VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT (VAWA) POLICY

Curtis Housing Authority

Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) is to protect certain victims of criminal domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking – as well as members of the victims' immediate families – from losing their HUD assisted housing as a result of the abuse of which they were the victim.

APPLICANTS:

1. Applicants will not be denied solely on the basis of being or having been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.
2. Applicants must qualify for housing according to program regulations regarding income, citizenship, criminal background screening, have no outstanding debt to another PHA (public housing authority), and all other local PHA screening criteria.
3. To claim a preference for housing due to being a victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking:
 - a. Applicant must provide certifications documenting the situation within 14 business days after receiving the request. Failure to receive certification will result in the preference being denied.
 - b. Two certifications and proof of a restraining (or protective order) are required. The first certification will be the HUD form 50066. These will be available in the application packets and also on the bulletin boards in the laundry rooms and office of the Curtis Housing Authority. A second certification being (1) a Federal, State, tribal, territorial, or local police record or court record; or (2) A documentation signed and attested to by an employee, agent or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney or medical professional, from whom the victim sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence or stalking, or the effects of abuse, in which the professional attests under penalty of perjury to the professional's belief that the incident or incidents in question are bona fide incidents of abuse, and the victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking has signed or attested to the documentation.
4. The applicant shall certify that the person who engaged in such violence will not reside with the applicant family. If the person who engaged in such violence is admitted by the applicant, the Curtis Housing Authority may deny or terminate assistance for breach of this certification.

TENANTS

1. Victims of domestic violence, dating violence and stalking will not be evicted solely on the basis that they are victims or have been victims.

2. The victim shall have 14 days to provide certifications listed under “Applicants, 3 (b)” page 1. If the tenant does not provide the form HUD – 50066 and the second certification by the 14th business day or any extension provided by the Curtis Housing Authority, none of the protections afforded to the victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking shall apply. The Curtis Housing Authority would therefore be free to evict or terminate assistance in the circumstances authorized by otherwise applicable law and lease provisions.

3. If the victim and abuser are both tenants of the Curtis Housing Authority, the Curtis Housing Authority may bifurcate (split the lease) the lease to evict only the perpetrator.

4. The tenant shall certify that the person who engaged in such violence will not reside with the family. A victim tenant who allows a perpetrator who has been barred from Curtis Housing Authority property to come onto Curtis Housing Authority property, including but not limited to the victim’s apartment and any other area under their control, is subject to eviction or termination of assistance. The Curtis Housing Authority may deny, terminate assistance or evict for breach of the certification.

5. The Curtis Housing Authority may terminate the tenancy of any tenant if the public housing authority can demonstrate an actual and imminent threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to the Curtis Housing Authority under the VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT.

5. An interim recertification will be done to adjust the household’s rent if the abuser had income which was used to determine rent.

None of these provisions shall be construed to supersede any provision of any Federal, State or local law that provided greater protection than this section for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking.

CONFIDENTIALITY

All information provided to the Curtis Housing Authority relating to the incidents of domestic violence, including the fact that an individual is a victim must be retained in confidence and must neither be entered into any shared database nor provided to a related entity, except to the extent that the disclosure is (1) requested or consented by the individual in writing; (2) required for use in an eviction proceeding or termination of assistance; or (3) otherwise required by applicable law.
