2.33 Thematic Maps (not applicable to all maps)

In some of the thematic maps in the AFFH-T, the class breaks and range of values in the map reflect natural breaks based on regional-level data.

Natural breaks classes are based on natural groupings inherent in the data. Class breaks that best group similar values and that maximize the differences between classes are identified. The features are divided into classes whose boundaries are set where there are relatively big differences in the data values. Natural breaks classification is best used for mapping data values that are not evenly distributed, but instead tend to cluster into groups as natural breaks places clustered values in the same class.¹

¹ [https://doc.arcgis.com/en/maps-for-office/design-and-use/classification-methods.htm#ESRI_SECTION1_976A24FBBF0648E18463A8097EE79B55]
The following list of maps provide data using natural breaks based on regional-level distribution of the data:

- Map 5 – Public Housing, Project-Based Section 8, Other Multifamily, and LIHTC locations mapped with race/ethnicity dot density map with R/ECAPs and distinguishing categories of publicly supported housing by color for the Jurisdiction and Region

- Map 16 – Housing Tenure by Owners or Renters with R/ECAPs
- Map 17 – Map of percent of rental units affordable, defined as units renting at or less than 30% of household income for a household with income at 50% of AMI

The remaining thematic maps use class breaks based on percentile rankings:

- Map 7 – Demographics and School Proficiency
- Map 8 – Demographics and Job Proximity
- Map 9 – Demographics and Labor Market
- Map 10 – Demographics and Transit Trips
- Map 11 – Demographics and Low Transportation Cost
