

Continuum of Care (CoC) Builds NOFO Application Submission Instructions

The following information is being provided to assist Continuum of Care (CoC) Collaborative Applicants in your process to submit the selected project application(s) in response to the CoCBuilds NOFO. While the project applicant will complete the application and forms for local CoC review, the CoC's Collaborative Applicant must submit the application. We will not pull, consider, or review an application submitted by a project applicant or other ineligible applicant (e.g., individual, for-profit organization).

Required Forms:
Application for Federal Assistance (SF-424)
Assurances for Construction Programs (SF-424D)*
Assurances for Non-Construction Programs (SF-424B)*
HUD Applicant-Recipient Disclosure Report (HUD-2880)
Applicant and Recipient Assurances and Certifications (HUD-424B)
Disclosure of Lobbying Activities (SF-LLL)
Grants.gov Lobbying Form*
Additional Required Forms: From the CoCBuilds NOFO grants opportunity in Grants.gov, select "Package" then select "Preview" and finally select "Download Instructions" to obtain the additional required forms. This will open a "Zip" file where you will save the forms to your computer so you can complete the information in the forms. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Grant Application Detailed Budget Worksheet (HUD-424-CBW); and• Certification of Consistency with the Consolidated Plan (HUD-2991).

*These forms only require the project applicant's signature. The project applicant can download the forms, manually sign, and then submit the signed forms to you as part of their application package.

Instructions for CoC Collaborative Applicants to submit the selected CoCBuilds application via Grants.gov.

There are a series of helpful, short videos on grants.gov that we encourage you to view prior to beginning the application submission process, and again as needed when you are ready to submit the application. See Applicant Training on Grants.gov. The videos provide helpful information to assist you with the process and are generally less than 5 minutes each. We strongly encourage you to view these video resources as you begin the application process.

Step 1 – See Applicant Training videos on Grants.gov for video instructions. The registration must be under the Collaborative Applicant's name as the Collaborative Applicant must submit the selected project application(s). Register with Grants.gov if you do not already have an account.

Step 2 – Complete the Application for Federal Assistance (SF-424) with your information. This must be completed before you will have access to the application process. If your TIN or UEI numbers are incorrect; or your SAM.gov registration is not active, you will not be able to access the application in Grants.gov.

Step 3 – Submit the application. All required forms built into Grants.gov must indicate your information (CoC's Collaborative Applicant). The following application package will be an attachment and should be placed in the following order:

- #1 - Cover Sheet – The letter signed by the CoC Board President stating the CoC supports the submission of the selected application (Section III.D.2 of the NOFO). The letter must include:
 - CoC Number and Name;
 - name of the applicant organization;
 - name of the project; and
 - amount of funds requested.
- If a second application from a Tribe or Tribally Designated Housing Entity for the construction, rehabilitation, or acquisition of new PSH units on Tribal reservations or trust lands is submitted, you must include the above information for the second application and include the AIAN Code(s).
- #2 - All Required forms from the chart above will be included in the application as attachments:
 - Forms completed by the selected project applicant from the chart above.
 - If you are unable to obtain a fillable version of the forms, download the forms for the project applicant and have them manually complete the forms (handwrite and sign) to include in the attachment.
 - Ensure the HUD-2991 form, Certification of Consistency with the Consolidated Plan is signed by the authorized jurisdiction's official.
