2. Dating Violence – means violence committed by a person
  - (A) who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and

III. RESIDENTS

A. Written Certification

- (i) The Lincoln Park Housing Commission may request, in writing, certification from a victim that the incident or incidents in question are bona fide incidents of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking. The certification shall be a statement signed under penalty of perjury, by an employee, agent or volunteer of a victim services provider, an attorney or a medical professional from whom the victim has sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence or stalking, or the effects of the abuse, that the incident or incidents in question are bona fide incidents or abuse. The victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking must also sign the statement and identify the alleged perpetrator of the domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.

(ii) Alternatively, the victim may submit a federal, state, or local police or court record from which the Lincoln Park Housing Commission can ascertain the facts and identify the alleged perpetrator. The victim shall provide such certification within 14 business days after the Lincoln Park Housing Commission's written request for the certification. The Lincoln Park Housing Commission may extend the 14 day deadline at its discretion.

(iii) Information provided by the victim pursuant to the certification shall be retained in confidence and not shared unless written consent is obtained from the victim, it is required for use in eviction proceedings or disclosure is otherwise required by law.

B. Victim's Rights

If a victim has properly executed certification on file with the Lincoln Park Housing Commission, or has provided a federal, state or local police report to the Lincoln Park Housing Commission and the resident self-certifies to being the victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking:

(i) An incident or incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence or stalking will not be construed as a serious or repeated violation of the lease by the victim or threatened victim of that violence and shall not be good cause for terminating the assistance, tenancy or occupancy rights of the victim of such violence.

(ii) The Lincoln Park Housing Commission may bifurcate the lease to evict a lawful occupant or resident who engages in criminal acts of physical violence against family members or others without evicting or otherwise penalizing victimized lawful residents or occupants.

(iii) Criminal activity directly related to domestic violence, dating violence or stalking engaged in by a member of a resident's household or any guest or other person under the resident's control shall not be cause for termination of the tenancy or occupancy rights if the resident or an immediate family member is the victim or threatened victim of that domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.

(iv) The Lincoln Park Housing Commission may evict a victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking if it can demonstrate an actual and imminent threat to other residents or the Lincoln Park Housing Commission's employees or service providers if the resident's tenancy is not terminated or for other good cause unrelated to the domestic violence, dating violence or stalking as long as the victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking is not subject to a higher standard than a resident who is not the victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.

(v) The Lincoln Park Housing Commission is authorized to honor court orders regarding rights of access or control of the property.

IV. LINCOLN PARK HOUSING COMMISSION RIGHT TO TERMINATE TENANCY

A. Eviction

Although a resident may have satisfied the requirement to submit a certification regarding domestic violence, dating violence or stalking, the Lincoln Park Housing Commission may terminate tenancy for other good cause unrelated to incident(s) of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking so long as the eviction is not based on a higher standard than that applied to persons who are not the victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.

B. Actual and Imminent Threat

Nothing is to prohibit eviction if the Lincoln Park Housing Commission can demonstrate an actual and imminent threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to the public housing agency if that tenant is not evicted.

LINCOLN PARK HOUSING COMMISSION – LOW RENT

NOTICE TO RESIDENTS OF THEIR RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT

On January 5, 2006, President Bush signed into law a new federal statute, the "Violence Against Women and Department of Justice Reauthorization Act of 2005". For purposes of this notification, this statute is referred to as the Violence Against Women Act or VAWA. The VAWA requires public housing authorities such as the Lincoln Park Housing Commission ("LPHC") to notify residents of their rights and obligations under the VAWA.

Definitions

Domestic Violence – includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabited with the victim as a spouse, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under Michigan domestic or family violence laws or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under Michigan domestic or family violence laws.

Dating Violence – means violence committed by a person

(C) who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and

(D) where the existence of such relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:

(i) the length of the relationship;

(ii) the type of relationship; and

(iii) the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

Stalking – means

(C) (i) to follow, pursue, or repeatedly commit acts with the intent to kill, injure, harass, or intimidate another person; and (ii) to place under surveillance with the intent to kill, injure, harass, or intimidate another person; and,

(D) In the course of, or as a result of, such following, pursuit, surveillance or repeatedly committed acts, to place a person in reasonable fear of the death of, or serious bodily injury to, or to cause substantial emotional harm to (i) that person; (ii) a member of the immediate family of that person; or (iii) the spouse or intimate partner of that person.

Immediate Family Member – means, with respect to a person

(C) a spouse, parent, brother, sister, or child of that person, or an individual to whom that person stands in loco parentis; or

(D) any person living in the household of that person and related to that person by blood or marriage.

Denial of Housing Prohibited

Status as a victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking is not an appropriate basis for denial of admission or denial of housing assistance.

Eviction for Criminal Activity Prohibited

An incident or incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence or stalking by a member of your household or any of your guests or other persons under the resident's control will not qualify as a serious or repeated violation of the lease or good cause for terminating the assistance, tenancy or occupancy rights of a victim or threatened victim. However, the Lincoln Park Housing Commission may bifurcate the lease to evict a lawful occupant or resident who engages in criminal acts of physical violence against family members or others without evicting or otherwise penalizing victimized lawful residents or occupants.

Protection Orders

LPHC is required to honor, when notified, court orders regarding access to or control of your home, including civil protection orders issued to the victim and to address the distribution and possession of property among the household members.

Certification of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence or Stalking

In order to enjoy the benefits of the VAWA, upon LPHC's written request, the resident or any other lawful occupant of their household must provide a certification that they or any other lawful occupant of their home is or has been the victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking. The certification will be a statement, signed under penalty of perjury, by an employee, agent or volunteer of a victim services provider, an attorney or a medical professional from whom the victim has sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence or stalking, or the effects of the abuse, that the incident or incidents in question are bona fide incidents of abuse. The victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking must sign the statement and identify the alleged perpetrator of the domestic violence, dating violence or stalking. Alternatively, the victim may submit a federal, state, or local police or court record from which the LPHC can ascertain the facts and identify the alleged perpetrator. The victim shall provide such certification within 14 business days after the LPHC's written request for the certification. The LPHC may extend the 14 day deadline at its discretion.

Confidentiality of Information Related to Certification

Information provided by the victim pursuant to the certification shall be retained in confidence and not shared unless written consent is obtained from the victim, it is required for use in eviction proceedings or disclosure is otherwise required by law.

LPHC's Right to Evict

Even if the resident has satisfied the requirement to submit a certification regarding domestic violence, dating violence or stalking, the LPHC may evict the resident for other good cause unrelated to incident(s) of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking so long as the eviction is not based on a higher standard than that applied to persons who are not the victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.

Also, the LPHC may evict the resident if the LPHC can demonstrate an actual and imminent threat to other residents or persons employed by the LPHC or persons providing services to the property, if the resident is not evicted.
