11. Required Submission for HUD Field Office Review. In addition to the PHA Plan template (HUD-50075), PHAs must submit the following documents.

(g) Challenged Elements:

No element of the PHA Plan was challenged.

Violence against Women Act (VAWA) Statement of Support

Goals, Activities, Objectives, Policies, Programs to Support and Assist Victims of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking

The Violence against Women Act (VAWA) prohibits Public Housing Authorities (PHA) and owners from terminating housing assistance and/or tenancy for a family participating in the Housing Choice Voucher program due to actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.

In support of VAWA, the Shasta County Housing Authority provides assistance and guidance in an effort to support or assist victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to obtain or maintain housing and to enhance victim safety in assisted families.

In addition, in order to ensure that tenants and landlords participating in the Housing Choice Voucher program are aware of the rights under VAWA, the Shasta County Housing Authority has developed an informational sheet describing the intent of VAWA and how it affects tenants who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. It also specifies the actions taken by the Shasta County Housing Authority that helps child or adult victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

This information sheet was sent to all tenants and landlords participating in the HCV program in the fall of 2006. Subsequently, the information sheet is provided to all tenants at their initial briefing for eligibility and to tenants and landlords at any time that an eviction is taking place where such activity is suspected or upon request by any person.

The informational sheet is as follows.

VAWA

Violence against Women Act

The Violence against Women Act (VAWA) prohibits Public Housing Authorities (PHA) and owners from terminating housing assistance and/or tenancy for a family participating in the Housing Choice Voucher program due to actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence or stalking.

Rights as a Tenant:

- Not to have tenancy or occupancy rights terminated by an owner on the basis of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking if the tenant or an immediate member of the tenant family is the victim.
- Not to have program assistance terminated by a PHA on the basis of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking if the tenant or an immediate member of the tenant family is the victim.
- Not to be denied a move under portability if the tenant has moved out of the assisted unit in violation of the lease to avoid harm from actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking.
- To confidentiality “and the limits thereof” if the victim provides certification of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking.

Other Important Facts:

VAWA permits PHAs and owners to request that victims attest to their status by signing a HUD-approved certification form. VAWA also states that a victim may satisfy the requirement of certification by submitting instead one or two alternative types of documentation:

- A local police or court record
- Documentation signed by a victim service provider, an attorney, or a medical professional from whom the victim has sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking. The signer must attest under penalty of perjury (1) that the abuse the victim has suffered is a bona fide incidence of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking and (2) that the victim has signed or approved the documentation.

If the PHA or owner requests certification and the victim fails to provide it within the time allotted by a PHA or an owner, the victim is no longer entitled to the special protection from eviction or termination.

The protections afforded to a tenant by VAWA are not absolute – meaning that there are circumstances when termination of assistance/tenancy may be allowed. This would include a termination for reasons other than an act of domestic violence or when “an actual or imminent threat to other tenants or persons at or providing services to the property exists”.

If the perpetrator is a member of the victim’s household, the PHA or owner has the right to require that the perpetrator leave the household as a condition of continued assistance/tenancy for the rest of the family. PHAs and owners may “bifurcate” the lease, or divide it in two parts, in order to take action against the perpetrator without penalizing the victim.
