Pursuant to the Violence Against Woman and Department of Justice Reauthorization Act of 2005, Sec 603 Public Housing Authority Plans Reporting Requirements, Section 5A of the United State Housing Act of 1937 amended (42 U.S.C. 1437c-1)

The Incorporated Village of Rockville Centre has a zero tolerance policy toward domestic violence. Those who commit acts of violence are arrested and prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. As it specifically relates to beneficiaries of the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program:

No person who is a victim of criminal domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking or members of the victims' immediate families shall lose their Section 8 assistance as a consequence of the abuse of which they are a victim. A victim shall be required to provide sufficient evidence that the alleged incidents or abuse are bona fide. Evidence such as restraining orders and police reports shall be acceptable.

It is the policy of the PHA to deny assistance to those persons who engage in acts of criminal domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking against others. It is the position of the PHA that such behavior constitutes a threat against the community even if the violence is directed against one person.

Pursuant to the Violence Against Woman and Department of Justice Reauthorization Act of 2005, Sec 603 Public Housing Authority Plans Reporting Requirements, Section 5A of the United States Housing Act of 1937 amended (42 U.S.C. 1437c-1)

The Incorporated Village of Rockville Centre Section 8 staff will, if it is brought to their attention or if they suspect domestic violence has occurred, assist the victim in reporting the violence to the police, notifying the Nassau County Department of Social Service's Offices of Adult or Child protective services where applicable, or contacting the Coalition for Domestic Violence.

The Village has a pro-arrest policy on all cases of domestic violence. When a report of Domestic Violence is filed with the Rockville Centre Police Department, it is faxed to the Nassau County Coalition for Domestic Violence. The Coalition will place outreach calls to the victim at a safe contact number provided by the victim at the time of the report. The Coalition will provide Safe Homes, counseling for adults and/or children, legal services and legal counseling, as needed.

VILLAGE OF ROCKVILLE CENTRE SECTION 8 PROGRESS IN MEETING THE 5 YEAR PLAN MISSION AND GOALS

The Village of Rockville Centre Section 8 Program actively continues to promote affordable, decent, safe and sanitary housing for its current tenants and applicants on the waiting list.

To that end, we opened our waiting list from October 15, 2008 to January 15, 2009. This has been helpful in giving access to more low-income people for Section 8 subsidies.

At the same time, we encourage the participation of new landlords so that the available housing stock can be increased.

The Rockville Centre Building Department conducts the Section 8 inspections. Certified Building Inspectors closely monitor adherence to Housing Quality Standards. If necessary, the Section 8 Program may be advised to withhold rent payments for a landlord's failure to make repairs. This is an effective tool in maintaining or improving the quality of the participating units. Also, these inspectors have attended EPA approved lead paint training.

Portability counseling is provided so that tenants and applicants have increased opportunities to find housing.

We act as advocates for our tenants in many areas such as employment, Social Services, Social Security and supportive services.

Fair housing and equal opportunity for all our clients are of primary concern. We continue to increase the number of lease-ups, regardless of race, religion, sex, familial status and disability.

8. For PHA Plan that includes a policy for site based waiting lists:
 - The PHA regularly submits required data to HUD's 50058 PIC/IMS Module in an accurate, complete and timely manner (as specified in PIH Notice 2006-24);
 - The system of site-based waiting lists provides for full disclosure to each applicant in the selection of the development in which to reside, including basic information about available sites; and an estimate of the period of time the applicant would likely have to wait to be admitted to units of different sizes and types at each site;
 - Adoption of site-based waiting list would not violate any court order or settlement agreement or be inconsistent with a pending complaint brought by HUD;
 - The PHA shall take reasonable measures to assure that such waiting list is consistent with affirmatively furthering fair housing;
 - The PHA provides for review of its site-based waiting list policy to determine if it is consistent with civil rights laws and certifications, as specified in 24 CFR part 903.7(c)(1).
9. The PHA will comply with the prohibitions against discrimination on the basis of age pursuant to the Age Discrimination Act of 1975.

16. The PHA will keep records in accordance with 24 CFR 85.20 and facilitate an effective audit to determine compliance with program requirements.
