timely manner. In addition to repairs, the maintenance staff also performs preventative maintenance on the Authority systems to keep them in good condition and cut down on repair costs.

Specific policies have been adopted by the Board of Commissioners to help the FCHA’s employees operate the Authority in an efficient and consistent manner. The list below includes some of the major policies that are in use:

- Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy for PH
- Administrative Plan for HCV
- Maintenance Policy
- Grievance Procedure
- Pet Policy
- Personnel Policy
- One Strike Policy
- Procurement Policy
- Community Service Policy

5. Grievance Procedures

The Housing Authority has developed and adopted a Grievance Procedure for the Public Housing Program. This procedure provides a forum and procedure for residents to seek the just, effective and efficient settlement of grievances against the Flagler County Housing Authority (FCHA or the HA).

The Housing Authority has also adopted an informal review procedure for Housing Choice Voucher Program applicants who have been determined by the Housing Authority not to meet the preference definition, or if they have been determined by the Housing Authority to be ineligible for participation.

The Housing Authority has adopted an informal hearings procedure for HCV participants who have been determined to be ineligible for continued assistance. An informal hearing is accorded to participants in the following cases:

- a. A decision to deny or terminate assistance on behalf of the participant;
- b. A determination that a participant family is residing in a unit with a larger number of bedrooms than appropriate under the Housing Authority's occupancy standards; or

As an ongoing process, the Housing Authority has entered into a cooperative agreement with the TANF Agency, to share information and/or target supportive services. The Authority will coordinate its efforts with client referrals, information sharing regarding mutual clients and jointly administer programs.

Coordination Efforts

Information Sharing of Mutual Clients
Coordinate the provision of specific social and self-sufficiency services and programs to eligible families
Jointly administer programs

8. Safety and Crime Prevention

Housing Authority management is very concerned with the safety of public housing residents and helping them to feel safe in their apartments.

While the Housing Authority has its share of crime-related issues, there does not seem to be major safety problem at any of the developments. Unfortunately, a majority of the crime issues come from non-residents visiting the properties. When a non-resident is caught on Authority property breaking the law, they are banned.

The Authority employs Security Officers which investigate tenant complaints related to safety and also assist the Flagler County Police Department during arrests.

9. Pets

Following HUD regulations, the Housing Authority allows public housing residents to maintain pets. A Pet Policy describing which types of pets are allowed and the rules and regulations for maintaining a pet has been adopted by the Board of Commissioners. As required by HUD, the Authority has converted to Asset Management. All properties have been grouped into Asset Management Properties (AMPs). Each AMP is managed as if it is a separate entity. Because the revenue and expenses are separated, management can see which AMPs are not performing as expected. Once the lagging AMPs are uncovered, remedies to get them on track can be determined.

13. Violence Against Women Act

The Flagler County Housing Authority is striving to fully comply with all requirements of the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA).

First, the Authority will not deny admission to an applicant who has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking. The applicant must comply with all other admission requirements.

Also, the Authority will not terminate the assistance to a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking based solely on an incident or threat of such activity. The Authority still retains the right to terminate assistance for other criminal activity or good cause.

All information provided by an applicant or tenant regarding VAWA will be held in strict confidence and will not be shared with any other parties, unless required by law.

The Housing Authority has also established an admissions preference for victims of domestic violence. This preference allows a victim of domestic violence to move to the top of the waiting list for housing. The applicant has to meet all other eligibility criteria.

To make sure all applicants are aware of the Violence Against Women Act, the Housing Authority notifies all applicants of the information included in the Act during the application process.
