Tabor Low Rent Housing Agency

Policy Implementing the Violence Against Women's Act (VAWA)

Title VI of the VAWA adds a new housing provision that establishes several categories of protected individuals. Under the law victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking are granted protections and cannot be denied or terminated from housing or housing assistance because of activity that is directly related to domestic violence.

1.0 Purpose

The purpose of this Policy is to reduce domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking and to prevent homelessness by:

- (a) protecting the safety of victims;
- (b) creating long-term housing solutions for victims;
- (c) building collaborations among victim service providers; and
- (d) assisting TLRHA to respond appropriately to the violence while maintaining a safe environment for TLRHA, employees, tenants, applicants, Section 8 participants, program participants and others.

The policy will assist the Tabor Low Rent Housing Agency (TLRHA) in proving rights under the Violence Against Women Act to its applicants, and public housing residents.

This Policy is incorporated into TLRHA's "Statement of Policies Governing Admission and Continuing Occupancy of Low Rent Housing".

2.0 Definitions

The definitions in this Section apply only to this Policy.

2.1 Confidentiality: Means that TLRHA will not enter information provided to TLRHA by a victim alleging domestic violence into a shared database or provide this information to any related entity except as stated in 3.4

2.7 Bona Fide Claim: A bona fide claim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking must include incidents that meet the terms and conditions in the above definitions.

3.0 Certification and Confidentiality

3.1 Failure to Provide Certification Under 3.2 and 3.3

The person claiming protection under VAWA shall provide complete and accurate certifications to TLRHA owner or manager within 14 business days after the party requests in writing that the person completes the certifications. If the person does not provide a complete and accurate certification within the 14 business days, TLRHA, owner or manager may take action to deny or terminate participation or tenancy.

3.2 HUD Approved Certification

For each incident that a person is claiming as abuse, the person shall certify to TLRHA, owner or manager their victim status by completing a HUD approved certification form. The person shall certify the date, time and description of the incidents, that the incidents are bona fide incidents of actual or threatened abuses and meet the requirements of VAWA and this Policy. The person shall provide information to identify the perpetrator including but not limited to the name and, if known, all alias names, date of birth, address, contract information such as a postal, e-mail or internet address, telephone or facsimile number or other identification.

3.3 Other Certifications

A person who is claiming victim status shall provide to TLRHA, an owner or manager:

- (a) documentation signed by the victim and an employee, agent or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, or a medical professional from whom the victim has sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence or stalking or the effects of the abuse, in which the professional attests under penalty of perjury the professional's belief that the incident(s) in question are bona fide incidents of abuse; or
- (b) a federal, state, tribal, territorial, local police or court record.

3.4 Confidentiality

TLRHA, the owner and managers shall keep all information provided to TLRHA under this Section confidential. TLRHA, owner and manager shall not enter the information into a shared database or provide to any related entity except to the extent that:

- (a) the victim requests or consents to the disclosure in writing;
- (b) the disclosure is required for:
  - (i) eviction from public housing;
  - (ii) termination of Section 8 assistance; or
- (c) the disclosure is required by applicable law.

4.0 Appropriate Basis for Denial of Admission, Assistance or Tenancy

4.1 TLRHA shall not deny participation or admission to a program on the basis of a person's abuse status, if the person otherwise qualifies for admission of assistance.

4.2 An incident or incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking will not be a serious or repeated violation of the lease by the victim and shall not be good cause for denying to a victim admission to a program, terminating Section 8 assistance or occupancy rights, or evicting a tenant.

4.3 Criminal activity directly related to domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking engaged in by a member of a tenant's household or any guest or other person under the tenant's control shall not be cause for termination of assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights if the tenant or an immediate member of the tenant's family is the victim of that domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.

4.4 Notwithstanding Sections 4.1, 4.2, and 4.3, TLRHA, an owner or manager may bifurcate a lease to evict, remove or terminate assistance to any individual who is a tenant or lawful occupant and who engages in criminal acts of physical violence against family members or others without evicting, removing, terminating assistance to or otherwise penalizing the victim of the violence who is also a tenant or lawful occupant.

4.5 Nothing in Sections 4.1, 4.2, and 4.3 shall limit the authority of TLRHA, an owner or manager, when notified, to honor court orders addressing rights of access to or control of the property, including civil protection orders issued to protect the victim and issued to address the distribution or possession of property among the household members when the family breaks up.

4.6 Nothing in Sections 4.1, 4.2 and 4.3 limits TLRHA, an owner or manager's authority to evict or terminate assistance to any tenant for any violation of lease not premised on the act or acts of violence against the tenant or a member of the tenant's household. However TLRHA, owner or manager may not hold a victim to a more demanding standard.

4.7 Nothing in Sections 4.1, 4.2, or 4.3 limits TLRHA, an owner or manager's authority to evict or terminate assistance, or deny admission to a program if the TLRHA, owner or manager can show an actual and imminent threat to other tenants, neighbors, guests, their employees, persons providing service to the property or others if the tenant family is not evicted or terminated from assistance or denied admission.

4.8 Nothing in Sections 4.1, 4.2, or 4.3 limits TLRHA, an owner or manager's authority to deny admission, terminate assistance or evict a person who engages in criminal acts including but not limited to acts of physical violence or stalking against family members or others.

4.9 A Section 8 recipient who moves out of an assisted dwelling unit to protect their health or safety and who: (a) is a victim under this Policy; (b) reasonably believes he or she was imminently threatened by harm from further violence if he or she remains in the unit; and (c) has complied with all other obligations of the Section 8 program may receive a voucher and move to another Section 8 jurisdiction.

5.0 Actions Against a Perpetrator

The TLRHA can take action against a perpetrator of domestic violence. The victim shall take action to control or prevent the domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking. The action may include but is not limited to: (a) obtaining and enforcing a restraining or no contact order or order for protection against the perpetrator; (b) obtaining and enforcing a trespass against the perpetrator; (c) enforcing TLRHA or law enforcement's trespass of the perpetrator; (d) preventing the delivery of the perpetrator's mail to the victim's unit; (e) proving identifying information listed in 3.2; and (f) other reasonable measures.

6.0 TLRHA Right to Terminate Housing and Housing Assistance Under this Policy

6.1 Nothing in this Policy will restrict the TLRHA, owner or manager's right to terminate tenancy for lease violations by a resident who claims VAWA as a defense if it is determined by the SHA, owner or manager that such a claim is false.

6.2 Nothing in this Policy will restrict the TLRHA right to terminate tenancy if the victim tenant (a) allows a perpetrator to violate a court order relating to the act or acts of violence; or (b) if the victim tenant allows a perpetrator who has been barred from TLRHA property to come onto TLRHA property including but not limited to the victim's unit or any other area under their control.

6.3 Nothing in this Policy will restrict the TLRHA's right to terminate housing and housing assistance if the victim tenant who claims as a defense to an eviction or termination action relating to domestic violence has engaged in fraud and abuse against a federal housing program; especially where such fraud and abuse can be shown to have existed before the claim of domestic violence was made. Such fraud and abuse includes but is not limited to unreported income and ongoing boarders and lodgers violations, or damage to property.

7.0 Statements of Responsibility of Tenant Victim, the TLRHA to the Victim, and to the Larger Community.

7.1 A tenant victim has no less duty and responsibility under the lease to meet and comply with the terms of the lease than any other tenant not making such a claim. Ultimately all tenants must be able to take personal responsibility for themselves and exercise control over their households in order to continue their housing and housing assistance. The TLRHA will continue to issue lease violation notices to all residents who violate the lease including those who claim a defense of domestic violence.

7.2 The TLRHA recognizes the pathologic dynamic and cycle of domestic violence and will work with victims of domestic violence through the agency's Resident Services Program and other local victim support service providers to help victims break the cycle of domestic violence through counseling and the development of an agreed to Safety Plan.

7.3 A tenant victim who claims as a defense to a lease violation that the violation is directly related to domestic violence will be referred to the TLRHA Resident Services Program for counseling, referral and development of a Safety Plan.

7.4 A tenant victim must take personal responsibility for exercising control over their household by accepting assistance and complying with the Safety Plan. Failure to do this will be seen as other good cause.

7.5 All damages including lock changes will be the responsibility of the tenant victim. This is in keeping with other agency policies governing tenant caused damages.

8.0 Notice to Applicants, Participants, Tenants and Section 8 Managers and Owners.

TLRHA shall provide notice to applicants, participants, tenants, managers and owners of their rights and obligations under Section 3.4 Confidentiality and Section 4.0 Appropriate Basis for Denial of Admission, Assistance or Tenancy.

9.0 Reporting Requirements

TLRHA shall include in its 5-year plan a statement of goals, objectives, policies or programs that will serve the needs of victims. TLRHA shall also include a description of activities, services or programs provided or offered either directly or in partnership with other service providers to victims, to help victims obtain or maintain housing or to prevent the abuse or to enhance the safety of victims.

10.0 Conflict and Scope

This Policy does not enlarge TLRHA's duty under any law, regulation or ordinance. If this Policy conflicts with the applicable law, regulation or ordinance, the law, regulation or ordinance shall control. If this Policy conflicts with another TLRHA policy such as its Statement of Policies this Policy will control.
