Q&A

15:04:45 From Emily Meltzer to Hosts and panelists:

Will the presentation be recorded and available to share out?

15:09:34 From Caroline Crouse to Everyone:

@Emily: Yes: the presentation is being recorded and will be posted on https://www.hud.gov/program\_offices/comm\_planning/yhdp as soon as it is available

15:12:01 From Amy Louttit to Everyone:

What was the citation for the rule referenced, please?

15:14:09 From Marlisa Grogan to Everyone:

@Amy - The citation I referenced for the Indian Housing Block Grant program was 24 CFR 1000.302. The FY 2021 Appropriations Act is the appropriations language that includes Tribes and TDHEs as eligible CoC recipients or collaborative applicants.

15:14:33 From Amy Louttit to Everyone:

Excellent! Thank you

15:14:56 From Neill Minish to Everyone:

Can you post the deadline?

15:15:56 From Caroline Crouse to Everyone:

@Neill The deadline for this NOFO is June 28, 2022 at 11:59 pm Eastern

15:18:55 From tom allen to Hosts and panelists:

Does a TDHE have to be a CoC or part of a CoC? is there extra money for tribes or does it come out of state funding?

15:22:20 From Norm Suchar to Everyone:

@tom — that's a good question . We'll be discussing how TDHEs can apply in some of the upcoming slides, and I'll talk about it during the Q&A portion of our session.

15:25:32 From Riannon Bardsley to Everyone:

First, i am so pleased that Tribal Nations are no longer excluded from this funding. I feel like this might have been explained already, but for my clarity - a tribe not already designated as a CoC must work with the CoC's collaborative applicant in order to receive YHDP funding. Yes?

15:26:03 From tom allen to Everyone:

is there extra funds for Tribes or do they come out of state share?

15:30:16 From Marlisa Grogan to Everyone:

@Riannon - yes, if not participating as a Collaborative Applicant, Tribes can apply for funding in partnership with the CoC as a project applicant.

15:32:10 From Riannon Bardsley to Everyone:

thank you for answering that. If there is anyone on this call from WA State, I work for the org that is the Collaborative Applicant and I would like to work with you on this application.

15:32:24 From Riannon Bardsley to Everyone:

riannon.bardsley@commerce.wa.gov

15:33:27 From Dorothy Rhodes to Everyone:

There is no cash match up front. Once the final project gets started will we require a cash match. if so, the team will need to have a resolution enacted by the tribal council. will you wait for our resolution to process? at times it can take up to 3 weeks.

15:33:59 From Neill Minish to Everyone:

Can existing COCs amend their plan to incorporate Tribal areas?

15:38:34 From Kelly Camp to Everyone:

If we have a tribe nearby that wants to join our CoC, can we include HMIS and TA and planning to set them up to be set up to capture the necessary data to be part of the CoC as part of the planning grant application?

15:41:53 From Ebony Rankin to Everyone:
