Attachment A

Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) Provisions

1. Activities, services, or programs provided or offered by the Housing Authority, either directly or in partnership with other service providers, to child or adult victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

The Housing Authority (AHA) has notified Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher program participants and notifies all applicants and property managers of victims rights under VAWA, including:

- The AHA's confidentiality requirements
- Participants' rights of confidentiality and the limits thereof
- Protections and rights under VAWA
- Property owners and managers responsibilities and limits on terminating tenancy

The AHA trained its staff on the provisions of VAWA. Management reminded staff about the resources available to victims of domestic violence and made sure they had this information readily available to provide when needed.

2. Activities, services, or programs provided or offered that helps child and adult victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to obtain or maintain housing.

The Housing Authority of the City of Alameda operates a Section 8 Program which prohibits denying housing assistance to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. The Housing Authority's Policy is as follows:

- The AHA acknowledges that a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking may have an unfavorable history that would warrant denial under the AHA's policies. If the AHA makes a determination to deny admission to an applicant family; therefore, the AHA will include in its notice of denial a statement of the protection against denial provided by VAWA and will offer the applicant the opportunity to provide documentation affirming that the cause of the unfavorable history is that a member of the applicant family is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking.
- Criminal activity directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, or staling, engaged in by a member of a tenant's household or any guest or other person under the tenant's control shall not be a cause for termination of assistance, tenancy, or occupancy rights if the tenant or an immediate member of the tenant's family is the victim or threatened victim of that domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking.
- The AHA has the authority to terminate assistance to any individual who is a tenant or lawful occupant and who engages in criminal acts of physical violence against family members or others, without evicting, removing, terminating assistance to, or otherwise penalizing the victim of such violence who is also a tenant or lawful occupant.

- The AHA's authority is not limited in terminating the assistance of any participant if the AHA can demonstrate an actual and imminent threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to the property if that tenant is not evicted or terminated from assistance.
- If the AHA can demonstrate an actual and imminent threat to other participants or those employed at or providing service to the property if the participant's tenancy is not terminated, the AHA will bypass the standard process and proceed with the immediate termination of the family's assistance.
- When the actions of a participant or other family member results in the AHA decision to terminate the family's assistance and another family member claims that the actions involve criminal acts of physical violence against family members or others, the AHA will request that the victim submit certification and supporting documentation supporting the claim. If provided, the AHA will not terminate assistance to, or otherwise penalize the victim of such violence who is also a tenant or lawful occupant.
- All information provided to the AHA regarding domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, including the fact that an individual is a victim of such violence or stalking, must be retained in confidence and may neither be entered into any shared data base nor provided to any related entity, except to the extent that the disclosure (a) is requested or consented to by the individual in writing, (b) is required for use in an eviction proceeding, or (c) is otherwise required by applicable law.

For additional information about the administration of this policy, please refer to the Housing Authority's Administrative Plan.

3. Any activities, services, or programs provided or offered to prevent domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking, or to enhance victim safety in assisted families.

Fiscal Year 2012 - 2013

ATTACHMENT B

Resident Advisory Committee Comments:

One member asked about what changed in the Administrative Plan on Utility Allowances. Staff advised that a provision was added to allow Low-Income Tax Credit properties to use an energy-efficiency utility allowance.

A member asked when the Housing Choice Voucher waiting list would be opened. Staff advised that a date has not yet been set. The same member asked how people who submit applications are selected for addition to the waiting list. Staff advised that a random selection is completed; applicants to be added to the waiting list are no longer selected on a "first come, first served" basis.

A member asked how preferences work. Staff advised that preferences, such as the residency preference or the veteran's preference, are given point values. These values are added together for each applicant and the applicant with the most points is placed at the top of the waiting list.

A member asked if a single man can apply for a voucher. Staff advised that anyone can apply; however, because of the way preference points work, a single man, or woman, who does not qualify for any preference points could fall to the bottom of the list and not be assisted for a long period of time.

A member asked what the impact of federal budget cuts might have on voucher assistance. Staff advised that cuts are not expected to impact voucher assistance; however, there are cuts proposed that could affect the Housing Authority's ability to administer the program.

An RAC member asked what the difference is between a voucher and a certificate. Staff advised that certificates are no longer used, having been replaced by vouchers.

An RAC member asked about the porting process. There was considerable discussion about the cost to the initial housing authority and the receiving authority and how federal administrative fee cuts might impact each authority.

A member asked about what the Administrative Plan change was for displaced families. Staff advised that the Administrative Plan was revised to allow a preference for families displaced by government action. Staff added that this applied only to the Project-based Voucher Program and was for projects such as The Islander Motel where it is undergoing substantial rehabilitation and the tenants will be displaced.

Comments were received from an RAC member recommending more frequent common area/parking lot clean up at one of the Housing Authority's properties. She also reported youths smoking marijuana in the common areas. Staff advised her to call the police, which she advised that she did. She also reported an unlocked garbage enclosure and some children vandalizing a gate at the complex. She had reported the vandalism to the police. This RAC member also recommended that the future use of the Boys & Girls Club space be a weight room. Staff advised that the space has not been vacated by the Boys & Girls Club yet, but that they should be vacating by the end of the year. [Note: The Boys & Girls Club has a new facility.] Staff also advised that this space would be used for the upcoming Town Hall meeting in January. The RAC member that lives at this property was asked to encourage her neighbors to attend the Town Hall meeting and to suggest other uses for the space.

Finally, an RAC member asked when the next meeting would be held. Staff advised that unless a substantial change was proposed for the Annual Plan, another meeting of the RAC would not be held. The Housing Commission will meet in March to accept oral comments on the Annual Plan and to consider its adoption. Staff advised that all RAC members would receive a notice about any future RAC meetings and the Housing Commission meeting.
