In the Matter of:

Amanda Gonzalez,

Petitioner

20-VH-0274-AG-172

November 18, 2021

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

24 C.F.R. § 26.4 (c) provides that “If a party refuses or fails to comply with an order of the hearing officer, including an order compelling discovery, the hearing officer may enter any appropriate order necessary to the disposition of the hearing including a determination against the noncomplying party...” Further, under 24 C.F.R. § 26.4 (d), it provides, “If a party fails to prosecute or defend an action brought under subpart A of this part, the hearing officer may dismiss the action or may issue an initial decision against the non-prosecuting or defending party. (Emphasis added).

Petitioner herein has failed to offer sufficient evidence to prove that the amount of the subject debt claimed by the Secretary is unenforceable or not past due, or that the proposed garnishment amount would create a financial hardship. The lapse of time since August 2020 has provided Petitioner with a number of opportunities to comply with the Court’s Orders to produce such evidence but Petitioner has failed to do so. As a result, the Court is unable to determine the credibility of Petitioner’s argument claiming hardship or challenging the amount of the subject debt due to Petitioner’s non-compliance.

The Order to Show Cause issued on September 23, 2021, after Petitioner’s failure to comply with the two previous Orders on August 31, 2020 and January 8, 2021, specifically stated “Failure to comply with this Order shall result in sanctions being imposed by the Court pursuant to 24 C.F.R. § 26.4 (c) and (d), including judgment being entered on behalf of the opposing party or dismissal of this action.” (Emphasis in original). Consistent with the provisions of 24 C.F.R. §§ 26.4 (c) and (d), Petitioner’s appeal is DISMISSED sua sponte. Therefore, it is hereby ORDERED that this matter be DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE and the stay of proceeding issued on August 31, 2020 is VACATED.

SO ORDERED.
