Quarterly Reporting

- PJs must complete and submit all accomplishment data within 30 days of the end of a quarter
 - Must report quarterly on a Federal fiscal year
 - PJs are required to submit data for all quarters that the activity is in “Open” status in IDIS, beginning with quarter in which the written agreement is executed
 - Specified in CPD Notice 21-10 Section XIII.G.4.

Activity Completion

- Change activity status in IDIS to “Complete” when:
 - All funds have been disbursed, or there are no more eligible costs for reimbursement
 - All required quarterly data has been submitted

Demonstration

Scenario

The City of Anytown has decided to use a portion of its HOME-ARP allocation on supportive services for HOME-ARP qualifying populations (QPs). In the City's accepted HOME-ARP Allocation Plan, it allocated $350,000 for the operation of these supportive services. The City anticipates it will administer a portion of the services and enter into an agreement with a nonprofit to administer other supportive services.

Knowledge Check

Knowledge Check

What should the PJ do next in IDIS? (Select all that apply)

- A) Wait for now
- B) Set up a subfund and subgrant in IDIS
- C) Set up an activity in IDIS
- D) Fund an activity in IDIS
- E) Draw funds in IDIS

Knowledge Check

What should the PJ do next in IDIS? (Select all that apply)

A) Wait for Now

- Activities should not be set up until the PJ has a valid commitment
 - This includes any necessary executed written agreement
- PJ may set up new 2021 HOME-ARP Annual Allocation Plan Project(s) or use existing 2021 HOME Project(s)

Annual Action Plan Project Reminder

- Must associate IDIS activities with a 2021 HOME-ARP or HOME Annual Action Plan Project
- For further information, refer to HOME-ARP Project Fact Sheet: Creating HOME-ARP Projects and Activities in IDIS

Scenario Part 1

Anytown will have a local non-profit organization, Feeding People Everywhere (FPE), operate a meal program for HOME-ARP QPs living in Anytown. Anytown executes a subrecipient written agreement on May 16, 2022, for $150,000.

For more information on eligible types of supportive services, reference the HOME-ARP Notice Section VI.D.

By using this U.S. Government information system you understand and consent to the following:

• The information system Rules of Behavior (RoB) provides the rules that govern the appropriate use of the information system for all government, contract personnel and other federally funded users. The RoB is intended to enhance and further define the specific rules each user must follow while accessing the information system and enforcing user understanding of:

1. HUD's policy requiring a separation of duties between the requestor and approver for financial transactions;

2. Prohibition from misusing the information system, i.e., exceeding their authority;

3. The existence of and penalty for violating 18 USC 1030:

a. The elements of 18 USC 1030(a)4, "Accessing to Defraud and Obtain Value" are:

i. Knowingly accessing a protected computer without or in excess of authorization;

ii. With intent to defraud;

iii. Access furthered the intended fraud; and

iv. Obtain anything of value

b. The penalty for violating this statute includes a fine and imprisonment of not more than ten years, or both.

• All new users of the information system must read the RoB and sign the accompanying acknowledgement form before accessing the information system. This acknowledgement must be completed annually thereafter. By signing the form users reaffirm their knowledge of, and agreement to adhere to, the RoB. The RoB may be presented to the user in hardcopy or electronically. The user's acknowledgement may be obtained by written signature or by electronic acknowledgement or signature.

• Users have no reasonable expectation of privacy regarding any communications or data transiting or stored on this information system. At any time, the government may for any lawful government purpose monitor, record, intercept, audit,

Warning! Your IDIS working session will time out after 20 minutes if there is no interaction with the application server. The system will provide a warning and prompt you if you need more time 3 minutes prior to the expiration of the current session.

By using this U.S. Government information system you understand and consent to the following:

- The information system Rules of Behavior (RoB) provides the rules that govern the appropriate use of the information system for all government, contract personnel and other federally funded users. The RoB is intended to enhance and further define the specific rules each user must follow while accessing the information system and enforcing user understanding of:
 - HUD's policy requiring a separation of duties between the requestor and approver for financial transactions;
 - Prohibition from misusing the information system, i.e., exceeding their authority;
 - The existence of and penalty for violating 18 USC 1030:
 - The elements of 18 USC 1030(a)4, "Accessing to Defraud and Obtain Value" are:
 - Knowingly accessing a protected computer without or in excess of authorization;
 - With intent to defraud;
 - Access furthered the intended fraud; and
 - Obtain anything of value
 - The penalty for violating this statute includes a fine and imprisonment of not more than ten years, or both.
- All new users of the information system must read the RoB and sign the accompanying acknowledgement form before accessing the information system. This acknowledgement must be completed annually thereafter. By signing the form users reaffirm their knowledge of, and agreement to adhere to, the RoB. The RoB may be presented to the user in hardcopy or electronically. The user's acknowledgement may be obtained by written signature or by electronic acknowledgement or signature.
- Users have no reasonable expectation of privacy regarding any communications or data transiting or stored on this

Warning! Your IDIS working session will time out after 20 minutes if there is no interaction with the application server. The system will provide a warning and prompt you if you need more time 3 minutes prior to the expiration of the current session.

To work with IDIS MicroStrategy Reports, you must first close any remaining MicroStrategy windows from prior sessions, and open a new window using the link on the IDIS Reports page.

By using this U.S. Government information system you understand and consent to the following:

- The information system Rules of Behavior (RoB) provides the rules that govern the appropriate use of the information system for all government, contract personnel and other federally funded users. The RoB is intended to enhance and further define the specific rules each user must follow while accessing the information system and enforcing user understanding of:
 1. HUD's policy requiring a separation of duties between the requestor and approver for financial transactions;
 2. Prohibition from misusing the information system, i.e., exceeding their authority;
 3. The existence of and penalty for violating 18 USC 1030:
 - a. The elements of 18 USC 1030(a)4, "Accessing to Defraud and Obtain Value" are:
 - i. Knowingly accessing a protected computer without or in excess of authorization;
 - ii. With intent to defraud;
 - iii. Access furthered the intended fraud; and
 - iv. Obtain anything of value
 - b. The penalty for violating this statute includes a fine and imprisonment of not more than ten years, or both.
- All new users of the information system must read the RoB and sign the accompanying acknowledgement form before accessing the information system. This acknowledgement must be completed annually thereafter. By signing the form users reaffirm their knowledge of, and agreement to adhere to, the RoB. The RoB may be presented to the user in hardcopy or electronically. The user's acknowledgement may be obtained by written signature or by electronic acknowledgement or signature.

HOME-ARP Activity Funding Certification

By requesting the disbursement of Federal funds, the representative of the HOME Participating Jurisdiction (PJ) using this system certifies that he/she is authorized to execute the certifications set forth herein, and, on behalf of the PJ, further certifies that, in accordance with the requirements in 24 CFR Part 92, Section 3205 of Pub. L. 117-2 ("American Rescue Plan" or "ARP"), and HOME-ARP implementation notice (collectively, the "HOME-ARP requirements"):

- (i) the PJ has fully executed a written agreement that meets the HOME-ARP requirements applicable to the IDIS activity for which the funds are to be used;
- (ii) the IDIS activity for which the funds are to be used meets the definition of a commitment at 24 CFR 92.2 and all the HOME-ARP requirements for a commitment applicable to the IDIS activity;
- (iii) the PJ has not drawn and will not draw funds for the IDIS activity unless it has fully executed a written agreement that complies with applicable HOME-ARP requirements committing the funds;
- (iv) if the activity involves acquisition, construction, or rehabilitation of rental housing projects, the PJ has conducted an underwriting review that complies with applicable HOME-ARP requirements, assessed developer capacity and fiscal soundness, and examined neighborhood market conditions to ensure adequate need for the project for which these funds are to be used; and
- (v) All of the statements and claims made herein are true and correct. Pursuant to 18 USC § 1001, 31 USC § 3729, et seq., and 24 CFR Part 28, false or fraudulent statements or claims are subject to up to 5 years imprisonment and civil penalties up to $10,000 plus up to the amount of damages sustained by the Government for each fraudulent act committed.

By using this U.S. Government information system you understand and consent to the following:

- The information system Rules of Behavior (RoB) provides the rules that govern the appropriate use of the information system for all government, contract personnel and other federally funded users. The RoB is intended to enhance and further define the specific rules each user must follow while accessing the information system and enforcing user understanding of:
 1. HUD's policy requiring a separation of duties between the requestor and approver for financial transactions;
 2. Prohibition from misusing the information system, i.e., exceeding their authority;
 3. The existence of and penalty for violating 18 USC 1030:
 - a. The elements of 18 USC 1030(a)4, "Accessing to Defraud and Obtain Value" are:
 - i. Knowingly accessing a protected computer without or in excess of authorization;
 - ii. With intent to defraud;
 - iii. Access furthered the intended fraud; and
 - iv. Obtain anything of value
 - b. The penalty for violating this statute includes a fine and imprisonment of not more than ten years, or both.
 - All new users of the information system must read the RoB and sign the accompanying acknowledgement form before accessing the information system. This acknowledgement must be completed annually thereafter. By signing the form users reaffirm their knowledge of, and agreement to adhere to, the RoB. The RoB may be presented to the user in hardcopy or electronically. The user's acknowledgement may be obtained by written signature or by electronic acknowledgement or signature.
 - Users have no reasonable expectation of privacy regarding any communications or data transiting or stored on this

HOME-ARP Drawdown Certification

By requesting the disbursement of Federal funds, the representative of the HOME Participating Jurisdiction (PJ) using this system certifies that he/she is authorized to execute the certifications set forth herein, and, on behalf of the PJ, further certifies that, in accordance with the requirements in 24 CFR Part 92, Section 3205 of Pub. L. 117-2 ("American Rescue Plan" or "ARP"), and HOME-ARP implementation notice (collectively, the "HOME-ARP requirements"):

(i) the PJ has complied with and will comply with all of the financial reporting responsibilities of the HOME-ARP requirements and the applicable uniform administrative requirements at 2 CFR Part 200, as amended;

(ii) the funds that the PJ has drawn and will draw shall be used pursuant to the approved housing strategy and shall be used in compliance with all HOME-ARP requirements; AND

(iii) All of the statements and claims made herein are true and correct. Pursuant to 18 USC § 1001, 31 USC § 3729, et seq., and 24 CFR Part 28, false or fraudulent statements or claims are subject to up to 5 years imprisonment and civil penalties up to $10,000 plus up to 3 times the amount of damages sustained by the Government for each fraudulent act committed.

I agree. Continue to confirm this voucher

I disagree. Cancel this voucher

By using this U.S. Government information system you understand and consent to the following:

• The information system Rules of Behavior (RoB) provides the rules that govern the appropriate use of the information system for all government, contract personnel and other federally funded users. The RoB is intended to enhance and further define the specific rules each user must follow while accessing the information system and enforcing user understanding of:

1. HUD's policy requiring a separation of duties between the requestor and approver for financial transactions;

2. Prohibition from misusing the information system, i.e., exceeding their authority;

3. The existence of and penalty for violating 18 USC 1030:

a. The elements of 18 USC 1030(a)4, "Accessing to Defraud and Obtain Value" are:

i. Knowingly accessing a protected computer without or in excess of authorization;

ii. With intent to defraud;

iii. Access furthered the intended fraud; and

iv. Obtain anything of value

b. The penalty for violating this statute includes a fine and imprisonment of not more than ten years, or both.

• All new users of the information system must read the RoB and sign the accompanying acknowledgement form before accessing the information system. This acknowledgement must be completed annually thereafter. By signing the form users reaffirm their knowledge of, and agreement to adhere to, the RoB. The RoB may be presented to the user in hardcopy or electronically. The user's acknowledgement may be obtained by written signature or by electronic acknowledgement or signature.

• Users have no reasonable expectation of privacy regarding any communications or data transiting or stored on this

Warning! Your IDIS working session will time out after 20 minutes if there is no interaction with the application server. The system will provide a warning and prompt you if you need more time 3 minutes prior to the expiration of the current session.

HOME-ARP Activity Funding Certification

By requesting the disbursement of Federal funds, the representative of the HOME Participating Jurisdiction (PJ) using this system certifies that he/she is authorized to execute the certifications set forth herein, and, on behalf of the PJ, further certifies that, in accordance with the requirements in 24 CFR Part 92, Section 3205 of Pub. L. 117-2 ("American Rescue Plan" or "ARP"), and HOME-ARP implementation notice (collectively, the "HOME-ARP requirements"):

- (i) the PJ has fully executed a written agreement that meets the HOME-ARP requirements applicable to the IDIS activity for which the funds are to be used;
- (ii) the IDIS activity for which the funds are to be used meets the definition of a commitment at 24 CFR 92.2 and all the HOME-ARP requirements for a commitment applicable to the IDIS activity;
- (iii) the PJ has not drawn and will not draw funds for the IDIS activity unless it has fully executed a written agreement that complies with applicable HOME-ARP requirements committing the funds;
- (iv) if the activity involves acquisition, construction, or rehabilitation of real property, the PJ has conducted an underwriting review that complies with applicable HOME-ARP requirements, assessed developer capacity and fiscal soundness, and examined neighborhood market conditions to ensure adequate need for the project for which these funds are to be used; and
- (v) All of the statements and claims made herein are true and correct. Pursuant to 18 USC § 1001, 31 USC § 3729, et seq., and 24 CFR Part 28, false or fraudulent statements or claims are subject to up to 5 years imprisonment and civil penalties up to $10,000 plus up to the amount of damages sustained by the Government for each fraudulent act committed.

Key Points

- For PJ-administered supportive service activities:
 - Fund with EN funds
 - Written Agreement Execution Date (WAED) = date activity is set up in IDIS
 - Must be before service delivery begins

Scenario Part 4

It is now August 17, 2022, and both the Feeding People Everywhere (FPE) Meal program and the Short Term Financial Assistance program have been delivering services for three months. However, the City has not yet reported its quarterly data for each program in IDIS.

You understand and consent to the following:

provides the rules that govern the appropriate use of the information system for all generally funded users. The RoB is intended to enhance and further define the specific rules each user must follow while accessing the information system and enforcing user understanding of:

1. HUD's policy requires separation of duties between the requestor and approver for financial transactions;

2. Prohibition from misusing the information system, i.e., exceeding their authority;

3. The existence of and consequences for violating 18 USC 1030:

a. The elements of 18 USC 1030(a)(4), "Accessing to Defraud and Obtain Value" are:

i. Knowingly accessing a protected computer without or in excess of authorization;

ii. With intent to defraud;

iii. Access furthered the intended fraud; and

iv. Obtain anything of value

b. The penalty for violating this statute includes a fine and imprisonment of not more than ten years, or both.

• All new users of the information system must read the RoB and sign the accompanying acknowledgement form before accessing the information system. This acknowledgement must be completed annually thereafter. By signing the form users reaffirm their knowledge of, and agreement to adhere to, the RoB. The RoB may be presented to the user in hardcopy or electronically. The user's acknowledgement may be obtained by written signature or by electronic acknowledgement or signature.

• Users have no reasonable expectation of privacy regarding any communications or data transiting or stored on this system.

You must understand and consent to the following:

The following rules govern the appropriate use of the information system and define the specific rules each user must follow while accessing the information system and enforcing user understanding of:

1. HUD's policy requiring separation of duties between the requestor and approver for financial transactions;

2. Prohibition from misusing the information system, i.e., exceeding their authority;

3. The existence of an automatic penalty for violating 18 USC 1030:

a. The elements of 18 USC 1030(a)4, "Accessing to Defraud and Obtain Value" are:

i. Knowingly accessing a protected computer without or in excess of authorization;

ii. With intent to defraud;

iii. Access furthered the intended fraud; and

iv. Obtain anything of value

b. The penalty for violating this statute includes a fine and imprisonment of not more than ten years, or both.

• All new users of the information system must read the RoB and sign the accompanying acknowledgement form before accessing the information system. This acknowledgement must be completed annually thereafter. By signing the form users reaffirm their knowledge of, and agreement to adhere to, the RoB. The RoB may be presented to the user in hardcopy or electronically. The user's acknowledgement may be obtained by written signature or by electronic acknowledgement or signature.

• Users have no reasonable expectation of privacy regarding any communications or data transiting or stored on this information system.

HOME-ARP Supportive Services

There is 1 Supportive Services activity with quarterly data to be reported.
Note: quarters that have ended more than 30 days ago are ⌚overdue.

	Activity Name	Program Year/ Project ID	IDIS Activity ID	Written Agreement Execution Date	Quarters to Report	Action
1	Short Term Financial Assistance	2021/17	2338	05/16/2022	⌚ 04/01/2022	Edit View

Key Points

- PJ must report on all quarters from Written Agreement Execution Date (WAED)
- May only submit data once quarter ends; 30 days to submit
- Reports use summary data on households served
- Must report on Homeless vs. Non-Homeless
- New Household = any household served that quarter but not in the previous quarter
- Complete activity in IDIS once service delivery complete, all quarterly data is submitted, and all incurred costs have been drawn down from IDIS
