Your race shouldn't affect your home, your health, your children, or your job. Under the Fair Housing Act, it is illegal for landlords and real estate agents to refuse to let you rent or buy a home because of your race. If you believe your rights have been violated, file a complaint with HUD. We all deserve to live in safe housing with access to opportunities.

Everyone has a right to fair housing.

A public service message from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development in cooperation with the National Fair Housing Alliance. The federal Fair Housing Act prohibits discrimination because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), familial status or disability.
