13. Violence Against Women Act (VAWA)

Metropolitan Council Housing and Redevelopment Authority (Metro HRA)
Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) Activities

The Metro HRA policies and procedures incorporate and support the laws and requirements outlined in the Violence Against Women Act of 2005 (VAWA). The Metro HRA has revised and updated the Section 8 Administrative Plan to support victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking. The Metro HRA will continue to administer its housing programs in ways that support program participants and applicants who may be victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking. The Metro HRA will not take any adverse action against a resident/participant or applicant solely on the basis of her or him being a victim of such criminal activity, including threats of such activity. “Adverse action” in this context includes denial or termination of housing assistance. The Metro HRA will continue to develop/revise policies and procedures as needed to implement the requirements of VAWA and to collaborate with other agencies to prevent and respond to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking, as those criminal activities may affect applicants for and participants in the HRA’s housing programs. The approved Section 8 Administrative Plan contains many revisions regarding VAWA. Chapter 16, Program Administration includes the following:

PART IX: NOTIFICATION REGARDING APPLICABLE PROVISIONS OF THE VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN
REAUTHORIZATION ACT OF 2005 (VAWA)

The Violence against Women Reauthorization Act of 2005 (VAWA) requires PHAs to inform assisted tenants of their rights under this law, including their right to confidentiality and the limits thereof. Since VAWA provides protections for applicants as well as tenants, PHAs may elect to provide the same information to applicants. VAWA also requires PHAs to inform owners and managers of their obligations under this law.

This part describes the steps that the PHA will take to ensure that all actual and potential beneficiaries of its housing choice voucher program are notified about their rights and that owners and managers are notified of their obligations under VAWA.

PHA Policy
