Resident Advisory Board (RAB) Meeting
January 19, 2012

Minutes

Attendees:

RAB Members:	Norman Brewer James Kotsos
Staff:	Nicole Smith - Housing Program Supervisor Jenny Hui - Clerk

1. Introductions

2. Overview of the Annual and Administrative Plan Process.

3. Meeting commenced.

Issue:	Streamlined Agency Annual PHA Plan (Plan)
Commentary:	The Plan is fairly prescriptive in nature. The Plan is to be available for public comment for 45 days. The end of the 45 day public comment period will conclude at the Redding Housing Authority's Board of Commissioners meeting scheduled for March 19, 2012. The Plan provides the U.S. Department of Housing And Urban Development (HUD) with information regarding any changes to the plan. There have been no changes to the Plan since 07/01/2011.
RAB Comments:	None

Issue:	Possible changes to Administrative Plan
Commentary:	The RHA is considering placing into its Administrative Plan a formalized strategy to reduce program expenses in the event HUD provides RHA with insufficient funding. All cost reduction strategies will be utilized before families are terminated from the program. However, should families need to be terminated from the program, RHA needs to have in its Administrative Plan instructions on how to do this. Some considerations are lottery, families that were last admitted to the program are the first to be terminated, families that were first admitted to the program the first to be terminated, or families that live in tax credit units could be terminated initially.

ATTACHMENT D

A second possible change to the Administrative Plan is RHA including within its Special Housing Types, including the ability to provide assistance to families that own a manufactured home and leases its space. Many elderly persons on fixed incomes reside in manufactured home communities and are finding that space rent is escalating. Average park space rent is approximatley $400 a month. For a disabled or elderly person with social security income of $850 a month, this is about 50% of their income. Opening the program to these individuals would expand the RHA's market and provide needed assistance to low-income seniors.

The RHA is also considering increasing the mandatory reporting income threshold from $100 gross income per month to $300 per month. This would ease the reporting burden on families and decrease the amount of interim redeterminations that caseworkers need to process.

RAB Comments: James Kotsos: With regard to the termination sequence due to insufficient funding, he does not like the lottery concept. The people with the greatest need should remain on the program. He is not in favor of extending rental assistance benefits to individuals that own a manufactured home and have space rent. He doesn't like the idea of moving families into trailer homes. James likes the idea of increasing the income reporting threshold to $300 per month.

Norman Brewer: Agreed that those with the greatest need should continue to receive benefits if terminations must happened due to lack of HUD funding. He did not support the idea that manufactured homeowners could receive assistance for space rent. He supported the increase of the income reporting threshold to $300 per month.

4. Meeting Adjourned
